Description
A survey and exploration of theological and ecclesiological issues facing the contemporary Reformed and Presbyterian church.

Course Objectives
(1) to become better acquainted with and appreciative of the Westminster Standards and the Book of Church Order (PCA)
(2) to gain historical perspective on theological issues facing the church today
(3) to gain facility in applying Reformed theology and ecclesiology to the theological issues and concerns facing the church today
(4) to gain facility in constructive theological interaction with one’s peers

Required Texts – see the course schedule below.
Note: most required readings are available online or are on reserve at the library.

Assignments & Requirements
(1) Course Readings: Students are expected to read all assigned readings. A statement is due on November 26 indicating the extent of the student’s reading. 10% of final grade
(2) Personal Position Papers: Beginning October 22, students will submit a 1-2 page personal position paper. The paper will address the assigned topic for the day. The purpose of the paper is to allow the student to draft an informed statement of his views on the topic in question. References to the Westminster Standards or the BCO are required. References to other sources (e.g. other creeds & confessions; theologians) are encouraged but not required. The paper is due at the beginning of the class at which the topic is being discussed. 10% each (60% of final grade)
(3) Westminster Standards Interaction: Students will read the Westminster Standards in their entirety this semester. Students will draft a statement documenting each of their differences, concerns, interactions, or questions concerning the propositions and wording of the Westminster Standards. Each student will meet individually with the professor to discuss his statement. Students’ agreement or disagreement with the Instructor’s views of the Westminster Standards will not be a factor in the assessment of this assignment. This assignment is due on November 28. The instructor will schedule brief meetings with each student at the end of the semester. 30% of final grade.
Attendance
Class attendance is required for ST 627. If a student anticipates an unavoidable absence, he should notify the instructor in advance. Each hour of unexcused absence subjects the student reduction of his final grade by one-half of a letter grade.

Grading Scale
The grading scale for this course is the seminary’s grading scale. You may find it listed at the RTS Catalog, p.44.

Plagiarism
Please review the seminary’s policy on plagiarism. Plagiarized work will subject the student to failure in the course and possible disciplinary action.

In-Class Computer Use
Computers and tablets are not permitted in this course. Cell phones must be set to silent and stowed. If for some extraordinary reason you need to take a call, you may either wait until the break or leave the classroom.

Approximate Course Schedule
Please note that this schedule is approximate and subject to change at any time. The instructor’s announced changes in class will be the final word on the nature and date of assignments. They are the student’s sole responsibility to note and to implement.
