MS 508 EVANGELISM
SYLLABUS

REFORMED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
CHARLOTTE

SPRING 2015

Rod Culbertson, Jr.
Adjunct Professor of Practical Theology

RCULBERTSON@RTS.EDU
COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course will train students to be thoughtful and passionate evangelists and to understand and use biblical principles and methods of church outreach. Emphasis is placed on having a deep desire to reach the lost for Christ. Personal, relational and corporate (organic) evangelism and motivating the laity for ministry will be considered.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

COGNITIVE (KNOW/UNDERSTAND):
1. The student will be able to present a full explanation of the gospel message, including an introduction, an organized outline of gospel content, attendant biblical references and illustrations, a conclusion and a follow-up strategy.
2. The student will be exposed to various models of church evangelism.
3. The student will be learn how to present his personal testimony and to help others do the same.
4. The student will learn how to build bridges to non-Christians as a means to proclaiming the gospel.
5. The student will learn how to handle objections and the people who make them.
6. The student will learn the importance of prayer in any evangelistic endeavor.
7. The student will be able to diagnose some of the cultural barriers that make the gospel presentation difficult today and give answers as to how to overcome these barriers.

AFFECTIVE (FEEL/MOTIVATION):
1. The student will gain a greater motivation and compassion for reaching the lost.
2. The student will gain a deeper desire to maintain a God-centered view and practice of evangelism.
3. The student will gain a deeper conviction that the local church body is God’s primary means of evangelism.
4. The student will grow in personal confidence and courage for sharing the gospel.
5. The student will become more sensitive to the needs of the surrounding culture and the people in his/her world.
6. The student will be compelled to care and pray for the lost, the endangered and the unchurched.

VOLITIONAL (DO/COMPETENCIES):
1. The student will conduct an interview with either his/her pastor and reflect upon how he or she will do evangelism in his/her church or ministry.
2. The student will be able to write out or verbalize a gospel presentation that will enable him or her to effectively present the gospel. The student will also be able to train others in how to present the gospel.
3. The student will conduct an interview with an unbeliever in order to understand the worldviews and the thinking of the lost and un-churched.
4. The student will make an effort to be involved in some facet of evangelism during the semester.
5. The student will be enabled to be a more effective personal evangelist, while also able to develop a plan for corporate evangelism through the local church.
6. The student will read a number of classic books on the topic of evangelism.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS:  (Approximately 907 pages)

   A highly recommended booklet for understanding how to share the Gospel with followers of Islam.

   A solid defense on why Christians who believe in God’s sovereignty ought to have greater motives to evangelize than those who do not hold to Reformed doctrine.

   http://www.amazon.com/Tell-Truth-Gospel-Person-People/dp/0830823220/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1253800745&sr=8-2

   A focus on gospel content with an emphasis on God-centered evangelism and communication of the whole gospel, i.e., God’s holiness and sovereignty, as well as His love.

OTHER READING (ON RESERVE):

Choose from any of the books listed below (these books are on Reserve in the RTS/Charlotte library) and read at least 350 total pages. Multiple texts may be read. At the end of the semester, on the final day of class (before final exams), you will be asked to turn in your list of the book(s) and pages that you have read.

NOTE: If you have already read all or some of the above REQUIRED textbooks, then compensate for the page requirements with the list below (or with other books approved by the professor).

   The classic text on the importance and methodology of relational evangelism. A little dated.

   http://www.amazon.com/Heart-Evangelism-Jerram-Barss/dp/1581347154/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1253800883&sr=1-1
A philosophy of relational evangelism from a Reformed perspective.

   http://www.amazon.com/Evangelism-Rest-Us-Sharing-Personality/dp/0801065909/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1286753586&sr=1-1

An analysis of how one’s personality affects his or her style of evangelism.

A brief look at the methods, message and principles of Puritan evangelism.

A classic work, soul searching in nature, and lending itself to passion for and courage in reaching others with the gospel.

   And Some Evangelists
   Hardcover (Dec. 31, 1969) by Carswell Rodger

A look at various evangelists throughout church history and how they might affect evangelism in the church today.

   http://www.amazon.com/Pastor-Evangelist-Roger-S-Greenway/dp/0875522793/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1253801009&sr=1-1

A variety of perspectives regarding pastoral leadership in evangelism with a focus on doing evangelism through the local church. Written by various authors and pastors in the Reformed tradition.

An alternative approach to modern styles of evangelism based on historical precedent and practices from the Celtic era. Non-Reformed in perspective, yet challenging.

Written from a non-Reformed perspective, this book, nevertheless, is helpful in thinking through relational evangelism and includes lots of ideas.

An introduction to a method of programmatic church “follow-up” evangelism that is probably the most effective approach of its type.

   http://www.amazon.com/Evangelism-Mandate-David-L-Larsen/dp/0825430895/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1343416433&sr=1-1&keywords=david+larsen+the+evangelism

Although he takes a middle-of-the-road perspective theologically, Larsen wrestles with some great issues regarding evangelistic preaching and also provides some insight into the history of evangelism.

An account of one man’s personal growth in evangelism, as he reflects upon encounters of various types throughout his life. An inspiration for the aspiring evangelist.

   http://www.amazon.com/Evangelism-Mandate-David-L-Larsen/dp/0825430895/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1253801184&sr=1-1

A well beloved book that provides helpful thoughts and motivation for moving a church out of an ingrown mentality.

A tremendous and thoughtful work helping the reader to deal with proclaiming the gospel in a secular or pluralistic culture. The author, a former missionary, is not a conservative evangelical, but has very valuable insights.

A book on evangelism that bases its methodology upon the art of asking questions over simply giving answers to inquirers.

http://www.amazon.com/Hell-Trial-Case-Eternal-Punishment/dp/0875523722/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1253801226&sr=1-1

A thorough treatment of the subject of hell, discussing and defending the reality of eternal punishment.

   http://www.amazon.com/World-at-Your-Door/dp/1556619642/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1253801269&sr=1-1

This book provides helpful, practical advice for initiating and building relationships with international students, and also about sharing your faith with these willing and eager audiences.

An excellent and easily understandable explanation of the basic tenets and practices of the Islamic faith.

REQUIREMENTS AND EVALUATION:

I. Class attendance and discussion.

You will be expected to participate in the class discussion, especially as we interact with the textbooks and assigned reading, as well as the required papers. We will also occasionally break into small groups. Excessive, unexcused absences could adversely affect your grade.

II. Reading (13% of course grade).

Textbook reading and papers are should be completed by the date scheduled for discussion so you can participate and interact in the class based upon the reading assignment. Your actual total reading will be reported on the last class meeting.

III. Weekly Quizzes (12% of course grade).
At the beginning of the first hour of each class, or at the professor’s discretion, there will be a 5 minute period set aside for a weekly quiz. Quizzes will be designed to help motivate the student to fulfill the Scripture memory work. Quizzes will (normally) include the following: two verses which are to be memorized for the gospel presentation and one verse from the previous week’s memorization (preferably in the New International Version or English Standard Version). The quiz schedule and requirements are provided below.

III. Papers (45% of course grade)

Three papers are required for the course.

Papers must be (You can lose points on this requirement if you do not follow it verbatim):

1. Double-spaced
2. 12 point/Times Roman typeset with standard margins.
3. Numbered
4. Contain a cover sheet, with name on the cover sheet only (not throughout the paper)

1. Interview with a non-Christian/un-churched person paper (15%)

Length: 2 pages.

Conduct an interview with an unbelieving and/or un-churched friend, neighbor, relative or stranger. Describe the individual, but names are neither necessary nor preferred. Explain clearly to the individual that this is simply a 10-15 minute interview and is a requirement for one of your seminary (or graduate school) classes. All answers are voluntary and confidential, although you must write a brief paper regarding your experience and answers given in the interview. Please describe your reaction to the interview. Approach the interview with sensitivity, openness and a gracious spirit. The use of Internet conversations are not permitted, except as an exception, with the permission of the professor. We will discuss your experiences in class.

Some suggested questions to be asked (ask at least 6) and answered are:

1) How would you define God?
2) Can a person know God? (How?)
3) Who was/is Jesus Christ?
4) What is the biggest problem, in your opinion, facing humankind today?
5) What is (how do you define) sin?
6) How do you feel about the church (and/or Christianity) and why do you feel this way?
7) How would you define the concept of salvation?
8) Do you think that there is only one way to reach God? (Elaborate)
9) What happens after we die?
10) How would you define a Christian?
11) How does a person get to heaven?
12) What is your philosophy of life?
13) What do you think is common to world religions? How do they differ?

Due: March 26.

2. My Gospel Presentation (Outline) (15%)

Option 1: Letter to a Friend

Length: Your Choice (6-8 pages)

Write a letter to a non-Christian friend, family member, relative or acquaintance. Include a full gospel presentation, as if you would explain the gospel to him or her. Although flexibility is allowed, include a gracious introduction/transition, major points, sub points, some Scripture quotes (references not necessary), at least six (6) illustrations, a means of response and a follow-up (how to grow) section.

Option 2: Create Your Own Evangelism Presentation

Length/Size: Your Choice
In order to clarify your understanding of the gospel, create one of the following:

1. Your own piece of gospel literature
2. A power point presentation or
3. A website presentation.

Include a full gospel presentation, which will present the gospel in its major points. Be sure to explain the gospel clearly to the audience/generation of your choice (i.e. the presentation should make sense). Use Scriptural references, illustrations, diagrams, drawings and graphics, etc. as would be helpful. Computer generated pictures or cartoons are acceptable. Feel free to be creative. The primary goal, of course, is to effectively communicate the gospel to those persons to whom you would most effectively reach or minister. The pamphlet should exhibit some degree of excellence in its presentation.

Due: April 23.

3. The Practice of Evangelism (15%)

Option 1: Church Staff/Pastoral Interview Paper - Evangelism and My Church.

Length: 5 pages.

Interview the senior pastor or the pastor in charge of outreach in your church with the goal of discovering: “How is our church doing in its evangelistic efforts?” Approach the interview with care and sensitivity, not a spirit of criticism. (If you are the pastor of your church, interview another pastor outside of this class).

Some questions to be asked and answered are:

1) What is your philosophy of evangelism? How does our church approach evangelism?

2) How do you view personal evangelism related to (1) the life of the pastor? (2) the individual believer/church member? (3) the church as a whole?

3) What is our church doing to tell others about Christ and to reach out to others in our community?

4) Do we have evangelism training and/or a program in our church? Why did we choose this approach? What else have you considered?

5) What is our plan for church growth and/or reaching the lost in our community?

6) In your paper, give a two page explanation of your response to the interview. State the ideas you like or dislike and give an explicit expression of what you would do in your church or ministry because of this interview. You may discuss your experiences in class.

Option 2: Non-Christian (Questionnaire) Follow-Up

Length: 2 pages

In an effort to encourage “relational” evangelism, you can do a follow up conversation with the same individual with whom you did your Non-Christian/un-churched person interview. This conversation should be an attempt to further explain or clarify the gospel presentation. You will be expected to write a two page paper about this follow up conversation and can integrate descriptions of the previous interview, as well as any other previous encounters or relations with this individual. Be certain to explain the aspects of the gospel which you focused upon in your follow up conversation and the response or reaction which you observed. Include your personal reaction to the experience.

Note: If the student is unable to do a follow-up interview with the person he/she previously interviewed, a different individual can be selected, with the permission of the professor and an explanation for the change.

Option 3: Written Philosophy of Evangelism

Length: 5 pages

Based on lectures, reading, guest professors, previous experience and observations, etc., develop a written statement of your personal philosophy of ministry for evangelism or a church-based evangelism philosophy of ministry. Explain how you would do evangelism in the ministry in which you see yourself (now or in the future). Consider programmatic, relational, organic, event, mercy, social, cross-cultural, personal, large group and/or small group approaches to evangelism and explain your philosophy of evangelism. Feel free to include a biblical and/or theological basis for your evangelism philosophy of ministry.

Due: May 7.

IV. Final Exam (30% of course grade)

The final exam will be a comprehensive, written exam which will cover content from all of the lectures and all of the reading (general concepts) and which will require a full gospel outline (including headings, subheadings, illustrations, Scripture references and Scripture verses written out) similar to the My Gospel Presentation (Outline) described in the assignment earlier in this syllabus (above).

Due: Exam Week

POLICY ON CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM:
Research papers require borrowing other people's ideas and words. However, the source of such borrowing must be acknowledged properly so that your ideas are clearly distinguished from ideas that you borrowed. If the source is not acknowledged properly, your work is plagiarism. For an excellent summary on what constitutes plagiarism, see Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (rev. by Wayne C. Booth, etc.; 7th ed.; Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2007), pp. 77-80 (section 7.9). Plagiarism includes word-for-word copying, lifting terms, restatement of someone's argument or line of thought, etc. – all without acknowledgment of source. Plagiarism also includes giving a source partial credit when more is taken from that source than indicated. Plagiarism, whether intentional or unintentional, is very serious. All plagiarism cases are referred to the Academic Dean for resolution. Consequences may include some of the following:
- repeat the assignment and receive a maximum of a D on the assignment
- receive an F on the assignment
- receive an F in the course
- expulsion from the seminary

POLICY ON GRAMMAR AND SPELL CHECK: Any work turned in which appears to lack “proofing” or displays poor grammar will receive an appropriate penalty affecting the grade.

SPIRITUALITY QUESTIONNAIRE

Please answer the questions to the best of your ability.

1) How would you define God?

2) Can a person know God? (How?)

3) Who was/is Jesus Christ?

4) What is the biggest problem, in your opinion, facing humankind today?

5) What is (how do you define) “sin?”

6) How do you feel about the church (and/or Christianity) and why do you feel this way?

7) How would you define the concept of salvation?

8) Do you think that there is only one way to reach God? (Elaborate)

9) What happens after we die?

10) How would you define a “Christian?”

11) How does a person get to heaven?

12) What is your philosophy of life?

13) What do you think is common to world religions? How do they differ?
YOUR BACKGROUND
(Please Complete Before the First Lecture – BE VERY BRIEF!)

1. Consider your conversion to Christ. Briefly summarize your testimony. How and when did you become a Christian?

2. Looking at Question 1, answer the following:

   A. What circumstances turned you to God/brought you to Christ?

   B. What persons/personalities and/or attitudes affected your conversion process?

   C. Which was most influential in your coming to faith in Christ (circle your answer):

      1) A doctrinal truth (please list or state):

      2) A personal relationship - what type of relationship:

      3) A person’s lifestyle or behavior (what impressed you?):
3. What type of evangelism training have you had previously? How did/do you feel about it?

4. Consider your experience in attending or participating in evangelistic meetings or events (church, campus, small groups, crusades, etc.). What have you seen, liked, disliked? Why?

5. How does your home (or present) church and/or pastor fulfill the evangelism mandate of Christ?

6. What are some ways in which you are presently involved in or could be more involved in reaching others for Christ?

7. What are your long-term ministry goals (if you know) - evangelist, pastor, missionary, teacher, professor, involved layperson, other...?

8. What do you hope to receive from a class/course on evangelism? What area do you want to see addressed? In what ways do you hope to be helped? Be honest and frank.
RTS Charlotte Classroom Internet Usage

RTS Charlotte recognizes how essential it is for students to have reliable, campus-wide access to the internet. For that reason, we have made wi-fi available for our student body, not only in the library and student lounges, but also in the classrooms. We know that students need to use the internet to download class materials, access files on the Cloud, and to access other important information.

However, we also recognize that internet access in the classroom provides opportunity for abuse and misuse. Some students have unfortunately used their internet access to engage in many activities that distract them from the classroom lectures (e.g., surfing the web, checking sports scores, playing games). Not only does such activity hamper a student’s own seminary education, but it distracts other students who can see their computer screens. In addition, donors and classroom guests (who often sit in the back) can see this inappropriate internet usage, which reflects poorly on RTS.

So, how can these challenges be addressed? One option is to turn off the internet entirely. But, we recognize that this creates problems for students who use it for legitimate reasons. Thus, we prefer to address this problem by appealing to the integrity of the students as ones who are preparing for a lifetime of ministry to Christ and his church. We are asking each student to take personal responsibility for their behavior in this area and to encourage others around them to do the same.

In order to encourage this accountability, and to change the culture of the campus as it pertains to the internet, we are asking each student to sign the pledge below at the beginning of each term. As a pledge, we ask you to sign with integrity and with an honest desire to keep it.

“On my honor as a student at Reformed Theological Seminary, and as a one preparing for the gospel ministry, I pledge that I will use the internet in the classroom only for appropriate class-related activities.”
