Course Purpose and Objectives

The purpose of this course is to deepen our experience and understanding of God’s Word found in the prophetic books of the Old Testament: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, and the Twelve Minor Prophets. We will do this by gaining a familiarity with the message of the prophets and its meaning both for the ancient audience and for the believing community acquainted with the prophetic ministry of Jesus Christ. Emphasis will be placed on historical setting, literary structure, canonical situatedness, and the theological system communicated by the prophets and their biblical interpreters.

Students will be required to demonstrate:
1. a familiarity with the content of the prophetic books,
2. a grasp of the theological issues and patterns that arise from these books, and
3. an ability to interpret the books in light of the person of Jesus Christ and communicate their message to others.

ISBN: 978-0801038600

Selected readings on reserve in the library or on course website.
Course Assignments

- Final Exam (due: September 15) will test material discussed in class and in reading assignments. (60%)
- Student papers (due: August 30) will treat a passage from Isaiah, aiming to explain its meaning and significance within the book of Isaiah and the Scriptures as a whole, including its significance to the apostolic witness, the contemporary Church, and our future hope. Treatments will rely on scholarly research, a close reading of the English text (those students who know Biblical Hebrew can use this as an opportunity to exercise that knowledge), and personal reflection. (30%)
- Class Participation. Students will be expected to complete the assigned readings, attend lectures, participate in classroom discussions. (10%)

Reading Schedule (These are set up to be read weekly. All reading must be completed by the exam time. The first 6 readings should be completed by August 9.)
