Welcome to RTS,
at least in catalog form!

Grace, mercy and peace be yours through Jesus Christ our Lord!

A catalog like this will give you information about our ministry and, hopefully, a glimpse into the life of our seminary community, which we pray will be yours. Yet behind the detailed course descriptions, admission policies and graduation requirements is a story of how our God, who so loved the world that He sent His only begotten Son into the world to save sinners so that we may not perish, is seeking to prepare laborers for His harvest (Matthew 9:38). He is doing this by calling pastors, missionaries, teachers, counselors and a host of other Christian servants to leave all and follow Him. That call is a glorious disruption that leads us to give our lives away to Christ and to the world He came to save. It also leads those who receive that call to a biblical conviction that such a high calling deserves the highest and best preparation — not only in mind, but also in heart.

That is probably the story of why you are viewing this catalog. But a greater story is being told here. As you consider taking up the challenge and joys of ministerial preparation, there may be a twelve-year-old girl sitting in a pew, Bible open, trying to make sense of a passage; or a young man intensely wrestling with God over whether he should go to the mission field or serve God in law school; or a community of 50,000 souls in northern India with no gospel-preaching church. Ultimately, these are the people we serve, because they are the people you would serve.

As you read through our catalog, remember that their stories and yours, and most importantly the story of the gospel of Christ, are at the center of all we do and all we are.

May the Holy Spirit direct you as you decide where He wants you to invest your years. Seminary is a ministry of preparation, but it is also a story of God’s redemptive work in the world. We are here to help you as you consider RTS and as you follow your call.

Yours Faithfully,

Robert C. Cannada, Jr.         Michael A. Milton
Chancellor and CEO         Chancellor-Elect
INVITATION

Reformed Theological Seminary has seven degree-granting campuses: Atlanta, Georgia; Charlotte, North Carolina; Jackson, Mississippi; Orlando, Florida; Sao Paulo, Brazil; Washington DC; and the Virtual Campus. This catalog describes the degree programs available at these campuses. For Sao Paulo, Brazil, there is a minimal explanation in the Doctor of Ministry section (for more detailed information regarding the D.Min. degree in Sao Paulo, please contact RTS Jackson).

In addition to the seven degree-granting campuses, Reformed Theological Seminary has two additional campuses at which the student may earn up to 49% of the Master of Arts (Religion) degree. The two campuses are located in Memphis, Tennessee, and Houston, Texas.

Come visit Reformed Theological Seminary as a prospective student or as one who is interested in theological education. Come see the campus, attend classes, and meet some of the students and faculty members. A pre-seminary reading list is available at the RTS website (www.rts.edu).

It will be a privilege to include your name with other friends and supporters who receive the Ministry & Leadership, which will keep you up to date on news from the seminary. If you wish to have a complimentary subscription or need additional information, call the Admissions Office:

PURPOSE OF CATALOG

While every effort is made to insure the accuracy of the information in this catalog, Reformed Theological Seminary has the right to make changes at any time without prior notice. The catalog is for purposes of information and does not constitute the irrevocable terms of the contract between the Seminary and current or prospective students. The most up-to-date and “official” version of this catalog is to be found on the RTS website, www.rts.edu.

GENERAL INFORMATION

FOUNDING

In June 1963, five ministers met in a Memphis hotel room to pray about the need to establish a new seminary. At that time, no seminary in the southeastern United States was committed both to Reformed theology and to the Bible as God’s inerrant Word, the final authority for faith and life. When the meeting ended, the seed that would become Reformed Theological Seminary had been planted.

In the fall of 1966, RTS opened its doors for resident studies in Jackson, Mississippi. On September 6, Dr. C. Darby Fulton, former executive secretary of the Board of World Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, delivered an address entitled “The Relevancy of the Gospel” at the first convocation.

After operating for more than twenty years in Jackson, it became apparent that opportunities for theological education were nowhere more evident than in Orlando, Florida. In the fall of 1989, Reformed Theological Seminary opened the Orlando campus. A third campus was begun in Charlotte, North Carolina, with a full schedule being first offered in the fall of 1993. In 1993, RTS began offering courses in the greater Washington DC area. In 1996, an extension was begun in the Atlanta area. In 1999, RTS began offering courses through the Virtual Campus. In 2008, Sao Paulo, Brazil, was fully approved as a degree-granting site in conjunction with the Andrew Jumper Graduate Center at MacKenzie University.

RTS has two additional sites at which a student may earn up to 49% of the MAR degree. These two sites are Memphis, Tennessee, and Houston, Texas, which were approved in 2008 and 2010, respectively. As the Lord leads, RTS may seek degree-granting status for these two locations.

Therefore, RTS has seven degree-granting campuses: Atlanta, Georgia; Charlotte, North Carolina; Jackson, Mississippi; Orlando, Florida; Sao Paulo, Brazil; Washington DC; and the Virtual Campus. RTS has two partial degree campuses: Memphis, Tennessee, and Houston, Texas.

DISTINCTIVE FEATURES

RTS was established to provide serious, realistic training for ministry so that people would be won to Christ and built up in the faith, resulting in healthy, growing churches and a perceptive application of the Bible to all facets of life.

Since the Bible is the Word of God, it is the basis for the total curriculum. Students are equipped with the necessary skills to understand and teach the Scriptures, developing, above all, a burning desire to know and do the will of God as revealed in the Old and New Testaments, for Reformed theology emphasizes a willingness constantly to conform all of life to the Word of God. Our primary distinctives are a commitment to historic Reformed theology and the Bible as God’s inerrant Word.

The seminary recognizes that there are evangelical brothers and sisters in Christ within various denominations and Christian organizations who hold views that differ from RTS’ distinctives. While committed to fulfilling its purpose and distinctives, the seminary resolves to maintain openness to and appreciation for Christians in differing denominations and organizations with a loving and winsome spirit, thus contributing to the purity and the unity of the Christian community and witness.

Reformed Theological Seminary is free from denominational control. All who are associated with it, however, are individually under the jurisdiction of the various church courts of the denominations of which they are members.

To ensure that the original purpose and doctrinal distinctives of the seminary are maintained, each member of the Board of Trustees, Cabinet, and faculty is required initially and annually to subscribe to the following Statement of Belief and Covenant as set forth in the seminary’s bylaws:

Believing that there is but one only, the living and true God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; and that these three are one and the same in substance, equal in power and glory, and with solemn awareness of accountability to Him in all that we feel, think, say and do, the undersigned engages in and subscribes to this declaration:
1. All Scripture is self-attesting and, being truth, requires the human mind wholeheartedly to subject itself in all its activities to the authority of Scripture complete as the Word of God, standing written in the sixty-six books of the Holy Bible, all therein being verbally inspired by Almighty God and therefore without error.

2. Reformed theology as set forth in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms as accepted by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as its standard of doctrine at its first General Assembly in 1789 is the system of doctrine taught in Scripture; and, therefore, it is to be learned, taught and proclaimed for the edification and government of Christian people, for the propagation of the faith and for the evangelization of the world by the power of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

3. And I do solemnly promise and engage not to inculcate, sanction, teach or insinuate anything that appears to me to contradict or contravene, either directly or implicitly, any element of that system of doctrine.

4. NOW THEREFORE, the undersigned in the presence of God, states and signifies that he consents, agrees, and binds himself to all of the foregoing without any reservation whatsoever, and that he further obligates himself immediately to notify in writing the trustees should a change of any kind take place in his belief and feeling not in accord with this statement. Amen.

According to The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, RTS has demonstrated that it meets the standards set forth in the rules of the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board and qualifies for an exemption pursuant to Subchapter G, Chapter 61, Texas Education Code and, as defined in Chapter 7.3 of Board rules.

RTS PURPOSE

The purpose of RTS is to serve the church in all branches of evangelical Christianity, especially the Presbyterian and Reformed family, by preparing its leaders, with a priority on pastors, and including missionaries, educators, counselors, and others through a program of theological education on the graduate level, based upon the authority of the inerrant Word of God, the sixty-six books of the Bible, and committed to the Reformed faith as set forth in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms as accepted by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as its standard of doctrine at its first General Assembly in 1789. This program shall be characterized by biblical fidelity, confessional integrity, and academic excellence, and committed to the promotion of the spiritual growth of the students. The breadth of this ministry will include multiple campuses and extensions as led by the Lord.

RTS MISSION

The mission of Reformed Theological Seminary is to serve the Church by preparing its leaders, through a program of graduate theological education, based upon the authority of the inerrant Word of God, and committed to the Reformed Faith.

RTS Vision

Reformed Theological Seminary exists to glorify the Triune God and to serve His Church in all branches of evangelical Christianity, especially Presbyterian and Reformed churches, by providing Reformed graduate theological education that is globally accessible. RTS equips its students for ministry, primarily through pastoral training, to be servant leaders marked by “A Mind for Truth, A Heart for God.”

Professor Ordination

Reformed Theological Seminary is an independent institution, free from control by any particular denomination. RTS welcomes students from many denominational affiliations, but historically it has prepared men and women predominantly for ministry within conservative Presbyterian and Reformed churches. The Board, faculty, and senior staff are individually under the jurisdiction of the various church courts of the denominations of which they are members, and those affiliations are also largely conservative Presbyterian and Reformed churches.

While there is some diversity on a number of issues among the Board, faculty, staff, students, and the various constituencies RTS serves, the majority of those individuals associated with RTS believe that the Bible teaches that the ordained pastorate is reserved for men. At the same time RTS fully acknowledges and appreciates the important roles that women serve as co-laborers in the ministry of the church.

RTS in its historical practice has selected professors in the Biblical Studies, Theology, and Practical Theology departments who are ordained pastors (or who are qualified by RTS’ predominant denominational constituencies as ordainable), as they minister the Word of God to the student body and model pastoral leadership. Given the theological position of the Board and constituencies, RTS will continue to limit professors who teach Biblical Studies, Theology, and Practical Theology to men. Exceptions to this may and have included courses in language-grammar, speech, culture, missiology, etc. Professors teaching in the Counseling programs and librarians with faculty status are also open to both men and women.

It should be noted that all degree programs are open to all qualified students, both men and women.

Locations

RTS is a multi-campus seminary, committed to making a variety of theological, biblical, and ministry preparation programs available through the most accessible and flexible ways possible. We currently have the following campus locations.

Jackson, Mississippi

The Jackson campus includes one hundred acres graced by nineteen major buildings with apartments for married students and accommodations for single students. The seminary library has one of the finest theological collections in the region. Tennis courts and a gymnasium on campus provide recreational facilities for students and their families. In addition to student apartments on campus, the seminary also owns over seventy-five townhouses near the campus. The spacious townhouses include fireplaces, washers, and dryers. A swimming pool is available for use by residents.

Orlando, Florida

The Orlando campus opened new state-of-the-art campus facilities in 1999 on sixty-five acres of land in suburban Oviedo. Five miles north of the University of Central Florida, the Orlando campus is equipped with classrooms, a library, and beautiful chapel. The surrounding community provides attractive housing opportunities, which include garden apartments, townhouses, and condominiums.
Charlotte, North Carolina
The Charlotte campus is ideally located in the heart of southeast Charlotte, with excellent access to the airport, the interstate system, and the bulk of the residential areas of Charlotte. The campus is composed of five buildings with over 50,000 square feet of space, providing ample classrooms, library, and office areas, all with full wireless access. The beautiful, tree-shaded setting is excellently suited for a campus, offering abundant parking and plenty of open space to provide a campus atmosphere. Many affordable and attractive apartment complexes are available in the area.

Washington DC
The Washington DC campus is located near Tyson Corner next to McLean Presbyterian Church in McLean, Virginia. The campus has easy access off of I-495.

Atlanta, Georgia
In June 2010, the Atlanta campus moved to a beautiful, new location near I-75 and I-285 in Marietta, Georgia. The 25,000 square-foot well-appointed structure provides ample room for current and future needs of the campus.

Memphis, Tennessee
The classes for the Memphis extension campus are held at Second Presbyterian Church of Memphis.

Houston, Texas
The classes for the Houston extension campus are held at Christ Evangelical Presbyterian Church just off of Katy Freeway.

Virtual Campus, Distance Education
The RTS Virtual campus is more a mode of communication than a physical presence. RTS Virtual provides the local church with the opportunity for graduate-level theological education, including the Master of Arts (Religion), of which ninety percent may be obtained by distance. Course delivery methods vary. Both asynchronous and synchronous learning opportunities are available. Instruction includes local mentoring from the student’s church to ensure biblical discipleship with personal warmth and accountability. The physical location of RTS Virtual is on the RTS campus in Charlotte, North Carolina.

STUDENT FELLOWSHIP
The student activity fee, paid each semester, funds a variety of student activities throughout the year. The Student Cabinet, consisting of officers and representatives from the student population, conducts various campus activities and conferences.

GREAT COMMISSION SOCIETY
At the Jackson campus, the Great Commission Society (GCS) is committed to bringing about a balanced integration of spiritual growth, evangelism, and biblical missions in the lives of men and women training for ministry. A cabinet chosen from the student body handles the regular business and special activities sponsored by GCS. All members of the student body are included as members of the GCS.

The overall purpose of GCS is to help RTS students, their families, faculty, and staff focus on global missions and God’s concern for non-Christians. Special seminars, prayer meetings, chapel services, and other activities are sponsored by GCS. An annual missions or spiritual life conference is held each fall semester.

CHAPEL
Chapel services are conducted weekly to provide spiritual enrichment for the seminary community. Chapel is an integral part of seminary life and students are encouraged to attend for their own spiritual development and nurture. Prayer groups also meet weekly.

WOMEN IN MINISTRY
This uniquely designed program focuses on the distinctive needs of women students and seminary wives. The program addresses women’s needs through fellowship, ministry training, prayer, and intensive Bible study, while endeavoring to promote joy and confidence in their unique calling to serve Christ.

Faculty wives and other women in the seminary community give direction to this program with the assistance of elected students and student wives. A yearly retreat designed for fellowship, inspiration, and training provides an indispensable experience. Spouses of full-time students may audit classes without charge provided there is room in the class and they have registered with the Registrar. Spouses of full-time students also qualify for special for-credit tuition benefits.

HOUSING

The seminary does not assume responsibility for providing room and board for students. Affordable housing is available in close proximity to each campus. Full-time students on the Jackson and Orlando campuses may rent seminary-owned apartments or condominiums. Housing application forms are available from the offices of the Dean of Students on the respective campuses.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

All full-time students are required to have adequate major medical insurance. Proof of medical insurance is required at registration. International students receiving financial aid are required to have major medical insurance coverage for all dependents listed on form I-20.

For information on a student major-medical insurance plan, see the Admissions office.

PLACEMENT

Placement of graduates is a high priority at RTS. The student affairs office and faculty/staff, both formally and informally, aid students for job placement. Churches, denominations, and parachurch organizations that are seeking pastors, assistant pastors, youth ministers, Christian education directors, counselors, and graduates for other ministry and leadership positions regularly contact the seminary. RTS provides a web-based placement tool for ministries to post open positions.

VIRTUAL

A mind for truth. A heart for God.
Design of the Curriculum

The M.Div. curriculum is designed to offer training for the pastoral ministry. Concentrated study in three basic areas – Bible, systematic theology, and practical theology – characterizes this three-year program. In addition to training for pastoral ministry, the curriculum is designed to aid in the student’s sanctification. For an enumeration of the M.Div. student learning outcomes, see the RTS website.

Bible courses include the basic structure and content of each book of the Bible along with such details concerning major characters, dates, and places as are necessary. Principles of hermeneutics and exegesis, using the original languages as well as the English Bible, are also included. Students learn to apply Scripture to contemporary circumstances.

Building upon and integrated with a biblical foundation, theology is a major area of concentration. The purpose of this study is to provide the theological and historical foundations, along with current cultural contexts, to understand and live the Christian faith.

The practical theology courses are designed to enable students to develop competence in ministry including preaching, worship, leadership, and individual shepherding. A variety of experiences and instructors enable students to develop methods and styles of ministry suited to their individual gifts. The number of class hours per week may exceed the number of semester hours of credit. Some of the preaching and pastoral course requirements may be adjusted for women and other non-ministerial candidates so as to provide the appropriate preparation and setting for their needs. Women and other non-ministerial candidates will substitute additional elective course hours for the Preaching Labs. These elective courses may include alternative communication labs.

A student attains middler status upon completion of thirty-six semester hours and senior status upon completion of seventy-two semester hours. The curriculum is designed to be completed in three years, but many students choose to complete the curriculum in four or more years.

Field Education

Field education is that area of theological education in which the theory of the classroom is tested and applied in the life and ministry of the church. The purpose of field education is to provide opportunities for M.Div. students to exercise and improve their gifts and skills and to equip them with diversified backgrounds of firsthand experience in the service to which God has called them.

Prior to or concurrent with the beginning of the field experience, students are required to take (PT502) Introduction to Ministry (Jackson) or (ST502) Introduction to Pastoral and Theological Studies (Orlando) or (PT536) Field Education Internship (Atlanta, Charlotte, and Washington DC). At the start of their field work, students should register with the Field Education Office, at which time a file of field work for each student will be established. Field work not properly registered with the Field Education Office cannot be counted toward the field education requirement.

The M.Div. degree requires four hundred hours of field education experience. Upon completion of this requirement, an evaluation report is to be submitted to the Director of Field Education by a field supervisor (usually a pastor, elder, or evaluation committee). Following submission of this report, the student may register for (PT534) Field Education Seminar. Completion of this seminar marks the completion of the field education requirement.

The field experience credit may be earned as a summer student assistant to a pastor, a student supply in a vacant pulpit, a pastoral internship of nine to fifteen months, a missionary internship, a campus ministry internship, work with a parachurch organization, ministry in a national park, youth ministry, evangelistic ministry in a local church, nursing home chaplaincy, hospital chaplaincy, jail ministry, teaching home Bible classes, or other similar ministries.

Students at RTS Orlando may fulfill the field education requirement and earn six elective credit hours by completing one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) at Florida Hospital. Experience in the CPE program that does not meet the requirement for a full unit of CPE may be used to fulfill an appropriate percentage of the required four hundred hours of field education. Prerequisites include completion of 2ST502 and permission of the Director of Field Education.
GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

1. M.Div. students normally spend three years in residence in order to complete the required curriculum for the M.Div. degree, including a total of at least 106 semester hours. A 2.0 (C) cumulative grade-point average (GPA) is required.

2. The seminary must have on file official transcripts showing that the student holds a baccalaureate degree or foreign equivalent.

3. The student must complete the field education requirements to the satisfaction of the faculty.

4. The conduct and attitude of the student must be satisfactory according to the norms of Scripture and the Westminster Standards.

5. The student must pass the English Bible and Westminster Shorter Catechism examinations.

6. The student must clear all financial obligations to the seminary.

All students expecting to graduate must make formal application for graduation to the faculty through the registrar. The graduation fee will be paid at this time. Ordinarily, degrees will be awarded at the conclusion of the spring semester, but may be granted in December.

MEANING OF THE DEGREE

A degree from Reformed Theological Seminary indicates that the graduate has completed the requirements for the course of study. Although the M.Div. degree meets the standard educational requirements for ordination in most denominations, the degree does not certify that the graduate necessarily possesses all the biblical qualifications requisite for the ministry or adheres to the Reformed faith. Graduation from Reformed Theological Seminary with either the M.Div. degree or diploma should not in itself be construed as a recommendation for the ministry.

Ecclesiastical bodies and pulpit committees are responsible for applying their own requirements for ordination to determine the doctrinal soundness, suitability, and readiness for ministry of a particular graduate.

M.DIV. DIPLOMA WITHOUT THE DEGREE

Students without a baccalaureate degree may apply for admission to the M.Div. diploma program. These students must possess the knowledge, academic skill, and ability generally associated with persons who hold the baccalaureate degree. Admission will be restricted to persons with life experience that has prepared them for theological study at the graduate level.

To complete the M.Div. diploma program, the student does not have to take Greek or Hebrew courses. Whether taking the languages or not, the student must complete 106 credit hours for the M.Div. diploma.

Students may transfer from the M.Div. diploma program to the M.Div. degree program. In order to qualify for this transfer, a student must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 for the first 36 hours of credit work. When petition is made to transfer from the M.Div. diploma program and into the M.Div. degree program, the student must be in good standing.

A 3.0 GPA does not need to be maintained after transferring into the M.Div. degree program in order to maintain the student’s M.Div. degree status (although normal academic probation policies will apply to M.Div. diploma and M.Div. degree students at all times). Once transferred to the M.Div. degree, the student must complete all Greek and Hebrew course requirements.

M.DIV./M.A. DUAL DEGREES

A student may complete the M.A., the M.A. (Biblical Studies), the M.A. (Theological Studies), or the M.A. (Religion) plus the M.Div. degree program in four years with a total of 139 semester hours. A student may complete the M.A. in Counseling plus the M.Div. degree program with a total of 152 semester hours. A student may complete the M.A. in Marriage and Family Therapy and Counseling plus the M.Div. (with Counseling emphasis) for a total of 147 “semester hours (if no M.Div. with counseling emphasis, then a total of 152 semester hours).

For more information about our dual M.A. degrees, see page 24.
The curriculum consists of 106 semester hours. Those who have studied Greek or Hebrew may take proficiency examinations to determine if they may be exempted from portions of the language requirements. See page 45 for more details.

M.Div. Biblical Exegesis

RTS Jackson offers students the opportunity to focus on biblical exegesis within the Master of Divinity program. The goal is to provide both a philosophical background and practical experience in the exegesis of the biblical text. This emphasis consists of six, two credit hour courses for a total of twelve hours. Prerequisites for the exegesis courses include the biblical languages (all three Greek and all three Hebrew courses), Introduction to Biblical Theology, and Introduction to Biblical Hermeneutics.

A four-year program for the M.Div. curriculum is available. Students interested in the four-year program should request a schedule from the Registrar.

*Women and other non-ministerial candidates will substitute additional elective course hours for the Preaching Labs. These elective courses may include alternative communication labs.

For the most updated version of the curriculum, see the RTS web page (www.rts.edu).

SUMMER/WINTER M.DIV. TRACK

RTS Orlando offers intensive courses in the summers and winters that increase the options that students have for completing the M.Div. degree. Core courses for the M.Div. are offered over a 6-year rotation while practical theology courses are offered over a 4-year rotation. Besides the academic courses, summer terms also include social events, chapel services and other co-curricular experiences. Contact the Admissions office for further details on this option.
The curriculum consists of 106 semester hours. Those who have studied Greek or Hebrew may take proficiency examinations to determine if they may be exempted from portions of the language requirements. See page 45 for more details.

Parish Track Courses

The following parish track courses are available: Polity, Evangelism, and Educational Ministry of the Church. This educational design proactively integrates classroom theory with practical hands-on experience through the pairing of experienced Christian pastors with seminary students in parish-based education. Students receive academic credit for practical theology courses under the supervision of both a professor and a pastor-trainer. Each semester one or two practical theology courses will be offered in the parish track format. To qualify an enrolled student must have a parish internship and an on-site pastor-trainer to serve as a supervisor.
Students who select an emphasis area in the Master of Divinity degree program should adjust to the core curriculum as indicated below. The emphases will be listed on the student’s transcript but will not be designated on the student’s diploma.

Institute of Reformed Campus Ministries

Ministry among college students is one of the most significant and strategic ways to develop the next generation’s church leaders and evangelize the lost. Thus, RTS Charlotte is pleased to offer the Institute of Reformed Campus Ministry (IRCM). This Institute provides specialized training in the Master of Divinity degree with a focus upon ministry among college and university students. The IRCM includes a degree emphasis within the M.Div. program at the RTS Charlotte campus, an active fellowship among students headed to campus ministry, annual conferences & lectures, and numerous campus ministry opportunities. Within the degree emphasis, IRCM students are allowed to take specially focused courses in lieu of core classes and electives in the general M.Div. curriculum.

These courses are as follows:
- 3HT610 Ministry in a Postmodern Context (Replaces HT 506 Church and the World)
- 3PT731 Pastoral Ministry: Local Church & College Campus (Replaces PT518 Pastoral Ministry)
- 3PT732 Discipleship & Campus Ministry (Replaces CE514 Educational Ministries in the Church)
- 3PT733 Planting and Growing a Campus Ministry (Replaces MS508 Evangelism)
- 3ST628 Applied Apologetics (Replaces an Elective course)

Chaplains Ministry Institute

Due to the incredible opportunities and need for chaplains in all sectors of American life, both domestically and internationally, RTS Charlotte is pleased to offer the Chaplains Ministry Institute (CMI). The focus of the CMI is to prepare men and women for service in many settings: military, institutional, airport, hospital, corporate, and more. This Institute provides specialized training in the Master of Divinity degree with a focus upon chaplain ministry. The CMI includes a degree emphasis within the M.Div. program at the RTS Charlotte campus, an active fellowship among students headed to chaplain ministry, annual conferences & lectures, numerous chaplain ministry opportunities, and mentorships with chaplains in the community. Within the degree emphasis, CMI students take specially focused courses in lieu of core classes and electives in the general M.Div. curriculum.

These courses are as follows:
- Leadership and Chaplain Ministry
- Pastoral Theology for Chaplains
- Counseling and Chaplain Ministry
- Evangelism, Chaplaincy and Pluralism
- Applied Apologetics
The curriculum consists of 106 semester hours. In addition to the below, the M.Div. degree curriculum requires 8 hours of free electives, for a total of 106 hours. Those who have studied Greek or Hebrew may take proficiency examinations to determine if they may be exempted from portions of the language requirements. See page 45 for more details.

* Students are encouraged to complete the 400-hour Field Education requirement before enrolling for this seminar. A Field Education Registration Form must be submitted before Field Education can begin.

Women and other non-ministerial candidates will substitute additional elective course hours for the Preaching Labs. These elective courses may include alternative communication labs.

For the most updated version of the curriculum, see the RTS web page (www.rts.edu).
The Master of Arts program provides concentrated study in a special field or discipline upon the background of a general understanding of theology and biblical studies. Candidates for this degree must complete their degree requirements with a 2.0 (C) cumulative grade-point average (GPA). For students wishing to take practical theology courses as electives toward an M.A. degree, please note that some of the preaching and pastoral course requirements may be adjusted for women and other non-ministerial candidates so as to provide the appropriate preparation and setting for their needs.

M.A., M.A. (Biblical Studies), M.A. (Theological Studies)

These 66 semester hour degree programs integrate biblical, historical, and theological studies with cultural and social concerns. They are designed to strengthen the religious basis for one’s life and work whether in a secular career or a church staff position. Greek and Hebrew are optional. The English Bible exam is required.

M.A. in Counseling

This program is a 76 semester hour program designed for the person who wishes to work in the specialized field of counseling and who desires an orientation that integrates Christian theology with counseling theory and practice. Biblical and theological studies are integrated with formal, professional education and technical training. Theoretical knowledge is also integrated with applied skills through supervised clinical practice. This is a two-year (24-month) program. Continuance in the MFT & Counseling program is contingent upon the student’s intra and interpersonal skills and/or functioning.

In addition to the general admission requirements given in this catalog, applicants for the Marriage and Family Therapy program must submit a GRE General Test score. Applications for the Marriage and Family Therapy program should be received by February 1 for those who wish to enroll in the fall semester.

To graduate, MFT & Counseling students must have clinical experience that includes:

1. A minimum of twelve consecutive months of clinical work;
2. At least 500 hours of face-to-face clinical experience, of which at least 250 hours are with two or more clients; and
3. A total of 100 hours of clinical supervision, of which at least 50 are in groups of no more than two and the remainder in groups of no more than six persons. (All MFT and Counseling supervision is based on direct observation, videotape, or audiotape.)

Graduates will have completed the requirements for associate membership in the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.

Because this program is designed to meet the needs of those serving in the social and cultural setting of North America, international students are not ordinarily admitted.

M.A. (Biblical Studies) / M.A. in TESOL

This program is offered in conjunction with the University of Central Florida. Students may complete both degrees in two academic years including summers of full-time study. The program provides students with the technical skills for teaching English to speakers of other languages as well as a broad understanding of biblical and theological material. Admission and graduation requirements of both Reformed Theological Seminary and the University of Central Florida must be met. Contact RTS Orlando for more information.

M.A. (Religion)

This 60 semester hour degree program is a versatile degree, designed for Christians who desire to bring biblical and theological reflection to bear on a wide spectrum of societal issues in their chosen vocations and avocations. The MAR program shares courses with other RTS masters’ degree programs, and is offered at the Atlanta campus, the Washington DC campus, and the Virtual campus.

M.A. Dual Degrees

Students taking the MA/MFTC program may earn the MA with one additional year of study (102 hours required for the dual program).

For more information about our dual M.Div./M.A. degrees, see page 15.

Graduation Requirements

1. M.A. students normally spend two years in residence to complete the required curriculum for the degree. A 2.0 (C) cumulative grade-point average (GPA) is required.

2. The seminary must have on file official transcripts showing that the student holds a baccalaureate degree or its foreign equivalent.

3. The conduct and attitude of the student must be satisfactory according to the norms of Scripture and the Westminster Standards.

4. For certain M.A. degrees, the student must pass the English Bible exam.

5. The student must clear all financial obligations to the seminary.
The M.A. curriculum consists of 66 semester hours.

*In lieu of PTS13, students may take Principles of Sanctification (ST526, 1 hour) and Classics of Personal Devotions (HT508, 1 hour).
DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

Jackson • Orlando • Charlotte • Atlanta • Washington DC • Virtual Campus

PROGRAM DESIGN

The Doctor of Ministry program is available in Jackson, Orlando, Charlotte, and Atlanta. RTS also offers a joint Doctor of Ministry degree with the Andrew Jumper Graduate Theological Center, Mackenzie University, Sao Paulo, Brazil. At the Atlanta campus, the Doctor of Ministry program is available in a Korean-language track.

This program is designed to increase the effectiveness of pastors. It is built upon the biblical, theological, and professional foundations of the Master of Divinity degree. The program is designed to be flexible enough to meet individual needs while seeking to encourage increased competence in the classical and functional disciplines already studied in pre-professional courses required for ministry.

Requirements include the successful completion of 30 semester hours, which are offered in eight courses (three semester hours each) plus a doctoral project (six semester hours). Normally, students take two to four courses per year; however, a student may take more per year upon written approval of both the D.Min. Director and Academic Dean. The division of hours is indicated below:

Four core courses . . . . 12 hours
Theology of Ministry
Applied Theology
Leadership
Church Growth or Church Revitalization

Four electives . . . . . 12 hours

Doctoral project . . . . 6 hours

30 hours

Each course or seminar has three components:

1. Assigned reading of approximately 2,000 pages to be completed before attending the classroom session.

2. A one-week (five days) session of classroom meetings for lectures, reflection, and evaluation.

3. A post-session integration paper growing out of the reading and class work. Written assignments for winter courses should be submitted to the D. Min. office no later than April 30, and assignments for summer courses should be submitted no later than October 31.

An on-campus classroom session is offered in the winter and in the summer each year with at least two courses available during each session. (In the D.Min. Korean-language track, sessions are offered in the winter, spring, summer, and fall terms.) Students ordinarily take four to five years to complete all the program requirements. A maximum of six years is allowed for completion of the program. Doctoral students are required to complete a minimum of one (three-hour) D.Min. course per year until the completion of their course work.

Students may pursue a general ministries track by choosing any four elective courses. Also available is an emphasis track which includes either three or four electives in the emphasis area. The emphases include: Church Planting (Orlando), and Church Revitalization (Charlotte). These emphases will be listed on the student’s transcript but will not be designated on the student’s diploma.

While students may take D.Min. courses at any of the RTS campuses, students are required to take four courses and the doctoral project at one RTS-D.Min. degree-granting campus (the student’s home campus).
ADOPTION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must hold a baccalaureate degree or its foreign equivalent and in addition the M.Div. degree or its educational equivalent (including Greek or Hebrew). Applicants to the D.Min. program who have not completed the requisite Master of Divinity degree from an accredited seminary or graduate school may apply on the basis of having attained the educational equivalent of the M.Div. degree.

M.Div. educational equivalency shall be defined as having completed 92 semester hours of graduate study including 30 hours in historical/theological studies, 30 hours in biblical studies (including Greek or Hebrew) and 15 hours in practical theology studies. Transcripts of prior graduate study will be evaluated by the D.Min. Committee, and applicants will be advised by letter of their standing. In the event that M.Div. equivalency has not been attained, a prescribed program of study leading to M.Div. equivalency will be recommended. This prescribed program may include courses at an RTS campus, distance education, or course work at another seminary.

A minimum 3.0 (B) cumulative grade-point average (GPA) on work toward the M.Div. degree is ordinarily required. Greek or Hebrew is required.

All applicants must have been engaged in a recognized form of professional ministry for at least three years after receiving their Master of Divinity degree and are expected to reflect competence and growth in ministry as a result of their professional experience. (A limited number of students with less than three years experience post-M.Div. may be admitted based on other ministry-experience factors that have prepared them for D.Min. studies.) They are expected to continue their practice of full-time ministry for the duration of their Doctor of Ministry program.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

All D.Min. students are required to complete 30 semester hours with a grade point average of 3.0 and with no grade below a C counting toward the degree. The 24 hours of course work must include four core courses and four elective courses. Also required is a six-semester-hour doctoral project on an approved subject giving evidence of the student’s ability to do independent research and integrate theology into practical ministry. A minimum of 12 hours (4 courses) plus the six-hour doctoral project must be taken on the RTS campus from which the candidate plans to do the doctoral project and graduate. The student may take the other 12 hours on any of our RTS campuses that provide D.Min. courses. Students may transfer a maximum of two 3-hour D.Min. courses from another seminary. (A maximum of four 3-hour D.Min. courses may be transferred from Ligonier Academy of Biblical and Theological Studies.)

The completed doctoral project must be either (1) submitted no later than February 15 and defended successfully before a faculty committee no later than April 15 prior to the expected date of graduation in May, or (2) submitted no later than August 15 and defended successfully before a faculty committee no later than October 15 prior to the expected date of graduation in December.
DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

RTS JOINT DOCTOR OF MINISTRY DEGREE

With Andrew Jumper Graduate Theological Center, Mackenzie University, Sao Paulo, Brazil

The Andrew Jumper Graduate Theological Center (AJGTC) of Mackenzie University, Sao Paulo, Brazil, is an approved “complete degree site” for the RTS Doctor of Ministry degree program, jointly awarded with AJGTC. All course work will be held at the AJGTC at Mackenzie University in Sao Paulo, Brazil. Mackenzie University and the Andrew Jumper Graduate Theological Center are operated and supported by the Igreja Presbiteriana do Brasil (Presbyterian Church in Brazil).

Disclaimer: Reformed Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award master’s degrees and doctoral degrees. The Andrew Jumper Graduate Theological Center at Mackenzie University is not accredited by the Commission on Colleges and the accreditation of Reformed Theological Seminary does not extend to or include Andrew Jumper Graduate Theological Center, Mackenzie University, or its students. Although Reformed Theological Seminary accepts certain Andrew Jumper Graduate Theological Center course work in transfer, other colleges and universities may not accept this work in transfer, even if it appears on a transcript from Reformed Theological Seminary.

RTS DOCTOR OF MINISTRY KOREAN-LANGUAGE TRACK

The Korean-language track of the RTS Doctor of Ministry degree mirrors in every respect the existing D.Min. offered by RTS. Students have access to all the libraries of RTS, and in addition to those electronically downloadable over the internet as full texts through participating Korean libraries. On-campus classroom sessions are offered in the winter, spring, summer and fall each year. Written assignments should be submitted after the course in each term according to the designated due dates. For the Korean-language track of the RTS Doctor of Ministry, doctoral projects must be defended successfully before a faculty committee no later than 60 days before the expected date of graduation in May.
VIRTUAL CAMPUS

RTS Virtual courses may be “transferred” toward the M.A. and M.Div. degree programs. An M.Div. student may normally only transfer a maximum of 36 RTS Virtual credits. However, in exceptional circumstances, the academic dean may approve a maximum of 52 RTS Virtual credits for an M.Div. student. An MAR student may only transfer a maximum of 29 RTS Virtual credits, and an MABS/MATS/MA student may only transfer a maximum of 32 RTS Virtual credits.

ONE-YEAR CERTIFICATE

The one-year Certificate program requires 29 to 32 semester hours, depending on the campus. Normally the Certificate program is a mixture of biblical studies and theological studies; however, it may be tailored more specifically for the student’s needs. Admission requirements for the Certificate program match other masters-degree program requirements, including a baccalaureate degree or its foreign equivalent. Credits earned in the one-year Certificate program may be applied toward the various M.A. or M.Div. degrees.
ACADEMIC POLICIES

ADMISSIONS

The seminary has a non-discriminatory (race, sex, handicap) admissions policy. The school’s policy is to admit students to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities at the school and to make no discrimination on the basis of race, sex, or handicap in the administration of educational policies, applications for admission, scholarship or loan programs, and extracurricular programs. (There are a few restrictions for preaching labs. See M.Div. Design of the Curriculum, page 14.)

Applications for admission are reviewed for, and admission is granted into, specific programs of study offered by the seminary. Admission to one program of study does not imply admission is being granted to another program of the seminary.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

Applicants to programs of the seminary are evaluated on the basis of academic preparation and potential for ministry. Application for admission should be made at least three months prior to the date of enrollment. New students may enroll in the fall, winter, spring, or summer terms. The following materials should be addressed to the Director of Admissions:

1. A completed application form.
2. References from three individuals, including the applicant’s pastor.
3. The application fee.
5. A statement of reasons for wishing to pursue a particular degree.
6. Official transcripts from all previous academic work (a baccalaureate degree or its foreign equivalent with a 2.6 cumulative GPA is ordinarily required).
7. A recent photograph.

Admission may be granted on the basis of these credentials alone, or the seminary may require a personal interview with the applicant, an entrance exam, the Graduate Record Examination, or a psychological or aptitude test.

Any admitted student who defers enrollment more than one year beyond the initial entrance date must submit another completed application form, the application fee, and other material that may be requested by the Director of Admissions.

Upon acceptance to RTS, a non-refundable deposit is required, which will be credited toward the student’s first-semester tuition.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

All international students must establish English language proficiency. RTS provides no testing to meet admission requirements in English language. All international students applying for admission to the M.A., M.Div., or D.Min. programs must submit at the time of application a score of not less than 550 on the paper-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), or not less than 213 on the computer-based TOEFL. The test must include the writing section (TWE), which is included in the September, October, March, and May administrations.

1. To register for the TOEFL/TWE test, applicants may contact TOEFL/TWE SERVICES, P. O. Box 6151, Princeton, NJ 08541-6151, USA; telephone: 609-771-7100; E-mail: toefl@ets.org; Web site: http://etsweb.ets.org.

2. Applicants who score between 550 and 600 on the paper-based TOEFL, or between 213 and 250 on the computer-based TOEFL, may be required to take additional work in ESL or be limited in the number of hours they may take during any one term.
OBTAINING A STUDENT VISA

The Certificate of Eligibility (I-20) needed for obtaining a student visa for entry into the United States requires certification that the admitted student is proficient in English and has sufficient financial resources to provide for tuition and living expenses. This certification must be on the form I-20 at the time the student appears at the Embassy for a visa. The Admissions Office at the seminary will make certification of English language proficiency based on the scores reported for the TOEFL/TWE.

To demonstrate that the international student has sufficient financial resources, the admitted student must send the completed “Statement of Financial Resources” with attached documentation to the Admissions Office. This should be done as soon as possible after the applicant has been notified that his/her application for admission has been approved. The Admissions Office will make financial certification on the I-20 based on funds on deposit in the student’s account and on pledges of support by individuals, churches, foundations, etc.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

An applicant may apply as a special student rather than applying to a degree program. Special student status allows a maximum of 18 semester hours of master’s-level courses.

All hours earned as a special student may be applied toward a degree. Therefore, it is important to consider carefully the possibility of entering a degree program during your course of study as a special student.

To apply as a special student, the following items should be sent to the Office of Admissions:

1. A completed application form.
2. The application fee.
3. A completed Pastoral Reference form.
5. An official transcript indicating a baccalaureate degree or its foreign equivalent.
6. A recent photograph.

To upgrade from special student status to a master’s degree program, students must apply to a specific master’s degree and submit the remaining application requirements outlined on page 40.

ACCREDITED SCHOOLS AND TRANSFER CREDITS

For American baccalaureate degrees, RTS recognizes all schools accredited by “regional” accreditors (e.g., Southern Association of Colleges and Schools). For master’s level degrees and/or transfer of coursework, RTS recognizes all schools accredited by the Association of Theological Schools. Concerning foreign equivalency and other American schools, all degrees and coursework are considered on a case-by-case basis. The primary criteria for equivalency is general compatibility with the standards of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the Association of Theological Schools. In all situations, RTS reserves the right to accept or decline credits in particular cases.

Students who desire to transfer credit from other graduate institutions should submit a transcript of their coursework and a catalog containing the course description. If courses apply to the RTS curriculum, credit may be granted for work completed. No credit will be given for work that received a grade below C (2.0).

Gradepoint averages on RTS transcripts will be determined on the basis of work done only at Reformed Theological Seminary.
MAXIMUM TRANSFER CREDITS

A. An M.Div. student must take at least 36 credits at one RTS M.Div.-degree-granting campus and a total of 54 somewhere in the RTS System.

B. An MAR student must take at least 31 credits at one RTS MAR-degree-granting campus, and an MABS/MATS/MA student student must take at least 34 credits at one RTS MABS/MATS/MA-degree-granting campus.

C. An M.Div. student may normally only transfer a maximum of 36 RTS Virtual credits. However in exceptional circumstances, the academic dean may approve a maximum of 52 RTS Virtual credits for an M.Div. student. An MAR student may only transfer a maximum of 29 RTS Virtual credits and an MABS/MATS/MA student may only transfer a maximum of 32 RTS Virtual credits.

GRADING SYSTEM

Grade point averages on RTS transcripts will be determined on the basis of work done only at Reformed Theological Seminary.

The grade “I” indicates that the work required for the course was not completed. It is given only when special, extenuating circumstances (such as illness) prevent the student from completing the work or taking the examination. A written request for an extension must be submitted prior to the due date of the work concerned. If the request is granted, it remains the responsibility of the student to complete all work for the course as soon as possible. In any case, an “I” grade must be removed within the extension time granted; otherwise it will be changed to “F.”

The grade “W” indicates that a student has withdrawn from a course after the drop deadline. This grade is granted by the academic dean only in extenuating circumstances.

A grade of C or better is required to continue in the sequence of language courses (does not apply to RTS-Charlotte).

NORMAL COURSE LOAD

A normal course load is 12 to 18 semester hours for the fall and spring semesters and two to five semester hours for the winter session. The permission of the Academic Dean must be obtained prior to registering for 19 or more semester hours.

Master’s students who take fewer than 12 semester hours of academic work in a regular semester are classified as part-time students.

D.Min. students who take six semester hours of academic work in a calendar year are classified as full-time students.

COURSE ADD AND DROP DATES

Students are permitted to add courses after the first day of class if done so by the add date listed in the academic calendar of the respective campus. An add fee will be charged after the first day of class. Courses may be dropped without academic penalty if done so by the drop date listed in the academic calendar of the respective campus. A drop fee will be charged after the first day of class. No courses may be added or dropped after the deadlines. For refunds related to courses dropped, see the refund policy.
ENGLISH BIBLE AND CATECHISM REQUIREMENTS

Successful completion of a comprehensive examination in biblical content is required prior to graduation for the M.Div., M.A., M.A.B.S., M.A.T.S. degrees. This examination may be repeated until it is passed. A grade of C is considered a passing grade.

All M.Div. students are required to memorize the Westminster Shorter Catechism.

DIRECTED STUDY COURSES

Students may request permission to take an independent, directed study course under the supervision of a professor. For master's courses, a directed study requires the equivalent of 1,000 pages of reading per semester hour in lieu of class attendance, plus a project approved by the professor. The character of the work and the way of reporting it will be left to the professor, but all directed study courses must be approved by the Academic Dean. These courses must be completed within the semester in which they are started. The normal tuition rate is charged for all directed study courses.

Directed study courses usually are offered to cover subjects that are not included in the published curriculum. Regularly scheduled elective and required courses may be taken by directed study upon the discretion of the professor and Academic Dean only when a course is required for graduation and cannot be worked into a student's schedule.

If students miss class persistently throughout the regular semester, they may be dismissed for academic reasons. In certain exceptional cases, such as extended illness or family crisis, in which it is impossible for students to complete a semester's work, they may present a written request for permission to withdraw from all courses.

STUDENT CONDUCT

Students are expected to conduct themselves at all times as mature believers. Exemplary Christian conduct should control our words and our actions, both public and private. In today's technological environment our words can include texting, emails, social networking and blogging, in addition to our speech. Godly behavior, expected of all Christians, is especially required of those who are preparing themselves to become ministers of the Word or servants in the church. Classroom manners should also reflect this maturity. Students should be respectful of professors, attend all class periods, and hand in assignments on time. Classroom etiquette also includes leaving cell phones turned off, refraining from surfing the Internet and laptop computer games and communicating to your neighbor during lectures.

Student conduct is under the supervision of the Dean of Students. The seminary reserves the right to dismiss any student whose conduct is found to be unsatisfactory on the basis of spiritual or moral principles found in the Scriptures. If desired, the student can appeal the dismissal according to the student appeals policy.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The seminary expects all members of its community to apply sanctified common sense and Biblical principles to their relationships. It will not tolerate offensive or inappropriate sexual behavior and requires all faculty, staff and students to refrain from any action or conduct which could be viewed as sexual harassment. Any such harassment is contrary to and prohibited by seminary policy and will be considered grounds for disciplinary action. It should be noted that for academic purposes, some appropriate teaching and discussion of sexual information may occur, particularly in a counseling program; however, these discussions are necessary for the formation of a competent counselor or pastor and therefore does not constitute sexual harassment.

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other offensive verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature is expressly prohibited. Examples of prohibited conduct include but are not limited to lewd or sexually suggestive comments; off-color language or jokes of a sexual nature; verbal, graphic or physical conduct inappropriately relating to an individual’s gender; or any display of sexually explicit pictures, greeting cards, articles, books, magazines, photos, computer images or cartoons.

The seminary must have the cooperation of all faculty, staff and students in order to implement its sexual harassment policy. It is the individual’s responsibility to report immediately any incident which they believe to constitute sexual harassment. Even if they believe the act is isolated or infrequent, they should report it to the campus Dean of Students or President. The seminary will promptly investigate the situation and take whatever corrective action is necessary and appropriate. The seminary prohibits any retaliatory action against persons reporting conduct which is believed by the reporting individual to be in violation of this policy.

DEGREE TIME LIMITS

Students enrolled in the master’s degree programs have seven years to complete the degree requirements. Th.M. students have five years to complete degree requirements; D.Min. students have six years to complete degree requirements; Ph.D. students have seven years to complete degree requirements. After the maximum time limit has been reached for a degree program, RTS may require the student to apply for an extension. For doctoral students, extension fees will apply.

Students are considered inactive after a one-year absence from coursework and are normally required to submit reapplication materials before re-enrollment. This inactive period may be included in the degree time limits.

PLAGIARISM

Research papers require borrowing other people’s ideas and words. However, the source of such borrowing must be acknowledged properly so that your ideas are clearly distinguished from ideas that you borrowed. If the source is not acknowledged properly, your work is plagiarism. For an excellent summary on what constitutes plagiarism, see Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (rev. by Wayne C. Booth, etc.; 7th ed.; Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2007), pp. 77-80 (section 7.9).

Plagiarism includes word-for-word copying, lifting terms, restatement of someone’s argument or line of thought, etc.—all without acknowledgment of source. Plagiarism also includes giving a source partial credit when more is taken from that source than indicated.

Plagiarism, whether intentional or unintentional, is very serious. All plagiarism cases are referred to the Academic Dean for resolution. Consequences may include some of the following:

- repeat the assignment and receive a maximum of a D on the assignment
- receive an F on the assignment
- receive an F in the course
- expulsion from the seminary

TERM PAPERS AND EXAMINATIONS

Unless required earlier by the professor, all course assignments, term papers, and reports must be submitted by the deadline listed in the academic calendar for each campus. Upon approval of the Academic Dean, exceptions to this rule may be made by the professor. Extensions will be granted only for causes deemed adequate, and a written request is required.

All examinations must be taken when scheduled. Exceptions to this rule may be made only upon prior request showing adequate cause to the professor concerned, but the rescheduled examination should be taken during the examination period.

WITHDRAWAL/READMISSION/DISMISSAL

A student planning to withdraw from the seminary should report this in writing to the Registrar. For re-admission, the student is required to submit re-application materials before re-enrollment. This inactive period may be included in the degree time limits.

A student whose GPA falls below C (2.0) after completing 18 hours of coursework is permitted to continue studies for the equivalent of one full-time semester. If the average remains below 2.0, the student is dismissed. After a period of one year, those dismissed for academic reasons may apply for re-admission.

The Marriage and Family Therapy curriculum includes clinical and ethical requirements. If the program directors judge that personal or ethical issues impair a student’s ability to function as a therapist, the student may be required to participate in psychological assessment or remedial therapy and/or may be dismissed from the program.

TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts are released only upon receipt of a signed transcript request from the student. Upon graduation, the student receives a copy of the final transcript free of charge provided all accounts at the seminary have been settled. Additional copies are available for a fee. Copies of transcripts may take up to six business days to process.

GREEK AND HEBREW ADVANCED STANDING

Students may be exempted out of Greek 1 (3 hours), Greek 2 (3 hours), Hebrew 1 (3 hours), and Hebrew 2 (3 hours) by taking exemption exams for any one or all of these courses. The maximum advanced standing with credit that a student may receive is six hours for language exemptions. If the student was exempted out of more than six hours, the remainder of hours would be advanced standing without credit (up to four hours for an M.A. student and up to six hours for an M.Div. student).

PRIVACY OF STUDENT RECORDS

RTS maintains the security and confidentiality of student educational records.

All student records are kept in locked rooms and in locked file cabinets. In addition, all transcripted information for current degree-seeking students is digitally “backed-up” at an off-site location.

Since RTS does not accept Title IV student loan monies, RTS is not bound by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). However, RTS’ confidentiality policies are generally consistent with FERPA. RTS policies are as follows:

A student may inspect and review his/her academic file and transcript after a written request has been made to the Registrar’s office. The Registrar will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. The Registrar will be present during this inspection and review.

If a student believes his/her academic file and/or transcript are inaccurate or misleading, the student may request to amend the file and/or transcript. The student should write the Registrar, clearly identifying the portion of the record that the student wishes to change and specifying what is inaccurate or misleading. If RTS decides not to amend, the student may use the student appeal process.

RTS will not disclose, without the student’s consent, personally identifiable information found in the student’s academic file or transcript, excepting legitimate educational interests and directory information.

Academic Policies
Directory information includes, but is not limited to, name, address, telephone number, email, date and place of birth, spouse’s name, home state, previous schools attended, denomination and presbytery affiliation, grade level, dates of attendance, photo and photo of spouse, degree program, enrollment type (full-time, part-time), and degrees with date of graduation.

STUDENT COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS PROCESS

An appeals process exists to resolve any behavioral or academic problem that cannot otherwise be settled in a Biblical manner and assures fairness to all parties concerned. This process is rarely needed and should only be used after all other means have been exhausted. For example, in academic matters that pertain to a class or a grade, the student should first work directly with the professor and/or Registrar. Concerning behavioral or community issues, the student should first consult with the Dean of Students.

If the matter cannot be resolved by the above means, the following appeals process exists:

1. The student should submit a written appeal to the Academic Dean regarding the issue. Depending on the issue, the Academic Dean may request input from the Faculty. The Academic Dean will render a written decision.

2. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the Academic Dean, then the student may submit a subsequent written appeal to the campus President requesting a hearing. The campus President may or may not grant the request. If granted, the campus President will appoint an ad hoc committee that may consist of trustees, faculty, staff, and/or institutional officers to hear the case. This committee is authorized to meet with any or all concerned parties to resolve the issue and will render a written decision concerning the case.

3. The decision of the President or the ad hoc committee is considered final, subject only to review by the Executive Committee of the Board to affirm the appeals process was properly observed.
FINANCIAL INFORMATION

TUITION AND FEES

For all tuition and fees, see the RTS website: www.rts.edu.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE

All tuition and fees for a semester are due the first day of class. Those who are depending on financial support from churches, organizations, individuals, etc. should be prepared to meet financial obligations when due, whether or not such funds have been received.

RTS assesses tuition, fees, and scholarships one week before courses begin. Students are given a two week “window” (one week before courses begin and one week after courses begin) in order to make payments via Self Service, in person at the campus business office, or establish a payment plan with the campus business manager. If the student does not make the payment or fill out a payment plan agreement form within this two week window, then the student’s courses will be dropped and charged applicable drop fees. If the student subsequently wants to add the courses and make a payment, he/she would then be assessed an add fee for each course. A late payment fee of 1% per month (12% annual) will be charged to students on the total outstanding balance at the end of each month regardless if a payment plan is in place.

AUDITORS

Regularly enrolled full-time students (twelve hours or more), their spouses, and members of the seminary staff may audit classes without charge provided there is room in the class and they have registered with the Registrar. Others, provided there is room in the class, may audit courses after paying the required auditing fee.

Spouses of full-time students also qualify for special for-credit tuition benefits.

TUITION REFUND POLICY AND DROP/ADD FEE

Students who drop a course before the drop deadline will receive a full refund of tuition, less drop/add fees. Those who withdraw after the deadline will not receive any refund of tuition. Exceptions may be granted in extreme circumstances only through a written appeal to the business office or the Academic Dean.

A fee will be assessed for dropping a course, adding a course, or replacing one course with another unless the change originates with a faculty member or administrative official.

FINANCIAL AID

The Lord’s people subsidize every student’s education substantially. Tuition pays approximately one third of the actual cost of a student’s education, with the remainder covered by donations to the seminary. In addition, RTS has always maintained a generous financial aid program that may further subsidize a student’s education through scholarships and grants.

Students are requested to initiate the process of receiving financial aid by submitting a financial aid application annually to their home campus. Contact the Student Life Office or the Admissions Office on the campus you wish to attend for information about deadlines and forms.

The seminary considers the student to have the primary responsibility for financing his/her education and expects them to do whatever is possible to meet financial needs. This includes arranging support from church, family, and friends in addition to maintaining employment either off or on campus.

Understanding that these sources do not always provide the necessary funding for the student, the seminary, in conjunction with the Lord’s people, has established various types of financial aid programs listed below.
CHURCH PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

The Church Partnership Program fosters significant involvement of the student’s home church with the student and with the seminary. Though the student is always responsible for his financial commitments to the seminary, this innovative program provides tuition assistance to students through an agreement with a student’s home church to share in the student’s financial support. For details of this program, contact a campus admissions office.

WORK SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships must be applied for and normally are granted for 10 hours of work per week. Jobs include secretarial, clerical, computer services, library assistant, faculty assistant, bookstore, student services, maintenance and grounds, audio-visual, and facilities care.

BASIC TUITION ASSISTANCE

Full-time students having a high, unmet financial need, may apply for tuition assistance by submitting a financial aid application with their application for enrollment.

DEACON’S FUND

Those who need financial assistance beyond work-study and basic tuition assistance may apply for a Deacon’s Fund scholarship. These limited funds are awarded based on need. Awards are made in May for the following year.

PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARSHIP

A limited number of awards are made each year by recommendation of the Scholarship Committee.

A student’s gifts for ministry and vocational goals are taken into consideration for these scholarships, in addition to financial need. These awards normally are given in May for the following year.

MINISTER’S FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

Family members of ordained ministers may receive annual scholarship assistance for tuition.

CAMPUS MINISTRY SCHOLARSHIP

Applicants who have served on the staff of a campus ministry for a minimum of one year may receive a campus ministry scholarship. Written recommendation from the campus minister’s supervisor is required.

CHURCH AND FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

Several churches and foundations provide scholarship funds for those needing assistance. Some of these are given by recommendation of the seminary, and others must be applied for directly with the church or foundation. More information concerning these scholarships is available through the Dean of Students, or the Director of Admissions.
EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Many employment opportunities in the community are readily available to students and their spouses. Job openings frequently are publicized, and assistance may be received from the Student Affairs Office.

PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENTS

The seminary has entered into partnership agreements with several organizations, such as Reformed University Ministries, Campus Crusade for Christ, Campus Outreach, Young Life, and InterVarsity Christian Fellowship. Students involved in a particular ministry may ascertain from the Admissions Office whether the seminary has a partnership agreement with the organization providing special tuition assistance and whether the student meets the requirements of the agreement.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

International students should have financial support provided in large part by the indigenous church or missionary society, with the seminary participating to a lesser degree. This arrangement allows for maximum accountability to the sending church or organization and efficient stewardship of the sending church’s resources and those of the seminary.

Therefore, applicants who show evidence of substantial support from their sending churches/organizations will be more likely to receive financial aid from the seminary. Due to the number of international students receiving financial aid from the seminary, it is unlikely that any student will be awarded financial aid beyond tuition costs alone.

To be considered for financial aid from the seminary, an Application for Financial Aid must be sent to the Office of Admissions along with an application for admission. The Admissions Office must receive international student scholarship applications no later than November 1. The Scholarship Committee will make scholarship award decisions by February 1 for those international students beginning their program the following fall semester. Those who are admitted to a degree program will be notified by letter whether or not financial assistance will be provided.

An international student who is awarded financial aid in his/her first year of study at the seminary may anticipate a similar award each subsequent year until the student’s academic program has been completed. However, every international student will be required each year to submit through the Dean of Students an application for financial aid by May 1.

A survey of all the parables and most of the parabolic sayings found in the Synoptic Gospels. The parables belong to Jesus who created them and who speaks to us through them.

3NT715
Johannine Epistles. 2 hours
The prime focus of this course is on the content of 1, 2, and 3 John. Nevertheless this focus is maintained against three backgrounds: (1) the nature of Gnostic heresy at the end of the first century, and the answers, theoretical and practical, that the apostle John advances in response to it; (2) the problems of syncretism and contextualization in contemporary culture -- for after all that is the sort of thing that John was facing, however unique his circumstances; (3) the bearing of the content of these epistles on various strands of biblical theology.

OLD TESTAMENT

1OT500
Introduction to Biblical Theology. 2 hours
This course investigates the covenantal nature of the Christian Bible from a biblical-theological perspective. The study of biblical theology includes: (1) the history, definition, task, method, and goal of biblical theology; (2) the attempt to identify the “center” of biblical theology as a way of understanding the relationship of the various parts to the whole; and (3) selected themes in biblical theology as those threads that make up the fabric of the biblical canon.

2OT701
Genesis. 2 hours
This course aims to explain the contribution of Genesis to Christian theology by exegeting the book in its historical and canonical context.

4OT704
Seeing the Psalms. 2 hours
Part of the power of the Book of Psalms lies in the word-pictures the psalmists use. This course aims at recapturing the imaginative and emotive power of the Psalms, particularly the power of imagery in the psalms. Further, the course analyzes how imagery works and how the psalmists employed imagery, including that from the surrounding cultures, to teach truth about God, people, and the world in which we live.

3OT726
Covenant Theology in the Old Testament. 2 hours
This course examines the major texts in the Old Testament that deal with the covenants. The examination of these texts will also include discussion of the definition of covenant, the various approaches to the covenants, the nature of the various covenants, and the development of the covenants in redemptive history. A knowledge of Hebrew would be very helpful, but is not required for this course.

3OT727
Exegesis and Preaching in Ecclesiastes. 2 hours
The message of Ecclesiastes appears very contemporary (everything is meaningless), but such a message makes the book a challenge to preach. This course will combine exegesis of key passages in Ecclesiastes along with reflection on how to preach from those passages and from the book as a whole. Exegesis will help in understanding the message of the book and the preaching angle will discuss how to communicate that message within the literary structure of the book and in light of the full revelation of the completed canon.

Corequisite: 1PSY544
Recommended: 1PSY622, 1PSY624
Students practice core intervention skills and receive in-depth orientation to their clinical practice site. Peer behavioral rehearsals, videotaping and video review are used extensively. To complete the practicum and advance to internship, students must demonstrate proficiency in basic counseling skills. Those students who will not be pursuing the MAMFT/CO will be required to participate in study regarding ethics within ministry along with the required behavioral rehearsals.
1PSY622
Psychology in Relation to Theology I. 1 hour
The first of a set of three integrative courses: 1PSY622, 1PSY624, 1PSY626. An introduction to foundational issues concerning the relation of Christian faith and culture. The course addresses the relation of biblical revelation to psychological studies, the relation of the Christian community and surrounding cultures, and the implications of cultural transitions from pre-modern to modern to post-modern epistemologies.

1PSY624
Psychology in Relation to Theology II. 1 hour
The second of a set of three integrative courses: 1PSY622, 1PSY624, 1PSY626. This course examines biblical anthropology, redemptive history and critical New Testament passages concerning the process of change as they relate to our understanding of persons, the nature of pathology and our expectations regarding the process of change.

1PSY626
Psychology in Relation to Theology III. 1 hour
The third in a set of three integrative courses: 1PSY622, 1PSY624, 1PSY626. In their last semester of the program, students employ skills learned throughout their training to prepare an integrative research paper examining psychological and theological approaches to a major substantive issue raised by one of their clinical cases. Based on their research, students develop, implement and evaluate a treatment program for their clients. The results are presented to peers in a seminar format employing audio-video resources and clinical video tape.

2PSY630
Psychology in Relation to Theology I. 1 hour
Prerequisite: Admission to MAC program.
This course will explore psychotherapeutic issues in light of the Christian story revealed in the Old and New Testaments. The effort will be to help students connect the individual/human story to God’s Story, and to build a storied approach to Scripture into the student’s world view.

2PSY632
Psychology in Relation to Theology II. 1 hour
Prerequisite: Admission to MAC program.
The purpose of this course is to expose students to traditional approaches to integrating psychology and theology. The legitimacy of the integration process will be addressed, and students will examine psychological, scientific, biblical, and theological issues associated with the integration. Students will evaluate several integrative models of Christian counseling, and begin to formulate their own ideas about integration.

2PSY634
Psychology in Relation to Theology III. 1 hour
Prerequisite: Admission to MAC program.
This course is designed to help students integrate their thinking regarding the nature of Christian community. Students will address the unique challenges and possibilities of counseling professionals in a church setting. In doing so, they will be equipped to engage the church with wise and rich involvement.

2PSY650
Practicum. 2 hours
Prerequisite: Admission to MAC program and 2PSY501, 2PSY519, 2PSY551, 2PSY560, 2PSY571.
Corequisite: 2PSY503.
One hundred hours of supervised clinical experience in an approved clinical setting. Forty hours must be fulfilled with direct client contact involving individuals, couples, and families. Students receive an in depth orientation to their clinical practice site. Students receive individual, group and in vivo supervision from an appropriately licensed or approved supervisor (or equivalent) and participate in case conferences. To complete the practicum and advance to internship, students must demonstrate proficiency in basic counseling skills.

2PSY654
Clinical Internship. 1 or 2 hours (Repeatable)
Prerequisite: Admission to MAC program, consent of the MAC clinical director, and 2PSY650.
Interns gain supervised clinical experience in the Northland Counseling Center or another approved clinical setting. This course is repeated for one or two hours, depending on the length of the semester until the clinical requirements for internship have been completely met. Students must complete at least 900 hours in an approved clinical setting. 360 of these hours must be fulfilled with direct client contact involving individuals, couples, families, and groups. All supervision is based on video tape or in vivo observation, and is conducted individually and in groups with professional, licensed supervisors.

1PSY656
Clinical Internship. 1 or 2 hours (Repeatable)
Prerequisite: 1PSY501, 1PSY503, and consent of the clinical director.
Corequisite: 1PSY622, 1PSY624.
Student therapists complete 100 hours of supervised clinical experience in an approved clinical setting. After completion of 100 face-to-face hours, the designation of Marriage and Family Therapy Interns will complete the remaining 400 face-to-face client contact involving individuals, couples, and families. Interns gain supervised clinical experience in an approved clinical setting. This course is repeated for one or two hours, depending on the length of the semester until the clinical requirements for internship have been completely met. Students complete an internship experience of at least 1,500 hours in an approved clinical setting. A minimum of 500 hours must be face-to-face client contact. At least 250 hours of face-to-face client contact must involve two or more clients. Students receive a minimum of 100 hours of supervision from licensed, professional therapists who are AAMFT approved supervisors or equivalent. At least 50 hours of supervision is in groups of one or two. Supervision is based on videotape, audiotape, or in vivo observation. Students must complete a minimum of twelve consecutive months of clinical experience and a minimum of nine credit hours of PSY656 Clinical Internship.

2PSY672
Cross-Cultural Clinical Internship. 2 hours (Repeatable)
Prerequisite: Admission to MAC program, consent of the MAC clinical director, and 2PSY650.
Students will have supervised practice of counseling and teaching in a cross-cultural context. Students will learn how to apply counseling principles in the context of cultural situations dissimilar to their own, and to develop a keen sensitivity to the unique and distinctive ways of relating and helping individuals within cultural norms. Students will also be encouraged to see how their own cultural understandings may hinder the counseling process.

1PSY700
Post-Graduate Clinical Internship.
1 or 2 hours (Repeatable)
Prerequisite: Appropriate graduate degree and consent of the clinical director.
Graduates with appropriate degrees receive additional clinical experience as interns in the RTS Center for Marriage and Family Therapy or other approved clinical settings. Interns are supervised in accordance with the supervisory standards of the Committee on the Accreditation of Marriage and Family Therapy Education. Enrollment requires approval of the clinical director. This course may be repeated.

THEOLOGY

2ST501
Systematic Theology Survey. 4 hours
Prerequisite: Admission to MAC program.
The major doctrines of systematic theology are taught from a Reformed and evangelical perspective. Through dialogue and class presentation, the student will wrestle with Christian theology in light of the unique challenges and context of Christian counseling.

0ST502 • 2ST502 • 3ST502
4ST502 • 6ST502
Introduction to Pastoral and Theological Studies. 3 hours
An introduction to biblical, theological, and practical ministry studies within the Reformed tradition.

1ST503
Doctrine of Scripture. 2 hours
An exegetical, historical, and dogmatic survey of the Christian doctrine of Scripture, including such topics as revelation, inspiration, authority, infallibility, inerrancy, canonicity, hermeneutics, and self-attestation. Consideration will be given to the development of the doctrine historically and confessionally with particular attention to more recent formulations of these loci with a view to providing a comprehensive analysis and grounding in the importance of this doctrine for theology, ethics and epistemology.

Students examine the various approaches to apologetic methodology and engage the most frequently raised objections to the Christian faith.

1ST601 • 3ST601
Covenant Theology. 2 hours
An examination of covenant theology from exegetical and historical perspectives. Consideration is given to such issues as the relation of the Old and New Testaments, the significance of the covenants for sacramental theology, and the hermeneutics of Dispensationalism and Theonomy. Emphasis is placed on the role of the biblical doctrine of the covenants in preaching and pastoral ministry.

1ST602 • 3ST602
Patristic Theology. 2 hours
This course examines the important themes in Christology, Trinitarian thought, and epistemology. Selections from major church fathers reflecting the significance of their work from an exegetical viewpoint and a historical development viewpoint are studied.

1ST603 • 3ST603
Scottish Theology. 2 hours
This survey of major themes in Scottish theology from the Reformation to the beginning of the twentieth century includes the doctrinal development of Scottish Calvinism.

3ST604
Medieval Theology. 2 hours
A survey of major Christian thinkers during the Middle Ages with attention given to issues raised by the interaction of theology with the developing culture and philosophy of the times. Selected readings are offered from various stages of the medieval period with particular emphasis on Summa Contra Gentiles of St. Thomas Aquinas.

0ST605
English Puritan Theology. 2 hours
This survey of the historical and cultural background of seventeenth century Puritanism in Great Britain and North America includes an examination of some leading theologians (and selected texts) such as John Owen, Richard Sibbes, Thomas Goodwin, Samuel Rutherford, and Thomas Hooker.

1ST606
The Princeton Theology. 2 hours
This course examines the theology of old Princeton Seminary from its inception in 1812 to its reorganization in 1929. A detailed theological review is made of key professors, including Archibald Alexander, Samuel Miller, Charles Hodge, B. B. Warfield, and J. Gresham Machen. Princeton theologians’ involvement in controversies within the Presbyterian church and their interaction with major intellectual movements in American culture also are examined.

6ST614
The Ascended Christ. 2 hours
This course considers the biblical and theological significance of Christ’s heavenly session and intercession for our salvation.

4ST614
Doctrine of Justification. 2 hours
An examination of the doctrine of justification from exegetical, historical-theological, and biblical-theological perspectives. The course covers the history of the doctrine, exegesis of key passages of Scripture, and the relationship of the doctrine of justification to other key loci of systematic theology. Other issues covered include ecumenism and the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox Churches.

4ST615
Doctrine of Baptism. 2 hours
The doctrine of baptism elective is a comprehensive study including a historical survey of the doctrine, a biblical-theological survey, and systematic-theological formulation. The survey of the history of the doctrine begins with the apostolic church, covering key church fathers and baptismal documents, the middle ages covering key theologians, and a survey of the Reformation and post-Reformation periods. The biblical-theological survey traces baptism from Genesis to Revelation. The systematic-theological formulation will address topics such as the sacraments in general, baptism as a means of grace, the doctrine of baptism, recipients, and baptism and ecclesiology.
1ST618
Theology of Calvin. 3 hours
This course is devoted to the life and theology of John Calvin. Class presentations and discussions focus on his Institutes of the Christian Religion and his commentaries. Attention is given to the relevance of Calvin’s theological insights for the church today.

0ST619 • 1ST619
The Theology of John Owen. 2 hours
A study of this preeminent Puritan and Reformed theologian of the seventeenth century includes his life, his writings, and influences on his work. From the edifying spiritual insights of his practical works to the massive scholarship of Hebrews, the course deals with Owen in his historical context.

0ST620 • 1ST620 • 3ST620 • 4ST620 • 6ST520
C. S. Lewis. 2 hours
This study examines Lewis’ teachings on such subjects as general and special revelation, Christian conversion, Christian warfare, worship, the four loves, miracles, social issues, suffering and death, and heaven and hell.

1ST621
Twentieth-Century Reformed Theologians. 2 hours
A study of the contributions to Christian understanding by men who died in the twentieth century, such as James Orr, A. Kuyper, B. B. Warfield, E. Doumergue, H. Bavinck, G. Vos, A. Lecerf, L. Berkhof, J. G. Machen, John Murray, Gordon Clark, Cornelius van Til, Martyn Lloyd-Jones, J. Gerstner, and Carl F. H. Henry. Living contemporaries such as J. I. Packer, and R. C. Sproul are also included.

1ST622
Biblical World and Life View. 2 hours
This course introduces students to four major areas of religious and philosophical inquiry that constitute a worldview: theology/anthropology; epistemology; cosmology and social-ethical relationships. Each of these areas of thought provides the essential elements in a worldview. We shall follow a chronological development of ideas formed by prominent thinkers from the ancient Greeks up to postmodern times in each of these four topics. We shall note how the ideas of God, humanity, knowledge, the cosmos, society and ethics determine how people live and think. Special attention will focus on how a person integrates his/her presuppositions to form a coherent and consistent world and life view.

1ST623 • 3ST623
Theology and History of Southern Presbyterianism. 2 hours
This doctrinal and historical survey of major theologians and themes in Southern Presbyterianism includes reading varied selections from such major theologians as Thornwell, Dabney, Palmer, and Girardeau.

1ST624 • 2ST624 • 6ST624
Theology of the Westminster Standards. 2 hours
In this historical and theological survey of the Westminster Assembly and its work, the major documents produced by the Assembly are studied in detail, with attention also given to the historical, political, and theological context of the Assembly. Such issues as the Westminster doctrine of Scripture, the Confession’s relation to the theology of Calvin, and the debate over church government are discussed.

1ST625
Cultural Apologetics. 2 hours
Students are shown how to use the insights from cultural analysis, including the modern novel, film, and theater, in the work of apologetics.

1ST626
Topics in Philosophical Theology. 2 hours
This course is a detailed examination of a philosophical issue or an issue relevant to Christian theology. The Christian view of knowledge and its implication, philosophical foundations and biblical interpretation, and key philosophical views that have influenced theological expression since Kant are the types of topics covered in this course at different times.

3ST628
Applied Apologetics. 2 hours
This course will entail the practical application of apologetic strategies by critiquing major non-Christian world views such as atheism, postmodernism, Islam and Eastern religions. Aberrant theological views from within the Christian church will also be evaluated. This course is a purposeful continuation of the more theoretical Apologetics course (3ST530), however Apologetics (3ST530) is not a prerequisite.
3ST631

Westminster Standards and Reformation Creeds.

2 hours

A Study of Reformation creeds, emphasizing their theology and usefulness for today, especially in public worship and pastoral care. Approximately half of the course will concern the Westminster Standards.

2ST710 3 hours

6ST710 2 hours

Eastern Religions and Philosophies.

A study of the predominant Eastern religions and philosophies and their influence in the world today.

2ST711 3 hours

6ST711 2 hours

Twentieth-Century Theologians.

This course includes a study of theologians such as Barth, Brunner, Bultmann, Bonhoeffer, Tillich, Cobb, Moltmann, Pannenberg, Rahner, Kung, and others, analyzing their theologies from a biblical perspective.

2ST716

Modern Views of God. 2 hours

Critical analysis of some significant views of God in recent literature, including process thought, open theism, and feminism. Comparisons and contrasts with Biblical and Reformed teaching.

3ST726

Christianity and the Postmodern World. 2 hours

The course will examine themes across a wide swath of contemporary concerns - from the impact of globalization upon the missionary identity of the church, to the clash of world cultures in postmodern times. Specific theological themes of human identity, the uniqueness of Christ and competing truth claims will be evaluated in the light of postmodern pressures. Finally the course shall sketch some strategies for faithfully thinking and living out the Christian faith in these postmodern times.

0ST751

Doctrine of the Holy Spirit. 2 hours

An introduction to the person and work of the Holy Spirit. Special attention is given to the biblical theological exposition and the systematic formulation of His ministry. The significance of Pentecost is discussed. The Ordo Salutis is treated in detail, and the doctrine of union with Christ is accented.

4ST777 • 6ST777

Integrative Paper. 5 hours

Independent interdisciplinary study culminating in a paper synthesizing research and degree program curriculum content.
