WELCOME FROM THE DEAN OF STUDENTS!

Dear Students and Families,

Welcome to RTS Jackson! I look forward to being part of your life during the academic year.

This handbook contains the policies, procedures, and information that shape campus life. Read it carefully.

If you have questions, I'm in my office most days. If you or your family faces an emergency, call me on my cell phone any time during the day or night.

Enjoy the Lord and the life he has given us together at RTS!

Your fellow servant in Christ,

Charles M. Wingard
Dean of Students
Cell Phone: 256-509-9284
Notice of Non-Discrimination

Reformed Theological Seminary has a non-discriminatory (race, sex, or handicap) admissions policy. The seminary’s policy is to admit students to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities at the seminary and to make no discrimination on the basis of race, sex, or handicap in the administration of educational policies, applications for admission, scholarship or loan programs, and extracurricular activities.

SPIRITUAL LIFE AND SERVICE

"Watch your life and doctrine closely," Paul wrote to Timothy (1 Tim. 4:16a). While RTS will help you watch your doctrine, your personal walk with God merits your first priority. If your academic studies, even of Scripture and its teaching, replace your private devotions and personal Bible study, your spiritual life will quickly become dry and joyless. You can expect this to happen to you unless you take some steps to prevent it:

Spend time with God. Do not neglect to examine yourself, to pray, and to seek the Lord in his Word. Knowing God is not the same thing as knowing about him. As the Word of God shapes your mind, the Spirit of God is at work to shape and transform your heart. “Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life” (Prov. 4:23). How is the Holy Spirit currently at work to form Christ within you?

Develop honest relationships with others. RTS is more than an academic institution; it is a community of believers who encourage each other on to godliness. “But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called Today, so that none of you may be hardened by sin’s deceitfulness” (Heb. 3:13). There is no sweeter fellowship with others than that of intimate, broken-hearted prayer to the Father. Who can you pray with in this way?

Look for present ministry beyond your studies. While your studies are a high priority, they are not the only way to prepare for ministry. You have come to RTS to receive an education, but "the Lord Jesus himself said: ’It is more blessed to give than to receive’" (Acts 20:35). Your involvement in ongoing ministry while in seminary helps to merge your learning and your life. Those who are truly called by God cannot help speaking about what they have experienced (cf. Acts 4:20). What have you deeply learned about God that you cannot keep to yourself?

Activities

Chapel is held for everyone in Grace Chapel on Wednesday mornings from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. during spring and fall semesters. Chapel services include singing, prayer, preaching, and other elements, which allow us both to worship God and to be built up as a community of his people. The glory of God that draws us to study at RTS draws us first to worship him. Attendance by all faculty members and students is REQUIRED. Students taking two or more classes during the Fall or Spring semesters are required to attend chapel each week as part of the RTSJ graduation requirement. There is a sign-in sheet located in the front foyer for you to mark your attendance. Up to three (3) missed chapels can be made up by listening to the message online and submitting a one page summary of the chapel message to the office of the Dean of Students.
Prayer groups meet on Wednesday during fall and spring semesters from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. Students meet at Patterson’s Porch to pray with faculty. We hope that these prayer groups will be a powerful spiritual influence on campus. All students are expected to participate in a prayer group.

The Lord’s Day is set aside for worship and rest. Students are expected to participate actively in a local congregation as a member or associate member. In addition to being their community of faith, the local church is where seminarians gain practical experience in ministry. The congregation where you are active should be a valuable part of your seminary experience. Invest your life in others: get involved in a local church!

Opportunities for service through special ministries at RTS are coordinated by the Spiritual Life Chairman of the Student Cabinet in consultation with the Director of Field Education and/or the Dean of Students.

Having said all this, remember that study is your immediate stewardship. Thorough preparation for class may be a spiritual exercise to the glory of God. This is the present vocation that your enrollment at RTS indicates.

A thank-a-thon is held twice in an academic year. All students are required to submit notes of appreciation to our donors and contributors. This is handled through our Campus Events Coordinator. Note cards and postage are provided along with the information of donors’ names, etc.

Help When You Need It

During your first semester, each new student is required to meet with the Dean of Students. The purpose of the meeting is to determine if there are issues that he can assist you with as you transition into campus life at RTS Jackson. Within a few weeks of your arrival, the assistant to the dean will contact you to arrange a time to meet.

Every student needs assistance from time to time. Sometimes it will be as simple as getting some information. Sometimes it will involve help with a financial, personal, or family issue that needs an objective viewpoint. Sometimes it will involve academic matters. Whatever your need, there is someone available to help. Let us know if you are having difficulty.

Academic Matters.
If your problem involves only one class, consult that professor. If the issue is broader, you should consult the Registrar, Kim Lee (601.923.1681) or Academic Dean, Dr. Miles Van Pelt, who will help you with the problem or direct you to an appropriate person within the faculty or administration.

Financial, Personal, or Family Matters.
The Dean of Students, Charlie Wingard (601.923.1627) can handle many problems in these categories. More extensive counseling is available for a nominal fee through the Center for Counseling (601.923.1645). Assistance concerning finances around paying your student account can be discussed with Wanda Rushing. (601.923.1652) Students are responsible to make timely payments for tuition and rent and keep their accounts in good standing. When a student becomes delinquent in his account for more than 30 days, he must schedule a meeting with the Dean of Students.

Housing and Maintenance.

Housing is handled by the Office of Student Housing (601.923.1699). The Facilities Maintenance Department handles repairs. (601.923.1691) When a repair is needed, please fill out an online request at: http://rtsjackson.org/maintenance. For maintenance emergencies and after-hours maintenance needs, contact the appropriate caretaker (see RTS phone numbers).

Campus Life.

Your class representative and the Student Cabinet are concerned with the quality of campus life and can help resolve problems (see section on Student Cabinet officers for names).

If you cannot decide who can help, the Dean of Students serves as general advisor to students and student organizations and will direct you to the proper channel for dealing with your concern.

Student Conduct

Students are expected to conduct themselves at all times as mature believers. Exemplary Christian conduct should control our words and our actions, both public and private. In today’s technological environment our words can include texting, emails, social networking and blogging, in addition to our speech. Godly behavior, expected of all Christians, is especially required of those who are preparing themselves to become ministers of the Word or servants in the church.

Classroom manners should also reflect this maturity. Students should be respectful of professors, attend all class periods, and hand in assignments on time. Classroom etiquette also includes leaving cell phones turned off, refraining from surfing the Internet and laptop computer games and communicating to your neighbor during lectures.

Student conduct is under the supervision of the Dean of Students. The seminary reserves the right to dismiss any student whose conduct is found to be unsatisfactory on the basis of spiritual or moral principles found in the Scriptures. If desired, the student can appeal the dismissal according to the stated policy.

Sexual Harassment.

The seminary expects all members of its community to apply sanctified common sense and Biblical principles to their relationships. It will not tolerate offensive or inappropriate sexual behavior and requires all faculty, staff, and students to refrain from any action or conduct which could be viewed as sexual harassment. Any such harassment is contrary to and prohibited by seminary policy and will be considered grounds for disciplinary action. It should be noted that for academic purposes, some appropriate teaching and discussion of sexual information may occur, particularly in a counseling program; however, these discussions are necessary for the formation of a competent counselor or pastor and therefore does not constitute sexual harassment.

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other offensive verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature is expressly prohibited. Examples of prohibited conduct include but are not limited to lewd or sexually suggestive comments; off-color language or jokes of a sexual nature; verbal, graphic or physical conduct inappropriately relating to an individual's gender; or any display of sexually explicit pictures, greeting cards, articles, books, magazines, photos, computer images or cartoons.

The seminary must have the cooperation of all faculty, staff and students in order to implement its sexual harassment policy. It is the individual’s responsibility to report immediately any incident that they believe to constitute sexual harassment. Even if they believe the act is isolated or infrequent, they should report it to the campus Dean of Students or President. The seminary will promptly investigate the situation and take whatever corrective action is necessary and appropriate. The seminary prohibits any retaliatory action against persons reporting conduct that is believed by the reporting individual to be in violation of this policy.

Students’ Role and Participation in Institutional Decision Making

The seminary recognizes that students may contribute positively to institutional decision-making. Therefore, an open-door policy exists throughout the institution, through which students may voice their concerns, suggestions, and needs. In addition, pertinent matters may be brought to the attention of the faculty, administration, or Board of Trustees through the student government and its officers.

Student Appeals.

An appeals process exists to resolve any behavioral or academic problem that cannot otherwise be settled in a Biblical manner and assures fairness to all parties concerned. This process is rarely needed and should only be used after all other means have been exhausted. For example, in academic matters that pertain to a class or a grade, the student should first work directly with the professor and/or Registrar. Concerning behavioral or community issues, the student should first consult with the Dean of Students.

If the matter cannot be resolved by the above means, the following appeals process exists:

1. The student should submit a written appeal to the Academic Dean regarding the issue. Depending on the issue, the Academic Dean may request input from the Faculty. The Academic Dean will render a written decision.
2. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the Academic Dean, then the student may submit a subsequent written appeal to the campus President requesting a hearing. The campus President may or may not grant the request. If granted, the campus President will appoint an ad hoc committee that may consist of trustees, faculty, staff, and/or institutional officers to hear the case. This committee is authorized to meet with any or all concerned parties to resolve the issue and will render a written decision concerning the case.
3. The decision of the President or the ad hoc committee is considered final, subject only to review by the Executive Committee of the Board to affirm the appeals process was properly observed.

Accreditation Complaint.

Reformed Theological Seminary maintains a goal to comply fully with the standards of accreditation of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) in the United States and Canada and the Commission on Colleges of Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). Students who believe that RTS has violated ATS and/or SACS standards in any way should submit their complaint in writing to their respective campus Academic Dean. The Dean will consult with the Chief Academic Officer, who serves as the coordinator of matters related to institutional accreditation. The complaint will be reviewed and a written response provided to the student in a timely fashion related to the receipt of the complaint.

At this point, if the student is not satisfied with the written response from RTS, the student may file a complaint directly with ATS and/or SACS.
CAMPUS LIFE

Being good stewards of what the Lord provides means prudent use of our time, talents, assets, and opportunities. The seminary calls on each student to exercise responsible stewardship of the resources afforded here.

Children on the Campus.
Because of the many seminary activities usually in progress, as well as the lack of supervisory personnel available, students, faculty, and staff are discouraged from bringing their child(ren) on the campus except for activities that involve children such as parties and picnics. It is recognized that there are certain times when an individual has to have their child(ren) with them on campus; and, when this is the case, the individual should make certain that their child(ren) stay with them and are not allowed to wander unattended around the campus or in any seminary buildings.

Security.
There are several things to note about campus security:

To begin with, you should wear your official identification badge when you are on campus. The badge will give you access to the closed gate at the front of the main campus. It will identify you as belonging on campus and serves as your access to check out books or study at the library. Future use of the badges will include access to buildings or offices without the use of keys.

Second: Campus security is a matter of concern and involvement by everyone. While RTS employs a professional security company (Pendleton Security Services), extra care should always be used to avoid potentially dangerous situations. All students, faculty, and staff should note and report suspicious people who may be on our campus whether during the daylight hours or at night. We encourage a “neighborhood watch” mentality to look out for one another, our children, and our property. Polite inquiries as to an unfamiliar person’s needs might be in order, but we strongly discourage direct challenges or confrontations. During regular business hours call the campus switchboard (Dial “1600” on the campus phone intercom or 601.923.1600 for the campus receptionist) and report potential concerns, or contact the Director of Facilities/Security at 601.906.1608 (Cell). In the evenings or at night, call the patrol guard at 601.291.1600 or 911 for the police, depending on your best judgment of the situation. Security is on campus from 5:00 pm until 8:00 am the following morning, during the regular work week. They are on campus 24 hours during weekends and holidays. The day contact number is 601-291-1600. Additional mobile contact number is 601-212-6725. Security also patrols the townhouses from 10:00 p.m. through 6:00 a.m. You can contact the guard when he is on patrol at 601-212-6725. The number for the Guard House on campus is 601-291-1600. The maintenance office manager can be contacted at 601.923.1691 during regular office hours.

Third: Keep doors and windows closed and locked when you are away from your apartment or townhouse. Use the dead bolt at all times. Do not leave bikes or toys unsecured outside. Do not leave anything of value openly visible through car windows, even if you are planning on being away for just a short while. Most break-ins occur when tools, briefcases, CD players, etc. have been left open to view in an unoccupied car. Break-ins can happen during daylight hours (often early in the morning) as much as at night.

Fourth: Be sure that your vehicle has an official white and maroon RTS decal on your windshield as identification for the security. This can be obtained from the Admissions Office or at the receptionist’s desk in the Administration Building. Proper placement is the lower corner, passenger side front glass.
Do not give out access codes to the front gates to people outside of the campus community for any reason. Also remember that the front “drop-arm” gates operate very quickly and allow only one vehicle to pass through them at a time.

Fifth: All faculty, students, and staff must notify security if they will be in the buildings after normal working hours.

The complete Safety Manual for the Jackson campus of RTS is available on the RTS Jackson website for anyone interested in more information regarding safety and security.

Campus Buildings and Grounds

We have been blessed with excellent facilities at RTS for residence, study, and recreation. We all bear common responsibility to maintain, clean, and use them considerately. Each student is expected to share that responsibility in at least the following ways:

1. When you see a need for maintenance, take a moment to complete an online request at http://rtsjackson.org/maintenance. Please do not phone in requests to maintenance or housing offices. For emergencies contact the receptionist at 923.1600. She can contact the Facilities Department directly for urgent requests. For after-hours maintenance emergencies, contact the security guard and ask him to report it to the Facilities Department (see the phone list for the numbers to call).
2. Wherever you see litter or trash, please pick it up and dispose of properly.
3. Turn off lights, air conditioners, etc. that are not being used. Thermostats, however, are to be adjusted only by the Facilities Department.
4. Dogs, cats, and other pets that could cause damage or offend others are not allowed in seminary buildings or student housing.
5. Food and drinks are permitted only in the lounge of the Library. Drinks only are permitted in the classrooms. Food and drink are not permitted in the Chapel.
6. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted in the school’s academic, social and administrative buildings.
7. Automobiles should be parked only in paved, designated areas. Please do not drive vehicles on the grass. Facilities Department vehicles only are permitted on the grass. All student vehicles must have an RTS decal on the windshield for identification.
8. Firearms are not permitted in classrooms, public buildings or grounds of the seminary property at any time. Stored firearms in your homes must be registered with the Housing Office.
9. Tobacco products are not permitted on campus grounds.
10. Any attempt to disable fire protection devices (smoke detectors, alarm systems, etc.) is a serious offense that will incur disciplinary action. For the safety of our campus, do not tamper with any such equipment in our campus buildings, apartments, or townhouses.
11. When you need to enter a building after hours, you must let security know where you will be. When leaving, lock doors and inform security.
12. To enter the student center, game room, and gym after hours, you must have the code to the keypad on the door (available in the Office of Admissions and Student Life).
13. The speed limit on all campus property is 15 mph. Please observe ONE WAY arrows located in the main parking lot.
The map on the following page and the information contained here are designed to orient you to campus facilities and to inform you about when and under what conditions they are available to you. Facilities request must be completed to utilize space for events. These forms are available in our Campus Events Coordinator / Director of Student Housing Office located in the Dean Center. Student Events must also have the approval of the Dean of Students. Use of Gym and workout rooms is handled by the Admissions office. Not listed on the map is the maintenance shop which is located across from on campus housing. Generally, all campus buildings are open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. during regular business hours. Exceptions are noted for each building in its description. Anyone who works on campus after hours should notify security when they arrive on campus and when they leave. No campus buildings are open on the Lord's Day, except for special services by permission.

Campus Buildings

The Biblical Studies Building (2) houses the New Testament and Old Testament classrooms, TA offices, a reading lab, a language lab and the AV office. It is open during regular hours. Students are not permitted to use office phones unless given permission. Students may use the copier for a charge of 5¢ per page. There is also a seminar room with resource books that may be used in the building. Help us keep the Biblical Studies Foyer, which is considered a student lounge, neat and clean. Coffee is available.

Vacant Building (Old Library, (3)

The Bookstore / Administration / Information Building (7) is the first building on campus and it houses the President’s Office, Director of Operations, Receptionists, and Bookstore. Main campus number is 601-923-1600.

The RTS Bookstore (7) The Bookstore Manager and all personnel are glad to help you select books. The RTS Bookstore’s motto is that we will meet, beat, or compete with Amazon. During the first month of classes there is no sales tax on textbooks. The sale of a book by the Bookstore does not constitute endorsement of its contents by the seminary. Hours of operation are 9:00 am until 4:00 pm, Monday through Friday. Closed on holidays. The bookstore closes early on the last day of the month for end of the month processing. Email address for the bookstore is jacksonbookstore@rts.edu (601-923-1616).

The Institutional Building (4) is located near the heart of campus and houses the CFO-COO, Human Resources (Payroll and Benefits), Student Accounts, Account Payables, Controller, Chancellor’s Office, Gift Processing, and Computer Services.

Campus Housing (5) See p. 20 for more information.

The Dean Center (8) houses the offices of Admissions and Student Life, Director of Housing, Placement, Faculty offices, the Faculty/Student Lounge, indoor recreation facilities, classrooms DC Two and Three, the Registrar, and the Dean of Students. The Dean Center, except for the athletic facilities, is open during regular hours. Rules for the use of the athletic facilities are found on page 30 of this student handbook.

The Student Center (10) houses the mailroom, Patterson’s Porch (which is open for lunch while school is in session), recreation facilities, Women in Ministry, the TV room, and the nursery. There are foosball and Ping-Pong tables and a student lounge containing a TV. Students are expected to treat these facilities as they would the facilities of any home in which they are guests. Litter and bottles are to be disposed of properly and spills are to be cleaned up. Please leave the premises the way that you would like to find them.

Students may use Patterson’s Porch or Student Center for special events. There may be a cleaning charge, depending on the event. These events must be discussed and approved by the Dean of Students and/or Campus Events Coordinator in advance. A Facilities Request Form must be completed for the following reasons: 1) for approval, 2) to ensure that only one event is planned at a time, and 3) to notify all departments of the event. Please call the Director of Housing Office (601-923-1699) for details.

Children of students, faculty, and staff may use these facilities under the same rules that apply to their use of other facilities: they must be accompanied by and supervised by at least one parent. The facilities are provided primarily for students.

The Mailroom is located in the Student Center. The mailroom window is open from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday - Friday. Domestic letters and packages as well as international letters can be mailed. International packages may be mailed at the post office in Clinton. For students, we have UPS and FedEx delivery only. UPS deliveries come to the mailroom and a package slip is placed in your student mailbox if the package is too large to fit in your student mailbox. FedEx deliveries come to the receptionist’s desk in the Administration building and students are notified to pick up their packages. To ship via FedEx or UPS you may contact the local branches in Clinton.

Every student (whether living on or off campus) must sign up for a mailbox at the mailroom window upon enrollment for credit. Mailboxes are used for special notices, personal messages, papers returned by professors, announcements, grades, and of course, incoming mail. All mail is put in student boxes as soon as it is received. Check your mailbox at least once a week.

There has been a change by the United States Postal Service that forwarding of mail is no longer allowed. This was stopped because businesses are paying the Post Office for these return addresses and they are not getting the information if we are doing the forwarding of that mail. The Mailroom has packets of the changing of address procedure which can be done by completing a card in the packet and dropping it in the mail, going to the post office to handle it in person or by going on-line and completing the form there. A change of address cannot occur when changing from a business address to a residential address. On campus housing would be considered a business address.

We cannot write on the envelope to forward a letter. Should a letter be received that needs to be forwarded, it must be re-enveloped and postage added as a new letter would be handled. Most mail received for students who have already left RTS will be stamped “return to sender” and returned to the Postman. Now, that should trigger the Post Office to forward that mail if the “change of address” form is in place with the Post Office. These instructions are given to each student who completes the “Forwarding of Mail” form.

Besides the Informer, the main location for campus-wide announcements, personal sale items, posters, etc. is on the bulletin board in the hallway across from the mailroom. Please check it frequently. If you would like to post something, you must have it approved by the mailroom supervisor.

Gymnasium (9) See p. 29 for rules and regulations. Brian Gault handles the Gym schedule.

Grace Chapel (6) is normally open for student prayer and meditation except when in use for special functions. Students are eligible to use the Chapel for their weddings, subject to regulations. A deposit of $250 of a $500.00 fee is required; all of it is refundable if the event is not held. A $500 deposit of a $1,000 fee is required for non-seminary parties. Patterson’s Porch and the White House area may be used for wedding receptions, at an additional fee of $500.00 for non-seminary parties. Regulations and details may be discussed with the Campus Events Coordinator.
The Annex is connected to the Chapel. It houses the Office of Financial Aid/Scholarships, the Chancellor's Library and study offices and the office for Child Evangelism Fellowship.

4. Projectors, computers, cables, and video cameras are not available to RTS staff, faculty, and students for personal use.
5. All chapel messages are recorded by the A-V department and posted on the website.

The Parking Area for students is limited to the main parking lot. Cars are to be parked only on designated paved areas. Parking or driving on the grass is not permitted.

The South Campus (12, 13, 14, 15) is located across the street from the main campus. It contains the Library, classrooms SC1, SC2, SC3, the Counseling Center, the Maintenance Warehouse, the Clothes Closet, and the offices of African Bible College.

If the due date falls on a holiday, the item(s) checked out will be due the first business day after the holiday. You must have your student ID with you to check out or renew library materials. You may renew library materials online by accessing the online catalog at web address: http://library.rts.edu and following the instructions. We do not renew books over the phone. RTS students can renew each item twice, unless it is needed to fulfill a class reserve reading. Once you have reached your renewal limit for an item, you must return it to the library to be re-shelved and made available for other students and library users. You may renew your items at the circulation desk at the library or online by going to “my library” account, http://rtsjeackson.org/library/myaccount
You will need your identification card and PIN number to access your account. Your default PIN number is the last four digits of your barcode number. To verify your PIN number, please call 601.923.1623.

2. It is the patron’s responsibility to return checked out material on time. An overdue notice will be emailed to the patron two days after the due date of the item(s).

3. The fine for an overdue item is .10 cents per day per item to a maximum of $10.00 for one overdue item. Sundays and the day the materials were due do not count toward the fine. Reserve books carry a $1.00 per hour late fine.

4. You are encouraged to replace a lost or damaged item with an identical item in good condition. For books, the replacement item must be free of any underlining or highlighting and have solid binding. If the lost or damaged book is replaced with a paperback copy, an additional $8.00 re-binding fee will apply. If the lost or damaged book is not replaced, the cost is equal to the normal retail price plus a $10.00 processing fee. If Amazon.com is used to determine the price, “New” copy pricing will be used to determine cost. If the book is out of print, the “like new” pricing will be used. Overdue fines are not added to the replacement cost.

The Clothes Closet.
Reformed Theological Seminary trains pastors, teachers, missionaries, counselors and other Christian servants in America and around the world. During a student's training it is often a financially trying time for the student and his family. One way local churches and individuals minister to RTS students is by donating clothing and household goods to the RTS Clothes Closet. These donations are available to current RTS students, employees and their families at no charge.
The Clothes Closet is located next door to the RTS Library. The store hours are Tuesday and Fridays 2:00 pm to 4:30 pm. Students are only permitted to shop during the regular store hours. Call 601.923.1649 to speak to the Clothes Closet manager. The store will be closed for holidays and other important events. If you would like to donate items to the Clothes Closet, please drop them off at the grey donation bin outside the store at any time or ask for assistance from a Clothes Closet worker DURING store hours. All clothing items must be in plastic bags to protect them from insects and humidity. Please do not overload the bags.

Clothes Closet Store Rules

Who is eligible to shop at the clothes closet?

- Current RTS students, faculty, and staff
- Immediate family (meaning one’s husband or wife, NOT extended family or friends)

Shopping rules:

1. Children must be accompanied by their parents.
2. Children are not permitted to take things without a parent being present.
3. Children are not permitted to play with breakable items in the store.
4. Parents are responsible for cleaning up any messes made by their children.
5. One may shop only during the posted Clothes Closet store hours. Please do not stop by during non-store hours unless you have an emergency.
6. Please do not go behind the counter at the front of the store.
7. Please DO NOT GO INTO THE BACK STOREROOM/SORTING ROOM FOR ANY REASON. This area is for Clothes Closet workers only. The items in the back storeroom/sorting room have not been sorted by the Clothes Closet workers. If you would like to use the bathroom or try on clothing, you must first ask a Clothes Closet worker. Children must be accompanied by a parent when entering the bathroom.
8. Please pick up after yourself and hang items back in their proper place if you decide you do not want them. Please do not take large amounts of clothing home to “try on” and then bring them back.
9. The Clothes Closet does not hold items. If you have a particular need, please contact the manager.
10. Clothes Closet items are NOT for resale, for example, at garage sales and consignment shops. Items are donated for RTS use only.
11. If there are plastic bags outside the front door or in the donation bin, please do not tear open the bags. We have found knives and razors mixed in with the clothing.
12. Right now there is no limit on the amount of clothing you may take. Please do not take more than you need and there will be enough for everyone.

Please remember: failure to abide by the store rules will result in loss of shopping privileges for you and your family for the rest of the semester.

Christmas Open House.

Each year, the Clothes Closet sponsors a Christmas Open House where items for Christmas gifting or celebrating are on display. This is usually held on a Saturday morning. Refreshments are served. Because some folks are “shopping” for their children, we ask that no children come to the open house.

Single Students Campus Housing Information

Description of Housing.
On campus single suite housing is available for single students. Each suite houses four students in separate bedrooms with a common kitchen, living, dining areas and two bathrooms. The bedrooms are furnished with a single bed, dresser, or chest of drawers. The larger bedroom is furnished with a desk or table, a chair and bookshelves. The occupant of the smaller bedroom receives a separate study. All apartments are centrally heated and cooled, carpeted, and have blinds on the windows. Dishes, silverware, and cooking utensils are not provided. Pets are not allowed. All utilities are included in the monthly rental.

Lease Information.
A security deposit of $405 is due with each application and a signed lease agreement is required upon arrival. Prorated security deposits are considered after the lease is terminated provided the apartment is left in an acceptable condition. (Lessees are responsible for damage to the property beyond normal wear.)

Please be respectful of your suite mates, cleaning up after yourself especially as it relates to common areas that you share. Roommates are expected to respect the privacy of others and to recognize that privacy extends to personal property. They share responsibility for the rest of the apartment including the kitchen, bathroom and other common rooms. RTS will charge each resident a cleaning fee at the end of the semester if it is not kept clean. The Office of Student Housing or the Facilities Maintenance and Buildings Department has the right to enter an apartment for inspection to ensure that the apartment is being properly maintained and that all safety measures are being adhered.

In anticipation of new students coming in, residents are not allowed to use unoccupied rooms as "bonus space" for their own possessions, nor are they allowed to have guests stay in the unoccupied rooms without permission from the Office of Housing. If you have any overnight guest coming to RTS, you need to notify the Housing Office prior to arrival. This would include anyone staying in your apartment or single suite. We will notify Security so that they are aware of the guest and their authorized visit. The White House is available for guests at the rate of $40.00 per night, based on availability. Requests are made through the Housing Office. Single Suite rental is $20.00 per night.
Tri-Annual Inspections.
Tri-Annual inspections are completed throughout the year for single apartments. The apartments will be checked for preventive maintenance and for cleanliness. An official inspection sheet will serve as a guideline for the inspections. If the standards for completing the inspection are not met, the director of housing will send a memo to your apartment stating what needs to be completed and a deadline for completion. If the standards are still not met after the deadline has expired, RTS will hire a cleaning service to complete the required work. The cost of hiring the cleaning service will be charged to the residents of the apartment.

Student Services and Privileges

Financial Protection

Medical insurance must be maintained by all full-time students. Full-time international (F-1 or non-resident) students are required to maintain insurance coverage for their families. If you have such coverage now, and it can be continued at reasonable rates, it is wise to keep it.

Household insurance is strongly recommended. “Tenants” policies are available through local insurance agents at very reasonable costs. Coverage for losses attributable to fire, theft, etc. are usually included in such policies. The seminary’s insurance does not cover the loss of student property. Further, RTS is not responsible for the loss of student property for any reason.

Life insurance is desirable, though not required. Seminarians are occupationally eligible for attractive rates from Covenant Life Insurance Company (formerly, The Presbyterian Ministers’ Fund) and Ministers’ Life and Casualty Union

Employment for Students and Spouses: Job opportunities are advertised on the website and in The Reformed Informer, the weekly campus newsletter, which is emailed to students every Friday. Contact the editor if you are not on the email list.

Car Liability: Liability Insurance is required by Mississippi State Law for all car owners and drivers. Automobile insurance can be obtained locally. Your present insurance agent can make a recommendation for you. For additional information about this, call 601.987.1287.

Financial Aid: To learn more about financial aid, visit: http://rts.edu/seminary/financialaid.aspx.

On Campus Student Work.
On Campus Student Work normally consists of 350 hours of work during an academic year (approximately 10 hours per week) doing such things as assisting a professor, or working in Admissions, the Library, the Bookstore, the Mail Room, or Patterson’s Porch. On Campus Student Work is contingent upon the availability of a job for which the student is qualified. The positions not filled by full-time students may be offered to part-time students or student spouses on a per semester basis. On Campus Student Work positions are handled by the Director of Operations. Please note that on campus student work is not a grant, but is a scholarship received in return for hours actually worked. Students are limited to a maximum of 960 work hours per year (June 1-May 31) and may not work more than 20 hours during any week of the year or more than 80 hours in any calendar month. Students are allowed to work more than one work study position but separate timesheets must be submitted for each position with the limit of not to exceed 80 hours per calendar month combined for all positions. Timesheets are submitted on the last day of the month. Earnings are paid monthly to students for hours worked, on or around the 10th of the month. New hire paper work and e-verification process must be completed before an On Campus Student Worker can begin working. Forms and processing is available with the Director of Operations.

Payment Plans.
Even when granted, financial aid is to be considered supplementary, rather than primary income. While the seminary will make every effort within its Scholarship Budget to assist needy students, those with accounts in arrears will not be allowed to register for additional courses until their... accounts have been brought up to date. Exceptions to this rule are handled on a case by case evaluation by the campus Director of Operations. Payment plans are available for spring and fall semesters. To set up a monthly payment plan, contact the Director of Operations at wrushing@rts.edu or 601-923-1652. You must request payment plans for each semester, spring and fall. There is no official payment plan for summer courses, but you can make smaller payments toward the tuition as long as it is paid in full on/before the end of summer classes.

Other Student Services

Make payments to your account online through your self-service account. If you do not want to pay online, go to the Student Accounts Office located in the Institutional Building during regular office hours, Monday through Friday, 8:00 to 5:00. Place your payment in an envelope available at the window. Be sure to fill out the envelope completely. The Student Accounts Office will answer questions about your account during regular hours. Contact number is 601-923-1717.

Just a small request and reminder of paying online with your credit card; Following order of priority:

1) Self-Service (if you have access).
2) If not, then our third-party student accounts payments page (you can skip the “Student Account Number” part if you forgot your number). To that end, we have a new, memorable short-link for this: http://rts.edu/pay
3) Finally, if all else fails, then payment over the phone with Student Accounts is available.

Copying Machines, available for student use in the Library at 5¢ per copy.

A Notary Public is available without charge in the Director of Operations Office. We also have a notary on the South campus for counseling students.

Student notices, such as items for sale, job opportunities, apartments for rent, or special needs, may be included. Articles are subject to staff approval and may be edited. To submit an article, email the editor. The deadline for submitting articles is Wednesday at Noon. Articles received after Noon will be printed the following week. Articles submitted without the name and telephone number of the person placing the article will not be printed. Articles may be printed a maximum of two times, then must be re-submitted for further publication. If you are not receiving the Informer, contact the admissions office. The Editor for 2017-2018 is Anna Kate Minyard. aminyard@rts.edu

A state-issued ID card can be obtained at the Mississippi Highway Patrol Office. For more information, call 601.987.1212.

3. Availability: The facilities are generally open Monday through Saturday but are closed on the Lord's Day and during chapel time each week. Gym facilities through the back entrance (around the north end) of the building can be accessed at any time with the code to the keypad (available in the Office of Admissions). 3. Extensions: If your hour has expired, and no one has the court reserved for the next hour, you may begin another session. If someone arrives within ten minutes, please vacate. Let courtesy rule.
4. Termination: Waiting players should knock on the door on the hour, and play should terminate. The game is awarded to the player with the higher score. Do not infringe on someone else's time to finish your game.
5. Lights: When exiting, turn the court lights off if it is apparent no one will be playing during the next hour. Caution: once turned off, a cool-down period of several minutes is required before the lights will come back on.
Specific Rules for the Weight Room

Computer Privileges

1. Student-users may use only those computers or facilities that have been authorized for their use by Computer Services or their department supervisor.
2. Student-users may use a computer only for the purpose for which permission has been granted. Seminary computers may not be used for commercial purposes without the permission of the President.
3. Student-users given a password for computer access are responsible for security of the password. A user’s password must never be given to another person. If user suspects another person knows his password, he must contact the Director of Computer Services immediately for a new one.
4. Student users must respect the intellectual labor and creativity of others. Since electronic information is easily reproduced, respect for the work of others is especially critical in computer environments. Violations of original works, including plagiarism, unauthorized access, and copyright violations, may be grounds for disciplinary action.
5. Student users must not access or copy volumes, libraries, directories, programs, files or data not belonging to them without authorization. For computer software and data owned by the seminary, authorization must come from the President.
6. Student users must not attempt to modify or allow others to modify the seminary’s computer hardware or software. Failure to adhere to this policy may be grounds for disciplinary action. In addition, the cost incurred to restore damaged hardware or software will be charged to the student.

7. Student users of seminary computers must have appropriate training before operation. Each department is responsible to ensure that student-users and workers are adequately trained. Questions from student-users and student workers should be directed to the department staff. Department staff should contact Computer Services only.

8. Student-users of seminary computers should report hardware or software problems to their department supervisor or department staff designated to receive such reports. That person should report problems to Computer Services.

9. A student-user that deliberately adds a computer virus to equipment owned by the seminary will be subject to disciplinary action. Users who suspect a computer has been infected by a virus or has been maliciously tampered with in any way should contact Computer Services immediately.

10. Computer Services, acting on behalf of the seminary, reserves the right to access all computer files on seminary computers.

11. Students may use computers designated for student use in labs or for public access. Students are not to use computers designated for administrative purposes unless authorized to do so by their department supervisor or Computer Services.

12. Administrative tasks have priority for any computer assigned to a department with administrative responsibilities.

13. Computer Services is not responsible for support of hardware or software not owned by the seminary.

Student Associations

Information concerning student organizations can be found in the seminary catalog and on the website. Specific information about meeting dates and programs will be emailed in the Informer, put in student mailboxes, or displayed on bulletin boards. Every student is urged to participate in these organizations.

The Student Cabinet.
The Student Cabinet provides leadership for student activities and represents the student body to the faculty. Serving for the 2017-2018 Academic year:

- Faculty Advisor - Charlie Wingard
- President - Alex Wright
- Vice President – Chandra Cane
- WIM President – Jennifer Jones
- AALI – Charles Williams
- Bookstore Manager – Matthew Poole
- Other Members:
  - Paul Sanduleac
  - Rueben Antvelink
  - Keren Nabors
  - Kelley Beth Prabhakar

If you have matters of concern related to seminary life, bring them to the Student Cabinet.
Student Conferences.
Students ordinarily sponsor two annual conferences. The Great Commission Society sponsors a Missions Conference during the fall semester, and the Student Cabinet sponsors a Spiritual Life Conference and/or retreats. Recommendations concerning dates, themes, and speakers for these conferences are presented to the faculty for approval through the Dean of Students.

The Great Commission Society.
The GCS seeks to bring about a balanced integration of spiritual growth, evangelism, and missions in the lives of men and women training for ministry. It seeks to inculcate in students, faculty, and staff hearts that burn for foreign missions by a realization of the depth of God's love for the lost . . . and for themselves! GCS sponsors an annual Missions Conference during the fall semester, monthly meetings during the academic year, and occasional seminars, prayer meetings, chapel services, and other activities. GCS programs are handled by a cabinet, with a president elected from the student body. For more information on the Great Commission Society, contact Sergio Cardoso.

The Senior Banquet.
The banquet is planned by the Student Fellowship, is held before commencement each spring in honor of graduating seniors. While students, their spouses, staff, faculty, and other invited guests are paid for by the seminary, other family members are encouraged to attend and pay a minimal fee for the meal.

International Students
RTS is blessed in having a number of International Students on our campus. The International Student Fellowship’s faculty representative and the International Student Assistant are available to address international Student needs. International Student wives are encouraged to participate in the Women in Ministry program. The Director of Student Housing can assist in housing needs and help to make your new home an easier transition.

International Student Employment Information:

On Campus Student Work for international students is only available to students holding a F-1 visa. Under U.S. law, spouses of international students (usually holding an F-2 visa) are not permitted to work in the U.S. unless they too have a F-1 visa. Full-time international (F-1 or non-resident) students who receive any form of financial aid or on campus student employment from the seminary are required to maintain insurance for their families.

As an F-1 student, international students are not permitted to work off-campus or to engage in business without specific employment authorization. F-1 students may work on campus up to 20 hours a week while school is in session. Such employment may be increased during vacation periods (Fall, Christmas, Spring, and Summer breaks) so long as it stays within RTS policy. Employment means the rendering of services for compensations, financial, or otherwise, including self-employment. If international students receive food, clothes, money, etc. in exchange for work, skills, or expertise, the students are considered by INS to be working. After the student’s first year in F-1 student status, they may apply for employment authorization on Form I-538 based on financial needs arising after receiving student status, or the need to obtain practical training.

Working illegally is one of the most serious violations of immigration law. Not only could it jeopardize the student and force them to return home, but it could cause RTS to lose the privilege of bringing any international students to all RTS campuses.

Women's Ministry

All women in our seminary community are offered a variety of special growth opportunities, fellowship activities, and community ministries.

Women In Ministry.
The purpose of the Women In Ministry program is to provide a course of training that will help prepare women for life in the ministry, to promote joy and confidence in their callings to serve Christ for the furtherance and strengthening of his kingdom, and to promote fellowship among all women on campus, single as well as married. Women In Ministry is led jointly by a team composed of faculty wives and elected student wives/students. This team leads a program of fellowship, prayer, and teaching every Thursday night of the month while school is in session. Teaching is provided by faculty members, faculty wives, and outside speakers. Student testimonies and music are also part of the program. Small groups give the women the opportunity to get to know and pray with one another. The 2017-2018 cabinet for Women In Ministry:

- Faculty Advisor: Denise Richardson
- President: Jennifer Jones
- Vice-President: Carla Robinson
- Secretary: Claire Strebeck
- Treasurer: Maryjane Lueck
- Nursery Coordinator: Rebekah Bert
- Small Group Coordinator: Hannah Wang
- First Friends (Campus Housing): Anaite Groendyk
- First Friends (Townhouses): Liz Johnson
- Events Coordinator: Rebecca Pinckard

The Women's Retreat.
This is an annual event for all the women of the seminary community (students, wives, staff, and faculty) designed to provide fellowship, inspiration, unity, and training. The event is held at a nearby retreat facility and a guest speaker highlights the weekend. The nominal fee includes lodging and meals.

RTS Courses.
Spouses of current full-time, non-MFT students who demonstrate financial need may receive a 100% tuition grant to take courses for credit. However, spouses of current full-time, MFT students who demonstrate financial need may receive a 50% tuition grant to take courses for credit. All spouses may audit courses without charge, provided there is room in the class and they have registered with the Registrar. These courses not only provide opportunity for spiritual growth, but help spouses get acquainted with professors and others in the seminary community.

Recreation.
The Student Center and the gym and weight room in the Dean Center are available to women and can be reserved for special events. Occasional recreational events and activities for women are also planned. Women are encouraged to take advantage of these facilities. Check with admissions office to reserve use of the gym or weight room.

ACADEMIC LIFE

You may have come to RTS with a clear sense of your calling to ministry. Then again, you may have little sense of the kind of ministry for which the Lord is preparing you. Whatever your state of mind and heart, the seminary’s goal is to provide an opportunity for self-evaluation and analysis before you commit yourself to a career.

Several courses of study have been developed to meet a wide range of student needs for basic and advanced preparation for Christian ministry. The catalog is designed to acquaint you with the different degree programs and their requirements.

Class Information

Scheduling.
Be sure to consult the curriculum grid as it is presented in the catalog and schedule class accordingly. The Registrar can assist with class and degree planning. In keeping with the Clinton Public School system, RTS is closed for inclement weather whenever CPS are closed.

Class attendance.
You are responsible to attend class, even when term papers or exams are pending, or your work schedule conflicts. You should obtain the professor’s permission if you must be absent from class, particularly one week extensions.

Pedagogy.
Adjust yourself to each professor's teaching method. Part of your education consists of learning how to learn. Decide what kind of notes you need for each class to master the material. Most courses have a syllabus. All classes, however, have an aim. Find out what it is, and adjust your studies to meet that goal.

Tests/exams.
Test are developed and administered according to each professor's requirements. Most professors indicate their exam schedule at the beginning of the semester, but this does not preclude unscheduled exams. Ask your professor what his policy is and the kind of response he expects on his examination. Be prepared!
Extensions.
Incomplete and late assignments after the course ends without approved extension requests may result in failure of the course. Students should apply for an extension through the Registrar’s Office prior to the last day of the term. Extensions are only granted for significant emergencies or unforeseen circumstances.

- Students are required to state the reason for the extension on the form.
- Permission is obtained from both the professor and the academic dean.
- All work must be completed by the deadline given by the professor and academic dean.

Extended absence.
Absence of more than a week requires permission of the Academic Dean and is never granted without a written request. If you need special consideration in any course, consult the professor involved.

Grades.
Grades are posted on RTS Canvas (https://rts.instructure.com) as they become available. Papers and tests may be returned to you — usually through the student mail boxes. For information about the RTS Grading Scale and Academic Probation, please see the RTS Catalog.

Re-taking a course.
Students may retake a failed course. The student must pay for the course again and all grades will be recorded on the transcript, including failures.

Study.
Study, or lack thereof, is the primary reason for success or failure in any course. Students are expected to spend at least two hours of study for each hour of class. Self-discipline is indispensable. Do not procrastinate. Get into a good study routine as quickly as possible. Take full advantage of our library resources. Schedule your work with your own deadlines well in advance of due dates. Then, work your schedule. When you do, you are most fully able to enjoy the academic, communal, and recreational aspects of your seminary experience.

Confusion.
Students often express feeling bewildered by new terminology and overwhelmed by the mass of new information. Do not hesitate to ask questions, when you do not understand what a professor is talking about. The only really dumb question is the one that is not asked. Persevere in your studies, seek faculty help if necessary, and you will master the material.

Books.
Books are both tools and temptations for seminarians. Get good advice before you buy. Most professors provide bibliographies of recommended works. Use the seminary Library to acquaint yourself with other authors. Then buy books that will have lasting value for you. You will probably want to keep your textbooks for future reference. Check your whole library from time to time to identify weak areas. The bookstore carries textbooks and recommended reading. Prices will beat or at least compete with Amazon. Textbooks are sales tax free when purchased at the bookstore.

Lack of payment.
Non-payment for tuition will result in a “Stop” being placed on your student account. This prohibits the student from viewing grades and/or registering for classes. All fees and balances must be cleared before the next semester begins. An official transcript will be unavailable until all balances and fees are paid. You are not allowed to charge bookstore purchases to your student account unless you have a credit balance.
Payment Plans

Payment Plans are available for Fall and Spring semesters. This takes your tuition balance and breaks it down into three installments. There is a 1% finance fee on the outstanding balance at the end of each month. A “stop” remains on your account until the balance is paid in full. You cannot receive credit for the coursework or a grade until your tuition is paid in full. Payment plan agreement forms are available with the Director of Operations office in the Administration building. You need to apply each applicable semester. There is not an official payment plan for summer courses but it is acceptable to make smaller payments toward your balance as long as the balance is paid in full before the end of classes. Finance fees apply. You cannot register for any new semester as long as you have an outstanding balance.

Extraordinary Academic Requests.
EAR for Jackson students, such as directed studies, must be initiated with the Professor and approved by the Academic Dean and Registrar at the beginning of the semester. Please see the Registrar for appropriate forms.

Transcripts.
Official transcripts must be requested in writing with a check for $10 payable to RTS. Transcript request forms can be printed from the website (www.rts.edu). An unofficial student transcript may be obtained from the Registrar at no charge.

Special Fall and Spring Lecture Series.
Several conferences are offered each year. These include but are not limited to a Missions Conference, a Biblical Theological Conference, and the John Reed Miller Lecture Series. Classes are canceled during the lectures and all students are encouraged to attend.

Drop/Add.
Students may drop/add courses via Self-Serve until the drop or add deadline. After the term begins, there is a fee for each course dropped or added. Thus, it is recommended that you finalize your schedule before the first day of the term. Tuition is usually not refunded for courses dropped after the deadline. See appropriate term schedule for important academic dates. See the most recent Schedule of Fees for the current drop/add fee.

Recording of Courses by Students.
The video recording of RTS courses by students is prohibited. Audio recording of classes by students is only allowed with the instructor’s permission and if the taped material is to be used solely for personal study and spiritual edification and is not distributed privately or publicly in any manner.
Privacy of Student Records

RTS maintains the security and confidentiality of student educational records. All student records are kept in locked rooms and in locked file cabinets. In addition, all transcript information for current degree-seeking students is digitally "backed-up" at an off-site location.

Since RTS does not accept Title IV student loan monies, RTS is not bound by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). However, RTS' confidentiality policies are generally consistent with FERPA. RTS policies are as follows:

A student may inspect and review his/her academic file and transcript after a written request has been made to the Registrar's office. The Registrar will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. The Registrar will be present during this inspection and review.

If a student believes his/her academic file and/or transcript are inaccurate or misleading, the student may request to amend the file and/or transcript. The student should write the Registrar, identifying the discrepancy. If RTS decides not to amend, the student may use the appeal process outlined elsewhere in this Handbook.

RTS will not disclose, without the student's consent, personally identifiable information found in the student's academic file or transcript, excepting legitimate educational interests and directory information.

Directory information includes, but is not limited to, name, address, telephone number, email, date and place of birth, spouse's name, home state, previous schools attended, denomination and presbytery affiliation, grade level, dates of attendance, photo and photo of spouse, degree program, enrollment type (full-time, part-time), and degrees with date of graduation.

Plagiarism

Research papers require borrowing other people's ideas and words. However, the source of such borrowing must be acknowledged properly so that your ideas are clearly distinguished from ideas that you borrowed. If the source is not acknowledged properly, your work is plagiarism. For an excellent summary on what constitutes plagiarism, see Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (rev. by Wayne C. Booth, etc.; 7th ed.; Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2007), pp. 77-80 (section 7.9).

Plagiarism includes word-for-word copying, lifting terms, restatement of someone's argument or line of thought, etc. – all without acknowledgment of source. Plagiarism also includes giving a source partial credit when more is taken from that source than indicated.

Plagiarism, whether intentional or unintentional, is very serious. All plagiarism cases are referred to the Academic Dean for resolution. Consequences may include some of the following:

- repeat the assignment and receive a maximum of a D on the assignment
- receive an F on the assignment
- receive an F in the course
- expulsion from the seminary
English Bible Exam
MA and MDIV students at RTS Jackson must take the English Bible Exam (EBE). Each student must pass the EBE in order to graduate (a grade of “C”/80% is needed to pass). The best method for preparing for the EBE is for the student to familiarize himself with:

- the broad flow of biblical history,
- the main themes and historical setting of the books of the Bible
- the location (book and chapter) of significant biblical events, and verses.
- the life and historical circumstances of significant biblical characters.

WCF Shorter Catechism
The Westminster Confession of Faith’s Shorter Catechism is to be memorized as a part the M.Div. requirements. You may memorize the Catechism in Old English or Modern English. The catechism exam is taken in two parts as follows: Part I covers questions 1-53 and Part II covers questions 54-107.

The English Bible Exam and Westminster Shorter Catechism can only be taken on three days during the year: the Friday before Summer Greek, the Friday before Fall semester, and the Friday before Spring semester. See the Registrar for more details and testing.

Graduation Requirements
RTS only has one graduation ceremony and it is held in May. However, students may graduate in either December or May (The Registrar’s office is authorized to issue diplomas in August only for graduates in the Marriage and Family Therapy & Counseling degree program. This is the ONLY exception). The procedure and requirements for graduation are detailed below.

- Students intending to graduate during our regular May graduation must make application for graduation during their final fall semester. This application can be made with the registrar. Please note that a 2.0 average is required in order to graduate. A graduation fee of $200 is required whether you participate in the actual ceremony or not.
- The student should set up an appointment with the registrar to “audit” the student academic record, confirming all course work is in process.
- Program specific graduation requirements:
  - MDIV students must pass the Westminster Shorter Catechism Exam.
  - MDIV and MA students must pass English Bible Exam.
  - WSC and EBE exams are only offered on the Friday before Summer Greek, the Friday before Fall semester, and the Friday before Spring semester.

Student Field Education and Preaching Opportunities
M.Div. Students
Supervised field education is a requirement of the M.Div. program. Details are published in the catalog. The Director of Field Education will assist those seeking placement.
Counseling Students
A counseling clinic is operated on campus for the training of students in the Marriage and Family Therapy program. Supervised clinical practice is provided which meets requirements of the MAMFTC accreditation. The MAMFTC degree requires 500 hours of face-to-face client work. See the catalog for further details.

Remuneration
Students should regard preaching and other field education assignments as opportunities to serve the Lord and the church and to develop skills for ministry. They should not regard them as a primary means of financing their education. Financial remuneration should be incidental to, not the objective of, field education. Students may occasionally be asked to take non-remunerative assignments (at nursing homes, for example).

Field Education.

- Requirement: The M.Div. program requires 400 hours of registered Field Education in order to graduate.
- Registration: In order for any Field Education to be counted towards the Field Education requirement, you must gain approval from and register with the Field Education Director prior to beginning the experience. No hours completed prior to this registration can be counted toward the Field Education requirement.
- Student Pastorates: Students may hold student pastorates in accordance with the ecclesiastical policies of the churches concerned and the field education policies of the seminary. Arrangements for student pastorates are negotiated directly with the individual church and the ecclesiastical body having jurisdiction over it (e.g. the presbytery, association, or conference). Student pastors must furnish the Field Education Office with written authorization for their pastoral relationships from the responsible ecclesiastical bodies.

Preaching Opportunities.

- Not Field Education: Preaching opportunities do not meet the Field Education requirement but are invaluable in developing ministerial skills and are highly encouraged.
- Eligibility: Students interested in preaching on the RTS Jackson circuit must complete (a) the Field Educations Office’s circuit orientation, (b) Introduction to Pastoral and Theological Studies, and (c) Introduction to Preaching. Students must also obtain the approval of the Director of Field Education.
- Assignments: Students who desire a preaching assignment must notify the Field Education Office. Assignments, however, cannot be guaranteed. Opportunities are offered to students each week as they become available.
- Meals: If the student has a large family, he should use discretion about signing up for meals at the church following a preaching occasion. Many churches do not offer a meal for the visiting preacher following the service, even though the church may be some distance from Jackson.
COMMUNITY LIFE

Belonging to the RTS family means you are part of the larger community of Jackson and its suburbs. Get to know the community. Cultivate your contacts as a witness for Christ. In the broader community, you are first a Christian and secondarily a seminarian. We hope the following information helps you settle into the larger community.

For additional information please see the Community Life Reference Guide, which is available in the Office of Admissions and Student Life.

COMMUNITY TIDBITS:

Students who obtain a Mississippi driver's license must also get a Mississippi tag.
