Preach

Ability to preach and teach the meaning of Scripture to both heart and mind with clarity and enthusiasm. | Minimal | No preaching techniques are offered here, only the essential materials on which all sound, Biblical preaching is based!

Worship

Knowledgeable of historic and modern Christian-worship forms; and ability to construct and skill to lead a worship service. | Minimal | No emphasis on forms or skill in leading worship, only the necessary testing of the mettle of the aspiring worship leader.

Shepherd

Ability to shepherd the local congregation: aiding in spiritual maturity; promoting use of gifts and callings; and encouraging a concern for non-Christians, both in America and worldwide. | Minimal | Spiritual maturity and shepherding skills begin here! Does the army let you lead warriors into battle without boot camp? I don’t think so.

Church/World

Ability to interact within a denominational context, within the broader worldwide church, and with significant public issues. | Minimal | Anybody who tries to engage in denominational politics, inter-church relations, or Christianity in the public square without a solid understanding of Greek is like a fool asking for a beating.

III. CLASS FORMAT AND COURSE EXPECTATIONS

Students are to come to class having completed the assignments in the chapters of Mounce’s Grammar and Workbook or of Wallace which were introduced the previous week, or having done the translation assigned for that day in your schedule, and ready for any quiz or test. You are encouraged to do some Greek every day (Sunday’s excepted, of course) and not to get behind.

IV. GRADING

Quizzes (averaged) 40%
MIDTERM 30%
FINAL EXAM 30%

V. Greek Labs and Tutors

You will be required to attend one hour of Greek Lab each week. As a general rule you should attend the same lab each week. If circumstances demand that you miss your regular lab on some occasion you may attend another lab that week. If you achieved an A or A- on your Midterm, you do not need to attend lab. This semester your labs will be:

For Greek IIA Wednesdays 4:00-5:00 with Ryan Fraser
For Greek IIB Mondays 4:00-5:00 with George Hawkins
