Introduction to Missions 2MS518 (Fall 2016)

I. Purpose
This course is designed to give you an introductory overview of the world missionary enterprise. The emphasis will be on equipping you to become a leader in world missions by developing perspectives that inspire and motivate you to action on behalf of world missions. We will study biblical, historical, strategic, and cultural perspectives relative to world missions.

Warning: Due to the workload and the outreach nature of both the Introduction to Missions course (2MS518) and the Introduction to Evangelism course (2MS508), students are strongly encouraged not to take these two courses during the same Fall semester. There is a reason why these courses are listed in the RTS catalog during different semesters. Many students from the last 22 years will testify to the legitimacy of this admonition.

II. Objectives

A Mind for Truth: Transforming Your Understanding
• To understand and articulate a biblical theology of world missions.
• To understand the priority of world missions in Christian life and ministry.
• To understand the biblical nature and mission of the Church, especially as it relates to starting, growing and reproducing churches as a vital part of the mission of God.
• To understand the biblical, theological, historical, and cultural roots from which contemporary missions have developed.
• To be aware of the varied models and structures used today for the advancement of cross-cultural evangelism.
• To be acquainted with the literature relating to the world missionary enterprise and to think through how it can be used in your life and ministry.
• To understand critical issues and trends in contemporary missions.

A Heart for God: Transforming Your Affections
• To be a World Christian and have a broken heart for the lost, especially for the unreached people groups (nations), the poor, and the persecuted of the world.
• To develop a life-long commitment to pray for missionaries and for the lost.
• To be motivated to take personal action—giving time, talents and treasures, sacrificially and joyfully—toward the advancement of the cause of world missions.

A Life for Ministry: Transforming Your Behavior
• To lay a strong foundation for further study and personal involvement in cross-cultural missions, especially for those planning to become cross-cultural missionaries.
• To lay a strong foundation for understanding, guiding, and promoting missions from a local base, especially for those planning to assume leadership roles in a local church.
• To obtain a set of criteria for evaluating modern missions programs, issues, trends, proposals, and organizations.
III. Format
The course will include 13 three-hour classroom sessions (9:00am-12:00pm) beginning Tuesday, September 6, 2016, and ending Tuesday, December 6, 2016. Classroom sessions will include lecture (including guest lecturers), learning exercises, student presentations and reports, video presentations, self-study exercises, and small group interaction. Individual and small group work sessions will be conducted during the class time.

Blended Learning: This course will integrate hybrid-blended adult education (Andrology) learning principles and methods. This will include a blending of classroom and web-based learning, leveraging the strengths of each (e.g. a flipped classroom). Course content will be learned using web-based platforms (including interactive videos of the professor’s lectures, online student exercises, discussion forums, etc.) so that classroom time can be used more for professor-student interaction, discussion, and practical application of the course concepts to the student’s personal life and ministry. There will be 12 online lessons taken by the students during these 13 weeks, with lesson 1 being due on week 2, lesson 2 being due on week 3, etc. See pages 9-10 below for all online lesson numbers and deadline dates.

Required Use of Social Media and Applications: Because of the nature of this course, students are required to own (or have access to) a laptop computer (not merely a tablet, e.g. iPad) in order to work on assignments during and after class meetings. Students must be familiar with: 1) using the internet (email, browsing, forum-posting, searching, downloading, uploading, etc.), 2) using Microsoft Word (or Pages), Microsoft PowerPoint (or Keynote), and converting files to PDF (Adobe) documents for uploading weekly assignments. Students may only use tablets if they can prove (to the TA) the tablet does not limit their ability to complete all assignments.

Office Hours: You can schedule an appointment with Dr. Childers through his administrative assistant, Joyce Sisler, at 407-278-4552 or jsisler@rts.edu. Appointments are normally scheduled on Tuesdays from 4:15pm-5:30pm and Thursdays from 4:15pm-5:30pm. Additional times may be arranged by contacting Joyce. Your teaching assistant is Christopher Simmons (Christopher@PathwayLearning.org) Please contact Christopher first for all issues regarding the course. He will refer you to Dr. Childers if necessary.

V. Requirements

A. Attendance & Class Participation In Class and Online (10%)

This course requires attendance and participation during all in class and online sessions. In-class learning activities will be based on the assumption that you have completed all your assigned online lessons and readings by the required dates. Weekly classes (called Cohort Meetings) will begin promptly at 9:00am*. Tardiness, unexcused absence and lack of class participation will impact your final grade. This course also requires active weekly participation in the Online Class Forums and the Online Class Learning Community e.g. Twitter, Facebook, Blog replies, etc. See page 8 below for more information and links.

*Students are expected to arrive in class at least 5-10 minutes before 2:00pm in order to have the necessary time to set up their laptop computers, etc. and be ready to begin the class at 2:00pm sharp—so as not to be a distraction to other students after class has begun.

This assignment may be graded periodically as part of the weekly online assessments (quizzes).

IMPORTANT: These 3 reading required reading reports above (Goheen, Tucker, and Ott) will be uploaded as part of your weekly online lessons (instructions online). To maximize the weekly class learning experience, you are expected to read the assigned weekly readings in: 1) Ott’s Encountering Theology of Mission (ETM) and 2) Crossman’s Pathways to Global Understanding before attending class each week (see Section VII: Course Assignment Due Dates).

C. Thirty Days of Prayer for the Nations (10%)

You are required to pray for 30 consecutive days for the Unreached People Groups of the world before week 13, December 6, using one of the prayer resources below:

You are required to upload this report as part of your weekly online lesson by midnight, week 13, Dec 6.

NOTE: Students are strongly encouraged to fulfill this assignment by praying with others (friends, family, classmates, etc.), rather than merely praying alone.

See Section VII: Course Assignment Due Dates below for the due dates. Access to the online lesson automatically closes at midnight). No assignments will be received after December 6.

Late Assignment Policy

Please do not ask the teaching assistant or the professor for permission to turn in an assignment late. If the weekly online lesson is closed, all late assignments must be emailed as an attachment to the Teaching Assistant when completed. Late assignments will be penalized a certain percentage according to the number of days the assignment is late. If you have truly been providentially hindered from completing an assignment on time (such as a death in the immediate family) include in your email an explanation of your situation asking for a waiver of the late penalty. A group of 3 RTS students will determine if there will be a penalty.

B. Missions Course Grading Percentages

1) Attendance and Participation In-Class and Online (10%)
2) Reading Assignments and Reports (20%)
3) Mission Prayer Reflection (10%)
4) Weekly Online Lesson Steps (60%)

C. Participating in an Online Learning Community

Students are required to use social media (e.g. Twitter, Facebook, Blog, YouTube) as a means of establishing an online peer-learning community that will transcend this course. Examples include tweeting key quotes from the lectures, discussions, and readings, and writing responses to posts on Facebook, a blog page, and a YouTube video page. Online learning participation will be part of the student’s participation grade (10%).

An Opportunity to Impact Students, the Church, and the World: Excerpts from exemplary student work (including weekly lesson summaries, discussion forum entries, etc.) submitted in the online weekly lessons will also be periodically published on these social media platforms as a means of sharing the student’s insights with the broader church body and world. Thousands of people around the world read these social media platforms weekly. This is an opportunity for students to share the concepts they’re learning with each other, the church, and the world.

Missions (2MS518)
Dr. Childers

Overview—Give a brief overview of the book, including its theme, perspective and approach.

Piper seeks to present a case for God-centered passionate commitment from God’s people to the global mission of bringing the gospel to the lost. He divides the book into three sections. In the first section he challenges us to see the supremacy of God in global missions in regards to the ultimate purpose of missions (worship), the power of missions (prayer) and the price of missions (suffering). In the second section Piper discusses the necessity and nature of the task of missions, addressing the Scriptures testimony to the need of Christ-centered saving faith for salvation, and clarifying the Scripture’s call to bring the gospel to every nation and people-group. In the final section, Piper calls his readers to a love for men’s souls through the writings of Jonathan Edwards.

Critique—Offer a brief critique of the book, including elements of strength and weakness.

Generally I liked the book. I do, however, think that Piper is such a passionate, zealous preacher that he sometimes is prone to hyperbole. I found myself wondering if some balance to his view of missions and missionaries may be in order. His examples always seem to be some superhero missionary who endures prison or death or some other amazing feat. He doesn’t discuss the humdrum life of many missionaries, or their doubts and struggles, not even of the some of the big name examples he lists. Exalting missionaries as super-Christians can, I think, discourage both the average believer and the missionaries themselves.

Application—Offer some specific application to your own ministry— demonstrating the value and relevance of the material in this book.

I think the section on prayer was the most challenging. As a typical American Christian, prayer is one of my weak points. I’m so geared to do things and not to depend on God to work. But God is calling me to trust him, not myself. Prayer is a deep expression of that, and I hope to have a deeper recognition of that in my prayer life.

Best Quote—Be sure to include the page number where the quote can be found.

Missions is not the ultimate goal of the church. Worship is. Missions exists because worship doesn’t. Worship is ultimate, not missions, because God is ultimate, not man... worship abides forever. (35)
