COURSE DESCRIPTION: An introduction to exegeting the Greek New Testament.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To glorify God by and while learning to read the New Testament in its original language.
2. To enable the student to read and translate from portions of the Greek New Testament.
3. To aid the student in preparation of teaching the Scriptures.
4. To equip the student to understand lexical aids and commentaries on the New Testament.
5. To enable the student to produce an exegetical paper on a passage from the Greek New Testament.

REQUIRED Texts:

SUGGESTED Software:

☐ BibleWorks.

REQUIREMENTS:

Attendance: Students are required to attend class lectures and discussions. If you know you cannot make it to a class session, you must notify the instructor in advance. Failure to attend a significant number of classes, with “significant” being defined at the discretion of the instructor, may result in failure of the class.

Assignments: A detailed list of class sessions and assignments will be provided to all students at the first class session of the semester. In addition, the professor reserves the right to add or remove assignments as he deems best for the training of the students.

Exegetical Paper: Using the insights from the class, each student will write an exegetical paper on the assigned passage. The last several weeks of class may be reserved for a brief presentation and discussion of the individual papers.

TOTAL GRADE:

Assignments (50%)
Exegetical Paper (50%)

The instructor reserves the right to adjust grades based on each student’s attendance at class and participation in classroom exercises.
