Course Description
Students examine the biblical data relative to church government and The Book of Church Order. The organization and function of church courts, including discipline and appeals, are considered, and parliamentary procedure is emphasized.

Course Objectives
1. To understand why proper church polity is helpful in leading the local church
2. To understand the implications of orderly oversight regarding church discipline, worship, and the sacraments.
3. To understand and to articulate the biblical foundations of church government, especially Presbyterian government, including as set forth in the Book of Church Order (BCO) of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA).
4. To acquire practical acquaintance with parliamentary procedure.

Required Texts

Recommended Texts

(These texts are not required reading for the examination)

1. The Holy Bible, preferably in a recent translation (the instructor will use the ESV).

Assignments & Requirements

(1) Completion of the Assigned Reading. The student will complete all of the Required Reading above, approximately 744 pages. The student must indicate to the instructor in writing at the time the Final Exam is turned in how much of the reading has been completed (partial credit will be given). 25% of Final Grade
(2) A Final Exam will be given as a take-home exam, handed out at the end of class on January 24. It is not an open-book exam. The student will be required to sign a statement that the student has received no assistance (whether from written materials or persons) during the course of taking the exam. The final exam will be based on both the lectures and the Required Reading, and will consist of multiple choice questions and several short answer (1-2 paragraphs) questions. The final exam is due not later than 4:00 PM on Friday, February 13, 2015. Please arrange your schedule accordingly.

Late Exams will be penalized. 75% of Final Grade

Attendance
Because of the condensed nature of this course, class attendance is required for PT 520. If a student anticipates an unavoidable absence, he should notify the instructor in advance. Each hour of unexcused absence subjects the student reduction of his final grade by one-half of a letter grade.

Grading Scale
The grading scale for this course is the seminary’s grading scale. You may find it listed in the RTS Catalog.

Plagiarism
Please review the seminary’s policy on plagiarism. Plagiarized work will subject the student to failure in the course and possible disciplinary action.

In-Class Computer Use
Students are expected to conduct themselves as mature believers in Christ. Classroom manners should reflect this maturity. Please silence all cell phones and other electronic devices, and plan to return calls during breaks. Please refrain from surfing the internet, playing games, or chatting during class time.

Approximate Course Schedule
Please note that this schedule is approximate and subject to change at any time. The instructor’s announced changes in class will be the final word on the nature and date of assignments. They are the student’s sole responsibility to note and to implement.
