SYLLABUS FOR 04PT518 PASTORAL MINISTRY
REFORMED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY - ATLANTA
SUMMER, 2015
JAMES SAXON
GUEST LECTURER
RTS/ATLANTA

COURSE SCHEDULE: Wednesday through Saturday (four days) – 9:00-4:30pm – July 8-11, 2015

COURSE DESCRIPTION: A study of general pastoral care principles based upon the Pastoral Epistles (I & II Timothy, Titus) and will include topics such as personal authenticity, biblical and professional standards of ministerial conduct, etiquette, leadership development, interpersonal relationships, typical problem areas, conducting special services, and potential pitfalls for pastors.

COURSE PURPOSE: To put the finishing touches on students theological preparation to shepherd the flock of God according to His will to the very best of their God-given calling and ability. I Peter 5:2

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. The student will learn to draw wisdom, insight, principles, and practices related to pastoral ministry from biblical resources. Class content will flow out of scriptural content.
2. The student will be exposed to the foundations, skills, and functions inherent in pastoral ministry.
3. The course will seek to round out the ministry preparation process for theological students.
4. The course will present an opportunity for students to explore questions and issues not previously covered in their seminary training.
5. The course will challenge students to define pastoral ministry in a way that is biblically based but culturally relevant – framing pastoral ministry that is anchored in the scriptures, but geared to the times.
TOPICS TO BE COVERED:

REQUIRED PAPERS – PRACTICAL MINISTRY ASSIGNMENTS: (40% of course grade)

Four papers are required for the course. Papers must be double-spaced, 12 point/Times Roman typeset with standard margins. Please number your pages.

1. Practical Ministry Assignment #1: Personal Assessment Profile/Life Mission Statement

You (and your spouse, if married) will complete the PLACE personal assessment. You will write the basic results on a two page report with observations on how you and your spouse blend together toward an effective team ministry. If you are not married, this summary report should include your observations on what would be the highest and best ministry atmosphere for a person with your gifts/strengths profile to minister.

An article from the book Living on Purpose will be referenced in class from which a brief mission statement should be formulated, describing your understanding of God’s Mission for your life. This should include a paragraph of explanation and elaboration on that particular statement (no more than a half page). This report is due on Friday, July 24th.

RECOMMENDED ALTERNATIVE ASSESSMENTS:

1. DISC: The Personality Profile (must be purchased)
2. Myers-Briggs Inventory (available online):
   http://www.humanmetrics.com/cgi-win/JTypes2.asp
3. Strengths Finder 2.0 (see above; must be purchased)
4. Spiritual Gifts Inventories (available free online):

5. Character Assessment - www.assess-yourself.org

Length: Two-three pages, double spaced.
Due: Friday, July 24, 2015

2. Practical Ministry Assignment #2: Self-Care Paper

Choose one of the topics below and write a four-page summary paper on how you would handle one of the following personal pastoral challenges. Use at least four (4) resources and list them at the end of the paper; footnotes are not necessary. One of the four resources can be a pastoral interview, but the paper should reflect your views, ideas and conclusions primarily. This report is due on Friday, August 7th.

A. Clergy Compensation
B. Pastoral Self-care, Burnout, and Sabbaticals
C. Sexual Unfaithfulness Among Pastors
D. Pastoral Transparency in the Pulpit
3. Practical Ministry Assignment #3: Pastoral Issue Paper

Using a step-by-step method of explanation, walk through the procedure you would follow for one of the following possibilities. This report is due on Friday, August 21st.

A. Special Services – Baptisms, Marriages, and Funerals
B. Church Discipline for an Adulterous Church Member
C. Handling an Abuse Charge Against a Nursery Volunteer
D. Pre-marital Counseling Plan
E. Visitation Plan for All Members of the Church
F. Pastoral Ministry Approach to Various Needs in People’s Lives and Various Personality Types
G. Hypothetical Plan for your Personal Weekly Schedule with a Rationale for the Plan
H. Other Topics of Interest: Permitted with prior written permission of the professor.

Length: 4 pages.
Due: August 21, 2015.

VI. Final Exam (20% of course grade)

The final exam will be a comprehensive, written exam that will cover content from all of the lectures and possibly include reflections on all of the reading (general concepts). If the students wish to take the final soon after the classes are over while the lecture materials are fresh in their minds, the professor is open to that.

Date: tbd, 2015.

Teacher/Professor: Dr. James Saxon

This course will be led by James Saxon, an ordained PCA minister since 1979, who has actively served in the pastorate for the last 35 years. He was converted to Christ at the age of twenty while a student at the University of Alabama. His conversion was so dramatic that he decided against going into the business world with his Marketing Degree and instead began pursuit of his call to pastoral ministry by enrolling in RTS Jackson in the summer of 1975. After serving as a youth director for two summers, and taking a year-long internship at the well-known Spanish River Presbyterian Church in Boca Raton, Florida, he discerned God’s calling to go into church planting. He was founder and pastor of the Tampa Bay Presbyterian Church, in Tampa, Florida for 20 years and had oversight of the founding of one daughter church, Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Brandon, Florida. He joined the staff of the fast-growing, outreach-minded Church of The Apostles in Atlanta in the fall of 2000. Since coming to Apostles, He has served in a variety of staff roles and currently serves in the role of Director of ApostlesLife.

In addition to being a successful church-planter, James spearheaded the founding of the Southwest Florida Presbytery in the early 1990’s, and then led the effort to host the 2000 General Assembly in Tampa by that presbytery. He graduated from the RTS Doctorate of Ministry program in the spring of 2005, completing his dissertation entitled, “Empowering the Local Church through Mentoring” which featured a practicum that field-tested mentoring seminary students as a part of their theological education.

He is currently the director of “The Christianity Examined Process” at Apostles, through which many lost people have been converted. This outreach initiative is a cutting-edge evangelism/discipleship strategy that inculcates many current ideas and approaches that are successfully being utilized in soul-winning around the country. This strategy and much more will be covered in this course, which will be conducted in a hands-on, interactive atmosphere.

Since 2005, he has served as guest lecturer at RTS Atlanta and teaches three courses - Leadership, Evangelism and Pastoral Care. Though he is currently involved in outreach ministry, he is a pastor at heart and his life ministry verse is Colossians 1:28, “And we proclaim Him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, that we may present every man complete in Christ.” He has been married to his wife Cindy for 32 years and has two single daughters, Natalie and Adrienne, who are in their twenties.
