I. Course description: This course will focus on refining the practical skills and values needed for effective, Christ-centered, biblical preaching.

II. Course Objectives

A. A Mind for Truth: Transforming Your Understanding.
   1. To understand the biblical and theological principles of homiletics
   2. To understand basic sermon components and their functions
   3. To understand the fundamentals of sermon preparation and delivery
   4. To understand the priority and practice of Christ-centered preaching
   5. To understand the specific challenges of preaching in the present culture

B. A Heart for God: Transforming Your Affections.
   1. Increased confidence in preparing and delivering Christ-centered expository sermons
   2. Deepening commitment to and experience of Christ-centered life and ministry
   3. Clear conviction of the power and importance of Christ-centered preaching
   4. Increased sensitivity to cultural issues as they relate to the task of preaching

C. A Life for Ministry: Transforming Your Behavior
   1. Increased competence in public speaking in general and sermon delivery in particular.
   2. Increased ability to construct and deliver biblically sound, culturally relevant Christ-centered sermons.

III. Course Assignments

A. Preaching Assignments
   1. The student will be required to preach at least two expository sermons.
      a. One Sermon must be from the Psalms
      b. One Sermon must be from the Epistles.
   2. The student will chose the text, however it must be approved by the instructor.
   3. After preaching each time in class the student will:
      a. Receive critical feedback from the instructor and fellow students. This feedback will help the student develop a plan for improving both sermon preparation and delivery.
      b. Give them self a grade for each sermon.
4. For all assignments the student will submit a complete manuscript to the instructor unless otherwise instructed.

B. Sermon Criteria:
1. The sermon will be an expository sermon.
2. The sermon will begin with an introduction that creates interest, identifies a need and leads into the text and topic.
3. The sermon will contain a main idea, thought or proposition that can be clearly stated in a single sentence. (This must be identified in the manuscript)
4. The sermon must contain a clear outline that includes main points expressed in complete sentence statements.
5. Each main point must be clearly demonstrated as derived from the text and must be clearly developed in the exposition.
6. Each main point must be developed, illustrated and applied. The exposition must display thoughtful study of the Scripture that is faithful to the text.
7. The illustrations must be well chosen and appropriate.
8. The application must be biblical, clear, culturally relevant, and Christ-centered.
9. The conclusion of the sermon must be crafted to bring the sermon to a purposeful ending.
10. The sermon delivery must demonstrate good delivery values and skills, such as dependence on the Holy Spirit, heartfelt passion, and the ability to engage with the listeners in a meaningful way.

C. Other Assignments
Depending on the size and needs of the class, students may also be given other assignments designed to improve their speaking ability. The professor will determine these assignments during the course. There is no advance reading required for this course.

IV. Grading

A. Grading Scale
Grades will be assigned according to the RTS grading system: 100-97=A, 96-94=A-, 93-91=B+, 90-88=B, 87-86=B-, 85-83=C+, 82-80=C, 79-78=C-, 77-75=D+, 74-72=D, 71-70=D-, below 70=F.

B. Late Assignments Policy
Please do not ask me for permission to turn in an assignment late. All late assignments will automatically be penalized. If you have truly been providentially hindered from completing an assignment on time (such as a death in the immediate family) please turn in a written request.

C. Grading Percentages:
- Class Attendance Participation 20%
- First Sermon assignment 30%
- Second Sermon assignment 30%
- Other Assignments 20%

V. Schedule: TBD
Course Objectives Related to MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes

In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes.

*As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this syllabus.
