Course Description
An introductory study concentrating on basic vocabulary and analysis of the grammar of New Testament Greek.

Course Goals
The purpose of this course is to learn the fundamentals of Biblical Greek phonology, morphology, and syntax in order to begin reading and translating Greek New Testament.

Goals for Student Learning
The student will demonstrate an ability to read and translate simple Greek sentences. To this end, he or she will acquire: 1. a working Greek vocabulary; 2. basic understanding of Greek grammar; and 3. ability to parse Greek verbs and nouns.

Required Texts
Greek New Testament (Nestle-Aland Novum Testamentum Graece 28th ed.)
Requirements

Attendance: Students are required to attend class lectures and discussion. If you know you cannot make it to a class session, you must notify the instructor in advance. Failure to attend a significant number of classes with “significant” being defined at the discretion of the instructor may result in failure of the class. Recording of classes is prohibited.

Homework: Students are required to complete all assigned homework and be prepared to read and translate exercises orally in class in class.

Quizzes: At the beginning of each class, students will be quizzed covering the cumulative grammar and vocabulary in the course. (Students should not expect to arrive late and be able to take the quiz.) There will be NO “make up” quizzes if a student is absent. However, the lowest three quiz grades will be dropped.

Midterm and Final: The midterm exam and final exam will include the same type of material included in the homework and/or quizzes.

Total Grade

The final grade for the course will be the total of each of the required assignments listed above.

- Class Participation/Homework (10%)
- Quizzes (35%)
- Midterm Exam (20%)
- Final Exam (35%)
