REQUIRED TEXT:
- HEBREW BIBLE:

- HEBREW DICTIONARIES:

- OTHER READINGS:

REQUIREMENTS:
- Attendance: You are required to attend each class. If you know you cannot make it to a class session, notify me in advance.
- Homework: Students will be required to prepare passages from the Hebrew Bible for class discussions. These will not be turned in. Part of your homework will be to prepare for class discussions. Part of the preparation will be to practice your Hebrew reading out loud. Part of the Hebrew reading is to demonstrate grammatical comprehension.
Weekly Quizzes: Each Monday class will begin with a quiz. These quizzes are reviews of the Futato grammar from the Intro Hebrew course.

Hebrew Puzzles: Students will turn in a written report on a particular Hebrew “puzzle.” Each assignment is not to exceed two pages! They will be discussed in class. The purpose of these assignments is to demonstrate competency in the use of Hebrew tools (dictionaries) and grammar, not necessarily solving the puzzle. More will be said about this assignment on the first day of class.

Hebrew Final Exam: There is only one exam, which will be take-home.

Hebrew Exegetical Paper: Students will write a Hebrew exegetical paper. You are to focus your thoughts on the central theme that you believe was intended by the author and show how the Hebrew is used to support that theme. Students can provide very small portions of the paper to authorship, historical background. The bulk of the paper, however, is to focus on the passage in hand.

- The first page of the paper is to be YOUR translation of the passage (do not copy the ESV, NASB, or any other English translation). Include any comments on textual variants and uses of the BHS apparatus when/if necessary. You may comment on your translations in the body of the paper if it relevant to your thematic spine.

- One brief paragraph is to focus on the literary setting of the text (if needed)

- One brief paragraph is to focus on the historical setting of the text (if needed)

- Show the relevance of this passage in the place of the history of redemption (required).

- Final page is your bibliography. You are required to use a minimum of 8 sources (commentaries, monographs, journal articles, Bible encyclopedias: this does not including Hebrew or Greek dictionaries, English translations, or BHS).

- Students are free to use Bible software programs as a tool for their papers.

- As much as possible, please use a Hebrew font for your paper.
