I. Instructor
Email: randrews@rts.edu
Phone: Office:1-(601) 923-1679

II. Course description
Pre-requisite: 01PT508
This class is a continuation of Communication I and will further explore developing a sound homiletic method. Detailed attention will be given to integration of biblical theology and homiletics as well as the uniqueness of Scripture’s various genres and how that impacts the homiletical task. Attention will also be given to various sermonic contexts preachers are expected to function in.

III. Required Texts

(Westminster John Knox, 2000)

Recommended Texts

Evangelical Eloquence by R. L. Dabney (The Banner of Truth Trust, 1979)
Exegetical Fallacies by D. A. Carson (Baker Books, 1996)
Expository Preaching Without Notes by Charles W. Koller (Baker, 19th printing 1994)
Heralds of God: A Practical Book on Preaching by James S. Stewart (Regent College, Reprinted 2001)
Preaching by Fred B. Craddock (Abingdon, 1985)
Preaching Christ by Charles P. McIlvaine (The Banner of Truth Trust, 2003 reprinted)
Preaching Doctrine For the Twenty-First Century (Augsburg Fortress, 1997)
The Supremacy of God in Preaching by John Piper (Baker Books, 1990)
Thoughts on Preaching by J. W. Alexander (The Banner of Truth Trust, 1988 reprinted)
Using New Testament Greek in Ministry by David Alan Black (Baker Books, 1993)
IV. Course Requirements

Exams. There will be two examinations in this course: a Mid-Term Exam and a Final Exam. Each examination will cover the lecture material and reading assignments and count for a fourth of the total grade point average for the class.

Reading Assignments. Students are expected to complete the assigned readings.

Class Projects. Each Student will submit 4 Sermon Outlines on 4 separate approved passages. Each outline will include the following elements each clearly identified:

1. Title
2. Text
3. Introduction
4. Proposition
5. Body: which will include:
   a. Main Points.
   b. Sub Points.
   c. Illustrations.
   d. Application.
6. Conclusion
7. List of Books, Commentaries and other Sources utilized.

Attendance Policy. Students are expected to attend all classes. Two excused absences are permitted without a reduction in grade.

Course Grade. Course grades will be comprised equally of four components: (1) Mid-term Exam (2) Final Exam (3) Assigned Readings (4) and Sermon Outlines.