Course Purpose

The class will provide an overview of current trends in counseling theory and practice and the role of counseling in church and business settings. Basic counseling skills taught in this course include interviewing, assessment and therapeutic listening in a laboratory situation. Application is made to family, crisis, grief and substance abuse counseling, with emphasis on developing strategies and applying scriptural principles. The class will provide a basic groundwork for pastoral care. The class will provide a paradigm for listening and caring for others.

Competencies

At the completion of this class a successful student should be able to:

- Compare and contrast basic counseling approaches and develop an initial biblical model of counseling that can be explored further and utilized in ministry.
- Become familiar with some of the basic categories of problems which may be faced by counselors, pastors and managers.
- Complete an honest self-assessment concerning his/her ability to participate in a counseling ministry.
- Become familiar with the concept of “creative illness” and apply that concept to self and others.
- Be aware of theories, issues, strategies and interventions in crisis counseling, grief counseling, suicide prevention and substance abuse concerns.
- Develop interview and listening skills to facilitate the counseling process.
- Develop a professional vocabulary which will allow for effective communication between the counselor/pastor and lay persons or other professionals.
- Develop some basic “discernment” concerning the assessment of emotional problems of clients and/or parishioners.
Tentative Schedule

This class will utilize small group, discussion and lecture format; therefore attendance and participation is expected for a successful experience. On “Lab Day” students will practice counseling skills which will require some limited self disclosure in a small group setting. Additional personnel will be utilized on the lab day. There will be an on-line discussion board that all students will be asked to participate and engage with TA led discussions. The online discussion will begin during the first week in February. The instructor reserves the right to change this syllabus as needed to meet the course goals. The participants have the right to change and negotiate changes in the class if they find the format or content to not be helpful.

We are not machines that need to be fixed, or simply dutiful servants with jobs to be done—we are relational beings full of passions, dreams, hopes, longings and terrors which must be faced...
This life, therefore, is not righteousness but growth in righteousness,
Not health but healing,
Not being but becoming,
Not rest but exercise.
We are not yet what we shall be, but we are growing toward it;
The process is not yet finished but it is going on;
This is not the end but it is the road.
All does not yet gleam in glory but all is being purified.

About Prepare/Enrich Certification

A Prepare/Enrich Certification Seminar will be included within the class time (March 1). Prepare/Enrich is a singularly effective tool for pre-marital and marital counseling. Training is necessary to be certified to use the testing instrument. The training fee includes certification, a manual, sample tests and a certificate for test processing worth $29. Training normally costs $150 – $200. Class members cost at RTS is $95. RTS will make no profit on this training. If you have already been trained in use of this tool, your attendance for the day will still be required. We will include lectures on couples counseling during the training. Do not pay RTS Atlanta the $95.00 — please pay me with a check to RTS for $95 on the first day of class (the materials will be ordered from the counseling account in Orlando).

Participation Grade

Your assignments for this course will include responding to questions posted on an online academic forum called Blackboard (aka, Coursesites - www.coursesites.com). This forum will be monitored by Dr. Coffield's teaching assistant Liz Edrington. Please email her at lizedrington@gmail.com and let her know once you've registered for the course. You'll be required to submit a post prior to the first day of class, so it's your responsibility to make sure you can access the site and to submit the first post by the deadline. Contact Liz with any questions.

Pastoral counseling must have its foundation in Biblical principles of problems and solutions.

The WCF addresses counseling issues and concerns.

Counseling must be done constant with Biblical world view.

Counseling and problem solving is connected to evangelism.

We live and minister to a very "psychological sophisticated" world and this class addresses cultural issues.
