Course Description
This course is an introduction to the Latin language, particularly Ecclesiastical Latin. This introduction will cover morphology, syntax, vocabulary, and reading comprehension. Latin 1 is a three (3) hour course and Latin 2 is a three (3) hour course. The total for the summer course sequence is six hours. There are no prerequisites.

Course Objectives
(1) To gain facility in reading Latin at an introductory level – by recognizing and analyzing vocabulary, forms, and sentences.
(2) To gain exposure to Latin translations of the Bible, especially the Vulgate; and to the Latin writings of Christian writers.

Course Texts – Required (see below for page assts.)
2) Dorothy Sayers, “The Single Greatest Defect of My Own Latin Education” (Pts 1-5)

Course Texts – Recommended
1) Latin Grammar Laminate Reference Chart (QuickStudy 2004).
2) Latin Vocabulary Cards: Academic Study Card Set (Vis-Ed)
5) Richard Muller, A Dictionary of Theological Latin and Greek (Grand Rapids: Baker, 1996).
6) Biblia Sacra Vulgata
Course Format
Each day, our class meeting will be more or less structured according to the following format –

-  Oratio et Recitatio – Pray, Go over memorization verse
-  Subito! (Exercitia) – Go over homework
-  Canticum – On Fridays, we will sing!
-  Examen – Take Quiz
-  Quies – Take Break
-  Notatio – Grade Quiz
-  Lectio – Introduce new material

Course Assignments
Your final course grade will be calculated on the basis of your performance concerning the following assignments:

1. Quizzes (60%)
   You will have quizzes every day, except days on which you are having an exam. Quizzes will typically cover vocabulary, paradigms, parsing, and translation. While the focus of each quiz is the material covered the previous day, every quiz is cumulative.

   Quizzes may not be taken early. There are also no make-up quizzes.

   You may drop your lowest two quizzes (over the entire eight-week period), i.e. two of your 29 quizzes. A missed quiz will be counted as one of your drop quizzes.

2. Exams (40%)
   You will have three exams per the schedule below. Each exam is cumulative. The first and second exams are worth 10% of your final grade. The third exam is worth 20% of your final grade.

3. Attendance and Participation
   Punctual and regular attendance is a requirement. Regular absence or habitual tardiness will be factored into your final grade.

Course Protocol & Expectations
1. Grading Scale
   The grading scale for this course is the seminary’s grading scale. You may find it listed at the RTS Catalog, p.45.

2. Plagiarism
   Please review the seminary’s policy on plagiarism. Plagiarized work will subject the student to failure in the course and possible disciplinary action.
3. Use of Electronic Devices
There is none – that includes computers and all portable devices. Cell phones must be set to “silent.” We’re doing Latin schola vetus (“Old School”) – unplugged!

4. The Fine Print
The instructor reserves the right to modify any part of this syllabus at any time for any reason.

5. How To Succeed in Latin
Some avuncular wisdom from a colleague …

“Before you can read Latin you must first memorize the vocabulary and forms. Then you must come to understand how those forms relate to each other in sentence form (grammar).

Thus, in order to learn Latin you must first memorize. You cannot learn the relations of words and forms if they are unfamiliar. To memorize you need a large set of flash cards (or the Mac Genius program). You must write out the vocabulary and forms and quiz yourself repeatedly until you have mastered the assigned vocabulary and forms. Quiz yourself over the vocabulary until you can work through the assignment without error. Leave it and come back to it later. Isolate the vocabulary you’ve not yet memorized and focus on it. When you’ve mastered these words, go back and review all the vocabulary together. Leave it and come back to it tomorrow. When you pass the flash card quiz repeatedly without error you are ready for the vocabulary portion of the quiz.

It will be helpful to write out the forms repeatedly on a black/white board (or on paper) until you can reproduce the forms without error and without consulting any helps. Leave it and come back later or even the next day and try to reproduce the forms. When you can reproduce the entire form the next day without error you are ready for that portion of the quiz.

When translation sentences are assigned you must work on 5-6 sentences daily in order to complete the assignment successfully before the quiz. As a rule, if your translation makes no sense then you have most probably made a mistake. Do not assume that the text has erred. It hasn’t. When you can sight read all the assigned Latin to English sentences you are ready for the weekly quiz.

Here’s the method for translation: Find the verb (translate it), find the subject of the verb (translate it), then find the qualifiers and translate them.

If you follow this procedure each week, you should have learned the material well enough, with a little review, to perform well on the mid-term and final.

Keep up. We move on each week and each chapter builds on the next and assumes that you have mastered the material from the previous chapter.”
Translating the “Waters Way”
Here are some guidelines regarding in-class translations:

1. You must translate from a clean text. In other words, your text must be clear of annotations on your part (i.e. parsings, vocabulary words, grammatical hints).

2. Interlinears are strictly forbidden – whether in the classroom or outside it.

3. When you are called to recite in class, you may not consult a prepared translation (whether your own or a published translation), a vocabulary list, or any other such aid.

4. In short, with a clean text before you, you should be able to do the following:
   • Give a smooth translation of the text
   • Define all words in the text. Provide their lexical form
   • Parse all verbs and verbals
   • Answer any grammatical or syntactical questions put to you from the text.

Approximate Course Schedule
Please note that this schedule is approximate and subject to change at any time. The instructor’s announced changes in class will be the final word on the nature and date of the assignments. They are the student’s sole responsibility to note and to implement.

magnus es, domine, et laudabilis valde. magna virtus tua et sapientiae tuae non est numerus. et laudare te vult homo, aliqua portio creaturae tuae, et homo circumferens mortalitatem suam, circumferens testimonium peccati sui et testimonium quia superbis resistis; et tamen laudare te vult homo, aliqua portio creaturae tuae. tu excitas ut laudare te delectet, quia fecisti nos ad te et inquietum est cor nostrum donec requiescat in te. da mihi, domine, scire et intellegere utrum sit prius invocare te an laudare te, et scire te prius sit an invocare te. sed quis te invocat nesciens te? alius enim pro alio potest invocare nesciens. an potius invocaris ut sciaris? quomodo autem invocabunt, in quem non crediderunt? aut quomodo credent sine praedicante? et laudabunt dominum qui requirunt eum: quaerentes enim inveniunt eum et invenientes laudabunt eum. quaeram te, domine, invocans te et invocem te credens in te: praedicatus enim es nobis. invocat te, domine, fides mea, quam dedisti mihi, quam inspirasti mihi per humanitatem filii tui, per ministerium praedicatoris tui.

MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes

In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes.

*As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this syllabus.
