IMPORTANT! STUDENTS TAKE NOTE!

All competency and/or exit exams (i.e., Greek & Hebrew proficiency exams, Westminster Shorter Catechism (Parts I and II) and the English Bible exam) will now be scheduled only three times each year. The three times these exams are conducted are:

The Friday before Summer Greek
The Friday before the start of Fall semester
The Friday before the start of Spring semester

[Please check the academic calendar concerning dates for the current year]

The Westminster Shorter Catechism and English Bible exams are required for graduation. Master of Arts students are required to take only the English Bible exam. Master of Divinity students must take both parts of the Westminster Shorter Catechism AND the English Bible exam.
