A mind for truth. A heart for God.
FOUNDING

In June 1963, five ministers met in a Memphis hotel room to pray about the need to establish a new seminary. At that time, no seminary in the southeastern United States was committed both to Reformed theology and to the Bible as God’s inerrant Word, the final authority for faith and life. When the meeting ended, the seed that would become Reformed Theological Seminary had been planted.

In the fall of 1966, RTS opened its doors for resident studies in Jackson, Mississippi. On September 6, Dr. C. Darby Fulton, former executive secretary of the Board of World Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, delivered an address entitled “The Relevancy of the Gospel” at the first convocation.

After operating for more than twenty years in Jackson, it became apparent that opportunities for theological education were nowhere more evident than in Orlando, Florida. In the fall of 1989, Reformed Theological Seminary opened the Orlando campus, the first Protestant seminary in Florida accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. A third campus was begun in Charlotte, North Carolina, in the fall of 1992. In 1993, RTS began offering courses in the greater Washington, D.C. area. In 1996, an extension was begun in the Atlanta area. In 1999, RTS began offering courses through the Virtual Campus. Currently, RTS is offering classes in Boca Raton, Florida and is in the process of seeking accreditation.

DISTINCTIVE FEATURES

RTS was established to provide serious, realistic training for ministry so that people would be won to Christ and built up in the faith, resulting in healthy, growing churches and a perceptive application of the Bible to all facets of life.

Since the Bible is the Word of God, it is the basis for the total curriculum. Students are equipped with the necessary skills to understand and teach the Scriptures, developing above all a burning desire to know and do the will of God as revealed in the Old and New Testaments, for the essence of Reformed theology is a willingness constantly to conform all of life to the Word of God.

The seminary recognizes that there are evangelical and Reformed brothers and sisters in Christ within various denominations and Christian organizations who hold views concerning doctrine, missions, and evangelism different from its own distinctives. While committed to fulfilling its purpose and distinctives in these areas, the seminary resolves to maintain openness to and appreciation for Christians in differing denominations and organizations in a loving spirit, thus contributing to the purity and the unity of the Christian community and witness.

Reformed Theological Seminary is free from denominational control. All who are associated with it, however, are individually under the jurisdiction of the various church courts of the denominations of which they are members.

To ensure that the original purpose and doctrinal distinctives of the seminary are maintained, each member of the board of trustees, faculty, and ministerial advisors is required initially and annually to subscribe to the following Statement of Belief and Covenant as set forth in the seminary’s bylaws:

Believing that there is but one only, the living and true God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; and that these three are one and the same in substance, equal in power and glory, and with solemn awareness of accountability to Him in all that we feel, think, say and do, the undersigned engages in and subscribes to this declaration:

1. All Scripture is self-attesting and, being truth, requires the human mind wholeheartedly to subject itself in all its activities to the authority of Scripture complete as the Word of God, standing written in the sixty-six books of the Holy Bible, all therein being verbally inspired by Almighty God and therefore without error.
2. Reformed theology as set forth in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms as accepted by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as its standard of doctrine at its first General Assembly in 1789 is the system of doctrine taught in Scripture; and, therefore, it is to be learned, taught and proclaimed for the edification and government of Christian people, for the propagation of the faith and for the evangelization of the world by the power of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

3. And I do solemnly promise and engage not to inculcate, sanction, teach or insinuate anything that appears to me to contradict or contravene, either directly or implicitly, any element of that system of doctrine.

4. NOW THEREFORE, the undersigned in the presence of God, states and signifies that he consents, agrees, and binds himself to all of the foregoing without any reservation whatsoever, and that he further obligates himself immediately to notify in writing the trustees should a change of any kind take place in his belief and feeling not in accord with this statement. Amen.

ACCREDITATION

Reformed Theological Seminary is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada. Reformed Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097: Telephone number 404-679-4501) to award the MAR, MACE, MAMiss, MA/MFTC, MAC, MATS, MABS, MACT, M.Div., Th.M., D.Min. and Ph.D.

The Marriage and Family Therapy program at Reformed Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.

PURPOSE

The purpose of Reformed Theological Seminary is to serve the church in all branches of evangelical Christianity, especially the Presbyterian and Reformed family, by training its leaders, with a priority on pastors and including missionaries, educators, counselors, and others, through a program of theological education on the graduate level, based upon the authority of the inerrant Word of God, the sixty-six books of the Bible, and committed to the Reformed Faith as set forth in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms as accepted by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as its standard of doctrine at its First General Assembly in 1789. This program shall be characterized by biblical fidelity, confessional integrity, and academic excellence and committed to the promotion of the spiritual growth of the students. The breadth of this ministry will include multiple campuses and extensions as led by the Lord.

RTS VISION STATEMENT

Reformed Theological Seminary exists to glorify the Triune God and to serve His Church by providing excellent, globally accessible graduate theological education and pastoral training in the Reformed tradition, and by equipping its students for servant leadership that is marked by “A mind for truth. A heart for God.”

LOCATIONS

RTS is a multi-campus seminary, committed to making a variety of theological and biblical study and ministry preparation programs available to you through the most accessible and flexible ways possible. We currently offer degrees at the following campus locations and hope to establish in the future additional residence and distance programs at new locations to help you earn your degree.
Jackson, Mississippi

The original campus of RTS is located in a residential section of Jackson, the state capital of Mississippi. You will enjoy many advantages in Jackson that often are found only in larger cities. With a metropolitan area population of nearly 425,000, Jackson’s cultural resources are bolstered by many opportunities for higher education. Close by are Belhaven College, Millsaps College, Mississippi College, Tougaloo College, Jackson State University, and the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

Jackson has much to offer culturally with its beautiful Arts Center and the Mississippi Symphony Orchestra, Mississippi Opera, Davis Planetarium, and Zoological Park. Resident theater, symphony, and ballet companies provide fine quality entertainment. The city’s football stadium, coliseum, and baseball park are sites of major sporting events.

Shopping centers, restaurants, and recreation facilities abound. Nearby national parks and recreational areas such as the Ross Barnett Reservoir provide boating, water skiing, and fishing for your leisure enjoyment. Gulf coast beaches, the city of New Orleans, and the city of Memphis are only a three-hour drive from Jackson.

Orlando, Florida

Centrally located within the nation’s fourth largest state, the Orlando campus is within a two-hour drive for over eight million people. Orlando’s cosmopolitan character, family orientation, and unparalleled growth make it a stimulating environment rich with opportunities.

Each year, 1.5 million full-time residents and more than 40 million visitors enjoy the diverse activities offered in the Orlando area. Nearby beaches, lakes, and state and national parks provide boating, water skiing, camping, and fishing for leisure enjoyment. World-class attractions include Sea World, MGM Studios, Universal Studios, Epcot Center, Disney’s Animal Kingdom, and the Magic Kingdom at Walt Disney World. The Orlando Science Center, the Southern Ballet Company and the Orlando Opera create a rich cultural environment.

Educational opportunities abound, with many of the state’s top public, private, and Christian schools located here. This booming population center creates available employment in a wide variety of fields. With a number of advantages found only in larger cities, Orlando is a unique place to live and study.

Charlotte, North Carolina

The “Queen City,” Charlotte, North Carolina, provides an ideal setting for this campus of Reformed Theological Seminary. Charlotte is a city of churches. It enjoys an unparalleled heritage of Christian life and community and is the center of Reformed heritage for the Southern U.S.

A number of mission organizations have their headquarters in Charlotte, including SIM, JAARS (SIL/Wycliffe), and the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association. Today, more than three thousand churches minister to an ever-expanding population of God’s people within an hour’s drive of Charlotte. The rich diversity of area churches and mission organizations provides vital opportunities for seminarians seeking practical experience.

The city of Charlotte is just two hours from the mountains and three and one-half hours from the beach. Strategically located on the border between North and South Carolina, the Charlotte metro area holds over 1.5 million people and is the hub of commerce for the Piedmont region. It is recognized among the top ten places to live in the U.S. and is the nation’s second largest banking center. Home to professional sports, Fortune 500 companies, and academic and research institutions, Charlotte still holds proudly to its small-town flavor.

Washington/Baltimore

One of the most important centers of influence in the world, metro Washington, D.C., offers to students enrolled in Reformed Theological Seminary’s Master of Arts in Religion degree program unparalleled opportunities for cultural, social, and political engagement. Students employed in government, commerce, and other endeavors can pursue the Master of Arts in Religion without relocating. Participation in the vibrant intellectual and cultural climate of the capital city of the United States is readily available to those who study at this campus.

Atlanta, Georgia

Rooted in history and stretching toward the future, the region’s 4.2 million residents make Atlanta the undisputed capital of today’s South.

Atlanta is the home of great families, churches, universities, and major corporations—and of a thriving extension campus of Reformed Theological Seminary! The lovely Buckhead setting of RTS/Atlanta in the Church of the Apostles, affords a convenient and central location for most of our classes. Our highly regarded courses are presented also in other prominent locations throughout the area.

The Atlanta extension of RTS is ideal for students who insist on relevant, accredited courses that are rooted in the Word of God. With many of our courses offered on nights and weekends, students join others whose work schedules necessitate a flexible approach to graduate theological education. The Atlanta extension offers a wide range of courses and received ATS accreditation in 2003 to offer the Master of Arts in Religion.

Boca Raton, Florida

Through a unique church-based training program, students have the opportunity to experience excellent theological, biblical, and historical studies with RTS resident faculty, in tandem with church planting and leadership training provided by successful church leaders. Students learn by participating in both classroom instruction and church ministry experiences in each semester of their program.

Varieties of courses are taught throughout the year by resident faculty from the various RTS campuses, as well as by area adjunct faculty and other visiting scholars. Courses taken at the Boca Raton extension can be applied toward master’s degree programs at RTS, including Master of Arts and Master of Divinity degrees.

Virtual Campus, Distance Education

The RTS/Virtual Campus is more a mode of communication than a physical presence. Millions of people now do business, see entertainment, and gain instruction through the Web. RTS/Virtual provides the local church with the opportunity for graduate-level theological education, including the Master of Arts in Religion, of which ninety percent may be obtained by distance.

Course delivery methods include audio tape and web-based learning. Both asynchronous and synchronous learning opportunities are available. Instruction includes local mentoring from the student’s church to ensure biblical discipleship with personal warmth and accountability. The physical location of RTS/Virtual is on the RTS campus in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Campus Facilities

The Jackson campus includes one hundred acres graced by nineteen major buildings with apartments for married students and accommodations for single students. The seminary library has one of the finest theological collections in the region. Tennis courts and a gymnasium on campus provide recreational facilities for students and their families. In addition to student apartments on campus, the seminary also owns over seventy-five townhouses near the campus. The spacious townhouses include fireplaces, washers, and dryers. A swimming pool is available for use by residents.

The Orlando campus opened new state-of-the-art campus facilities in 1999 on sixty-five acres of land in suburban Oviedo. Five miles north of the University of Central Florida, the Orlando campus is equipped with classrooms, a library, a theological bookstore, and student study and lounge facilities. The seminary library offers students 150,000 volumes in print and microform; moreover, students have access to the Nicole Collection, containing over 20,000 primary and secondary sources on historical, theological, and biblical studies. The surrounding community provides attractive housing opportunities, which include garden apartments, town houses, and condominiums.
The Charlotte campus is ideally located in the heart of southeast Charlotte, with excellent access to the airport, the interstate system, and the bulk of the residential areas of Charlotte. The campus is composed of five buildings with over 50,000 square feet of space, providing ample classrooms, library, and office areas. The library includes over 40,000 volumes on site and full access by computer to the libraries on the other RTS campuses. The beautiful, tree-shaded setting is excellently suited for a campus, offering abundant parking and plenty of open space to provide a campus atmosphere. Many affordable and attractive apartment complexes are available in the area. Charlotte’s bustling economy provides abundant employment opportunities.

The RTS Washington/Baltimore extension offices and library are housed at Fourth Presbyterian Church in Bethesda, Maryland. New expanded offices and facilities are planned for the near future. In addition to the Metro Washington library, students enjoy borrowing privileges at nearby Georgetown University, at other local schools, and through the larger RTS interlibrary loan system. Classes are also offered at Fourth Presbyterian, Chapelgate Presbyterian and other area churches.

The Atlanta extension uses the facilities of The Church of the Apostles in Atlanta, Georgia. Students enjoy the library privileges at Emory University and New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary - North Georgia campus, and through the larger RTS interlibrary loan system.

The Boca Raton extension offers classes and has its offices at the Spanish River Presbyterian Church on Yamato Road. We invite you to visit us, sit in on a class, and take a tour of our campus facilities. Leadership training courses involve churches throughout the South Florida community.

In addition to the excellent facilities on each campus, RTS provides the opportunity for academic interchange among the campuses. Through video teleconferencing of classes, students may benefit not only from the teaching of the world-class faculty on their campus of residence, but from the teaching of the faculty on other RTS campuses as well.

Every student enrolled in the seminary is a member of the RTS Student Fellowship. The student activity fee, paid each semester, funds a variety of student activities throughout the year. The Student Cabinet, consisting of officers and representatives from the student population, conducts campus activities and conferences sponsored by the fellowship.

The Society of Missionary Inquiry (SMI) is committed to bringing about a balanced integration of spiritual growth, evangelism, and biblical missions in the lives of men and women training for ministry. A cabinet chosen from the student body handles the regular business and special activities sponsored by SMI. All members of the student body are included as members of the Society of Missionary Inquiry.

The overall purpose of SMI is to help RTS students, their families, faculty, and staff focus on global missions and God’s concern for non-Christians. Special seminars, prayer meetings, chapel services, and other activities are sponsored by SMI. An annual missions or spiritual life conference is held each fall semester.

Chapel services are conducted on different days of the week each semester under the direction of the faculty and the student relations department to provide spiritual enrichment for the seminary community. Chapel is an integral part of seminary life and students are encouraged to attend for their own spiritual development and nurture. Prayer groups also meet weekly.
WOMEN IN MINISTRY

This uniquely designed program focuses on the distinctive needs of women students and seminary wives. The program addresses women's needs through fellowship, ministry training, prayer, and intensive Bible study, while endeavoring to promote joy and confidence in their unique calling to serve Christ.

Faculty wives and other women in the seminary community give direction to this program with the assistance of elected students and student wives. A yearly retreat designed for fellowship, inspiration, and training provides an indispensable experience.

In addition to training and fellowship opportunities, the seminary offers academic courses for audit to all spouses of students free of charge. Spouses of full-time students may also enroll in courses for credit free of charge.

HOUSING

The seminary does not assume responsibility for providing room and board for students. Affordable housing is available in close proximity to each campus. Full-time students on the Jackson campus may rent seminary-owned apartments and condominiums. Housing application forms are available from the Dean of Students Office in Jackson. Information on housing is available from Admissions in Orlando and Charlotte.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

All full-time students are required to have adequate major medical insurance. Proof of medical insurance is required at registration. International students receiving financial aid are required to have major medical insurance coverage for all dependents listed on form I-20.

Information on a student major medical insurance plan is available through Student Relations or the Seminary Business Office.

PLACEMENT

Placement of graduates is a high priority at RTS. The Director of Placement arranges interviews for senior students with potential churches and ministries. Churches, denominations, and parachurch organizations that are seeking pastors, assistant pastors, youth ministers, Christian education directors, counselors, and graduates for other ministry and leadership positions regularly contact the seminary.
DESIGN OF THE CURRICULUM

The M.Div. curriculum is designed to offer training for the pastoral ministry. Concentrated study in three basic areas – Bible, theology, and practical theology – characterizes this three-year program.

Bible courses include the basic structure and content of each book of the Bible along with such details concerning major characters, dates, and places as are necessary. Principles of hermeneutics and exegesis, using the original languages as well as the English Bible, are also included. Students learn to apply Scripture to contemporary circumstances.

Students are required to pass a comprehensive Bible examination. Remedial studies for any who fail the examination will be required until competency in Bible knowledge is demonstrated.

Building upon a biblical foundation, theology is a major area of concentration. The purpose of this study is to provide the theological and historical foundations necessary to understand the nature of the Christian faith and life.

The practical theology courses are designed to enable students to develop competence in ministry. Students are expected to attain required levels of competency in order to accomplish the goal of each course. A variety of experiences and instructors enable students to develop methods and styles of ministry suited to their individual gifts. The number of class hours per week may exceed the number of semester hours of credit.

A student attains middler status upon completion of thirty-four semester hours and senior status upon completion of sixty-eight semester hours. The three-year curriculum may also be taken in four years by following the four-year M.Div. schedule, which is available in the Registrar’s Office.

M.DIV. DEGREE EMPHASIS TRACKS

The M.Div. curriculum offers the student the option of selecting an area of emphasis. Included in this catalog are schedules of courses for the M.Div. degree that further define the various emphasis area options and the requirements for each.

Jackson

Students taking the M.Div. degree may major in one of four areas: Pastoral ministry, Christian education/youth ministry, counseling, and intercultural-studies/missions. All four programs require a total of 106 semester hours.

Orlando

Students enrolled in the 106-hour M.Div. curriculum may select from areas of specialization including biblical studies, church planting/missions, counseling, or theological studies.

Charlotte

Within the 106-hour M.Div. curriculum, a student has the opportunity to take elective courses in theology and biblical studies.

PRE-SEMINARY PREPARATION

A student’s course of study prior to entering a theological seminary should provide the cultural and intellectual foundations essential to an effective theological education. A broad liberal arts education is recommended as the best preparation for the M.Div. degree. Since some courses in the Division of Biblical Studies are based on the original languages of Scripture, the acquisition of Greek at the earliest possible opportunity is highly advisable. In addition, knowledge of philosophy, history, and modern languages such as French and German is recommended. A pre-seminary reading list is available.
FIELD EDUCATION

Field education is that area of theological education in which the theory of the classroom is tested and applied in the life and ministry of the church. The purpose of field education is to provide opportunities for M.Div. students to exercise and improve their gifts and skills and to equip them with diversified backgrounds of firsthand experience in the service to which God has called them.

Prior to or concurrent with the beginning of the field experience, students are required to take (PT502) Introduction to Ministry (Jackson) or (ST502) Introduction to Pastoral and Theological Studies (Orlando) or (PT536) Field Education Internship (Charlotte). At the start of their field work, students should register with the Field Education Office, at which time a file of field work for each student will be established. Field work not properly registered with the Field Education Office cannot be counted toward the field education requirement.

The M.Div. degree requires four hundred hours of field education experience. Upon completion of this requirement, an evaluation report is to be submitted to the Director of Field Education by a field supervisor (usually a pastor, elder, or evaluation committee). Following submission of this report, the student may register for PT534 Field Education Seminar. Completion of this seminar marks the completion of the field education requirement.

The field experience credit may be earned as a summer student assistant to a pastor, a student supply in a vacant pulpit, a pastoral internship of nine to fifteen months, a missionary internship, a campus ministry internship, work with a parachurch organization, ministry in a national park, youth ministry, evangelistic ministry in a local church, nursing home chaplaincy, hospital chaplaincy, jail ministry, teaching home Bible classes, or other similar ministries.

Students at RTS/Orlando may fulfill the field education requirement and earn six elective credit hours by completing one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) at Florida Hospital. The student may fulfill the requirement for an M.Div. emphasis in Pastoral Care by combining one unit of CPE with one of the following courses: Counseling Special Populations (2CO508) or Career and Lifestyle Development (2C0609). Experience in the CPE program that does not meet the requirement for a full unit of CPE may be used to fulfill an appropriate percentage of the required four hundred hours of field education. Prerequisites include completion of 2ST502 and permission of the Director of Field Education.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

1. M.Div. students normally spend three years in residence in order to complete the required curriculum for the M.Div. degree, including a total of at least 106 semester hours with a C (2.0) average on all work taken.

2. The seminary must have on file official transcripts showing that the student holds the B.A. degree or its equivalent.

3. The student must complete the field education requirements to the satisfaction of the faculty.

4. The conduct and attitude of the student must be satisfactory according to the norms of Scripture and the Westminster Standards.

5. The student must pass the English Bible and Westminster Shorter Catechism examinations.

6. The student must clear all financial obligations to the seminary and give assurance that all open accounts in the community and elsewhere have been satisfied.

All students expecting to graduate must make formal application for graduation to the faculty through the registrar at the time of registration for their final semester of academic work. The graduation fee of $75.00 will be paid at this time. Ordinarily, degrees will be awarded at the conclusion of the spring semester, but may be granted in December.
MEANING OF THE DEGREE

A degree from Reformed Theological Seminary indicates that the graduate has completed the requirements for the course of study. Although the M.Div. degree meets the standard educational requirements for ordination in most denominations, the degree does not certify that the graduate necessarily possesses all the biblical qualifications requisite for the ministry or adheres to the Reformed faith. Graduation from Reformed Theological Seminary with either the M.Div. degree or diploma should not in itself be construed as a recommendation for the ministry.

Ecclesiastical bodies and pulpit committees are responsible for applying their own requirements for ordination to determine the doctrinal soundness, suitability, and readiness for ministry of a particular graduate.

M.Div. DIPLOMA WITHOUT THE DEGREE

Students who do not meet all the normal requirements for admission to the M.Div. degree program may be qualified for admission under extraordinary circumstances. For further details and a personal assessment of your unique situation, contact the admissions office.

Others candidates who do not qualify for admission to a degree program or who do not complete the required Hebrew and Greek courses may be admitted to the diploma program. M.Div. diploma students who plan to seek ordination should consult with appropriate ecclesiastical authorities regarding the suitability of this program for their needs.
The curriculum consists of 106 semester hours. Those who have studied Greek may take a proficiency examination to determine if they may be exempted from portions of the Greek requirement.

Greek I (4 hours) is offered only during the summer. Students who have not studied Greek should plan to take Greek I during the summer prior to enrollment for the first semester if they intend to complete the M.Div. degree in three years.

*Pre-requisite is the successful completion of NT502 Greek I (4 hours), which is taught at the end of the summer session.

A four-year program for the M.Div. curriculum is available. Students interested in the four-year program should request a schedule from the Registrar.

For the most updated version of the curriculum, see the RTS web page (www.rts.edu).
Students who select an emphasis area in the Master of Divinity degree program should adjust to the core curriculum as indicated below.

*Pre-requisite is the successful completion of NT502 Greek I (3 hours), which is taught at the end of the summer session. For the most updated version of the curriculum, see the RTS web page (www.rts.edu).
The Master of Arts program provides concentrated study in a special field or discipline upon the background of a general understanding of theology and biblical studies. Candidates for this degree must complete 66 semester hours (note exceptions below) with an overall C (2.0) average. A student may complete the M.A. in Christian Education, the M.A. in Religion, the M.A. in Christian Thought, the M.A. in Counseling, the M.A. in Marriage and Family Therapy, or the M.A. in Missions program plus the M.Div. program in four years with 138 semester hours.

M.A. in Biblical or Theological Studies

This program integrates biblical, historical, and theological studies with cultural and social concerns. It is designed to strengthen the religious basis for one's life and work whether in a secular career or a church staff position. Greek and Hebrew are optional. The English Bible exam is required.

For those who have already earned a Ph.D., a special M.A. in Biblical or Theological Studies is available. This emphasis is designed to provide integration, from a Christian perspective, with expressions of contemporary society in the arts, the sciences, and popular culture. In this program, up to thirty hours of advanced standing may be granted.

M.A. in Christian Education

This program seeks to develop a wide range of skills for providing leadership in the educational ministry of the church. This program emphasizes the integration of biblical, theological, and historical study with educational foundations, together with the acquisition of skills in teaching and leadership.

An English Bible examination similar to that required for the M.Div. degree and field education are both required. Individuals interested in a special ministry to junior high, senior high, and college age students may emphasize youth ministry.

M.A. in Christian Thought

This program concentrates on the major issues relating to the human condition from historical, philosophical, and theological perspectives. It is designed to help students develop a world and life view founded upon biblical principles of Reformed theology.

M.A. in Counseling

This program is a seventy-semiter-hour program designed for the person who wishes to work in the specialized field of counseling and who desires an orientation that integrates Christian theology with counseling theory and practice. Biblical and theological studies are integrated with formal, professional education and technical training.

Students enrolled in this two-year (21-month) program must enroll full time. Entrance is granted for the fall semester only. Applications must be received by the Admissions Office by February 1 prior to the fall semester of desired enrollment. A non-refundable deposit of $200 must be submitted upon acceptance.

All students in this degree program are examined on biblical knowledge. Those who do not pass the exam must enroll in Bible Survey (2ON701) or, with permission of the Academic Dean, in a biblical studies elective.

M.A. in Marriage and Family Therapy and Counseling

This program is designed for the person who wishes to work in this specialized field of counseling and who desires an orientation that integrates Christian theology with the theory and practice of family therapy. Biblical and theological studies are integrated with formal, professional education and technical training. Theoretical knowledge is also integrated with applied skills through supervised clinical practice. This is a two-year (24-month) program. Continuance in the MFT & Counseling program is contingent upon the student’s intra- and interpersonal skills and/or functioning.
In addition to the general admission requirements given in this catalog, applicants for the Marriage and Family Therapy program must submit a GRE General Test score and must make a non-refundable deposit of $200 upon acceptance. Applications for the Marriage and Family Therapy program should be received by February 1 for those who wish to enroll in the fall semester.

To graduate, MFT & Counseling students must have clinical experience that includes:

1. A minimum of twelve consecutive months of clinical work;
2. At least 500 hours of face-to-face clinical experience, of which at least 250 hours are with two or more clients; and
3. A total of 100 hours of clinical supervision, of which at least 50 are in groups of no more than two and the remainder in groups of no more than six persons. (All MFT and Counseling supervision is based on direct observation, videotape, or audiotape.)

Graduates will have completed the requirements for associate membership in the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.

Because this program is designed to meet the needs of those serving in the social and cultural setting of North America, international students are not ordinarily admitted.

M.A. in Intercultural-Studies/Missions

This program is designed to equip both North American and foreign nationals for more effective communication of the gospel and for ministry in cross-cultural settings. Approximately one-half of the required courses are in missions with an emphasis on cross-cultural ministries. The remaining portion of the curriculum consists of biblical, theological, and historical studies.

M.A. in Biblical Studies/M.A. in TESOL

This program is offered in conjunction with the University of Central Florida. Students may complete both degrees in two academic years including summers of full-time study. The program provides students with the technical skills for teaching English to speakers of other languages as well as a broad understanding of biblical and theological material. Admission and graduation requirements of both Reformed Theological Seminary and the University of Central Florida must be met.

M.A. in Religion

This program is a versatile degree, designed for Christians who desire to bring biblical and theological reflection to bear on a wide spectrum of societal issues in their chosen vocations and avocations. This sixty-semester hour MAR program shares courses with other RTS master’s degree programs, and is offered at the Atlanta campus, the Washington/Baltimore campus, and the Virtual campus.
M.A. and M.Div. Summer/Winter Programs

The Master of Arts in Biblical or Theological Studies and the M.Div. degree may be earned on a summer/winter schedule. Either of these degree programs may be completed by selecting core and elective courses from intensive course offerings during the summer (June-July) or winter (January) term in conjunction with extension and Virtual campus courses. A minimum of thirty hours of residence study is required, with a total of 66 hours for the M.A. or 106 hours for the M.Div. required for completion.

During the summer and winter sessions a wide selection of core courses and elective courses are offered by resident and guest faculty to meet scheduling needs of students. These programs are specifically designed to provide study opportunities for campus ministers, missionaries on furlough, teachers, and others who wish an in-depth theological education but are unable to pursue course work during the regular academic year. A current brochure of summer and winter courses is available from the Admissions Offices.

Double Degree

Students holding the Master of Divinity degree may earn the M.A. degree in Christian Education, Christian Thought, Marriage and Family Therapy, or Missions with a minimum of thirty-two additional semester hours (138 total), which generally requires one year. Students holding the M.Div. degree may earn the M.A. in Counseling degree with a minimum of forty-five additional credit hours (151 total). Students taking the MA/MFTC program may earn the MABS with one additional year of study (106 hours required for dual program).

Graduation Requirements

Students must complete the M.A. curriculum and fulfill other requirements stated above for graduation. Additionally, the seminary must have on file an official transcript of the student’s bachelor’s degree or its equivalent, and the Accounting Office must be able to report that all financial obligations to the seminary have been paid.
The M.A. curriculum consists of sixty-six semester hours including the core curriculum plus concentrated study in an area of specialization.

PURPOSES OF THE PROGRAM

The Master of Theology degree program (Th.M.) is designed for those who hold the M.Div. degree and wish to engage in advanced theological studies. In this program, students concentrate in one area of emphasis with a goal of attaining a high level of competency in that discipline. The areas of emphasis in Jackson are theology, Old Testament, New Testament, and intercultural-studies/missions; and in Orlando, Reformation Studies. Research and writing skills, which are important to this program, must be demonstrated by writing a thesis.

DESIGN OF THE CURRICULUM

Students are required to take a minimum of twenty-four hours of Th.M. level courses. In addition, students are required to register for six semester hours of thesis work and write a thesis on an approved topic within the area of emphasis.

Students with an emphasis in theology, Old Testament, or New Testament are required to take twelve Th.M. courses, each for two semester hours credit, six of which must be in their area of emphasis and at least three of which must be outside their area of emphasis.

A maximum of six semester hours transfer credit may be used as credit toward this degree.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Those admitted to the Master of Theology degree program are required to have:

1. A Master of Divinity degree from an approved seminary;
2. A 3.0 grade point average (3.3 for Reformation Studies applicants) for all previous graduate theological studies;
3. Knowledge of Hebrew and Greek, with special competency required for students specializing in Old Testament or New Testament;
4. For some academic programs, knowledge of Latin or a modern foreign language;
5. The endorsement of the department in which the Th.M. degree is to be taken;
6. For the Th.M. in Reformation Studies, a thesis proposal of 500 words.

Applicants holding M.Div. degrees who wish to enroll in the Th.M. degree program but who do not demonstrate competence in biblical languages or theology may take courses at RTS to make up such deficiencies, although the credit earned may not be used toward the Th.M. degree.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

To be awarded the Master of Theology degree, students must meet the following requirements:

1. The completion of at least thirty semester hours of resident study in the program with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 and with no course receiving a grade below a B counting toward the degree;
2. The completion of a thesis on an approved subject;
3. Comprehensive examinations, if required by the department;
4. The completion of all requirements for the degree within five years from the time of matriculation.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

Jackson • Orlando • Charlotte • Atlanta • Washington/Baltimore

PROGRAM DESIGN

The Doctor of Ministry program is available in Jackson, Orlando, and Charlotte.

This program is designed to increase the effectiveness of pastors. It is built upon the biblical, theological, and professional foundations of the Master of Divinity degree. The program is designed to be flexible enough to meet individual needs while seeking to encourage increased competence in the classical and functional disciplines already studied in pre-professional courses required for ministry.

Requirements include the successful completion of thirty semester hours, which are offered in eight courses plus a doctoral project. The division of hours is indicated below:

- Four core courses . . . 12 hours
  - Theology of Ministry
  - Applied Theology
  - Leadership
  - Church Growth

- Four electives . . . . 12 hours

- Doctoral project . . . . . . 6 hours

30 hours

Each course or seminar has three components:

1. Assigned reading of approximately two thousand pages to be completed before attending the classroom session.
2. A one-week (five days) session of classroom meetings for lectures, reflection, and evaluation.
3. A post-session integration paper growing out of the reading and class work. Written assignments for winter courses should be submitted to the D. Min. office no later than April 30, and assignments for summer courses should be submitted no later than October 31.

An on-campus classroom session is offered in the winter and in the summer each year with at least two courses available during each session. Students may take twelve hours of course work each year and complete all required work in two years. While it is possible to complete the course work and doctoral project within this two-year period, students ordinarily take four to five years to complete all the program requirements. A maximum of six years is allowed for completion of the program. Doctoral students are required to complete a minimum of one (three-hour) D. Min. course per year until the completion of their course work.

Students may pursue a general ministries track by choosing any four elective courses or a program emphasis track by focusing their elective course work in one of several areas: intercultural-studies/missions (Jackson); church development, which includes church planting, growth, and renewal (Jackson, Orlando); historical theology (Charlotte); Christian spirituality (Jackson, Orlando); or leadership development (Jackson, Orlando). Completion of at least three elective courses in an emphasis track is required for conferral of the D.Min. degree in that particular emphasis, except at the Charlotte campus.

Courses in church planting are offered in Orlando to provide pastors with training for this specialized area of ministry. Students wishing to prepare for church planting should complete the appropriate elective courses. D.Min. courses in missions are available on the Jackson campus. It is possible for a missionary on furlough to complete the course requirements for this program in one year.
DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

ADMISISON REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must hold the Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent and the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent. Applicants to the D.Min. program who have not completed the requisite Master of Divinity degree from an accredited seminary or graduate school may apply on the basis of having attained the academic equivalent of the M.Div. degree.

Master of Divinity equivalency shall be defined as having completed ninety-two semester hours of graduate study including thirty hours in historical/theological studies, thirty hours in biblical studies (including Greek or Hebrew) and fifteen hours in practical theology courses. Other requirements for admission as mentioned above also apply to those seeking admission based on equivalency. Transcripts of prior graduate study will be evaluated by the D.Min. Committee, and applicants will be advised by letter of their standing. In the event that M.Div. equivalency has not been attained, a prescribed program of study leading to M.Div. equivalency will be recommended. This prescribed program may include courses at an RTS campus, distance education, or course work at another seminary.

A minimum grade point average of B (3.0) on work toward the Master of Divinity degree is ordinarily required. Greek or Hebrew is required.

All applicants must have been engaged in a recognized form of professional ministry for at least three years after receiving their Master of Divinity degree and are expected to reflect competence and growth in ministry as a result of their professional experience. They are expected to continue their practice of full-time ministry for the duration of their Doctor of Ministry program.

ADMISISON PROCEDURE

1. Upon receipt of the application form, required enclosures, and references, the Director of Admissions submits the applicant's file to the faculty Doctor of Ministry Committee.

2. In some cases, the Doctor of Ministry Committee may require a written paper and/or a personal interview with the applicant. For those at a distance, the interview may be conducted by telephone.

3. The Doctor of Ministry Committee's decision will be made known to the applicant by a letter from the Admissions director.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

All D.Min. students are required to complete thirty semester hours with a grade point average of 3.0 and with no grade below a C counting toward the degree. The twenty-four hours of course work must include four core courses and four elective courses. Also required is a six-semester-hour doctoral project (including doctoral writing seminars normally held after classroom sessions) on an approved subject giving evidence of the student’s ability to do independent research and integrate theology into practical ministry. A minimum of twelve hours (four courses) must be taken on the RTS campus (Jackson, Orlando, or Charlotte) from which the candidate plans to do the doctoral project and graduate.

The completed doctoral project must be either (1) submitted no later than February 15 and defended successfully before a faculty committee no later than April 15 prior to the expected date of graduation in May, or (2) submitted no later than August 15 and defended successfully before a faculty committee no later than October 15 prior to the expected date of graduation in December.
DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY
IN INTERCULTURAL STUDIES

The Doctor of Philosophy in Intercultural Studies (Ph.D./ICS) degree program provides a thorough grounding in theoretical knowledge, skills necessary for scholarly research, and training so that graduates will be prepared for leadership responsibilities in church and parachurch ministries and a wide range of academic institutions. The goals of the Ph.D./ICS include providing students with breadth and specialization in the fields of theory, research, and training for graduate teaching.

The Ph.D./ICS degree requires at least three academic years, including two years of approved course work in residence (classroom, seminar studies, guided research), followed by preparation of a dissertation that makes a significant contribution to the literature of the field. The student may be admitted to candidacy after two years of residence, successful completion of written and oral comprehensive examinations, and approval of a dissertation proposal. Students must register for at least two semester hours each academic year until completion of their program.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must have an educational and intercultural service background adequate for providing a foundation for personal and academic development. Specific objectives must be clear enough to provide a sense of purpose and direction from the beginning to the end of the doctoral program.

1. Prerequisite degrees:
   a. Applicants for the Ph.D. program are required to have an appropriate Master’s degree or its equivalent from an accredited institution that maintains academic standards similar to those of RTS. A Master of Divinity or a Master of Arts in Biblical Studies, Theology, or Missions is considered an appropriate degree. All applicants should have competence in at least one of the biblical languages (Hebrew or Greek) by the time of enrollment.
   b. A student may petition for advanced status based upon previous academic achievements or publications in the field of intercultural studies.

2. Selection for admission

Selection for admission is based upon demonstrated academic ability. In addition to the general requirements for admission to Reformed Theological Seminary, applicants for the Ph.D. program must demonstrate the following:
   a. Academic achievement as measured by the MAT, the GRE, or another widely accepted standardized test used to evaluate graduate student admissions.
   b. Competence in at least one modern language and at least one language for field research. Applicants for whom English is not their mother tongue must attain a minimum score of 600 on the Test Of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). On the computerized TOEFL, the equivalent score is 250.
   c. Evidence of potential for scholarship and original academic research at the doctoral level.
   d. Successful engagement in at least three years of vocational ministry or service directly relevant to intercultural studies after receiving the Master’s degree.
   e. Evidence of academic contribution in teaching and publication as documented in the applicant’s curriculum vitae.
   f. Academic aptitude, evidenced by the equivalent of a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.5 (on a 4.0 American scale) in previous graduate studies.
CANDIDACY REQUIREMENTS

1. Fulfillment of all requirements indicated as conditions of admission.
2. Completion of forty-eight semester hours of specified courses, plus successful completion of written and oral comprehensive examinations (three credit hours) and successful defense of a dissertation proposal (three credit hours).
3. Achievement of a minimum grade point average of 3.5.
4. Approval by the student’s Doctoral Dissertation Committee of a schedule for completion of the dissertation, which may not exceed three years.
5. Submission of an application for candidacy.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

All students are admitted on probationary status for their first year, during which time they must make adequate progress toward completion of their degree and must pass qualifying examinations in one of the biblical languages (Hebrew or Greek) and one modern foreign or field language. English may be considered the field language for students whose native tongue is a language other than English.

Proficiency in biblical Greek or Hebrew is required. Use of one or both biblical languages in the dissertation is expected where relevant to the dissertation research.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

All candidates for the Doctor of Philosophy in Intercultural Studies degree must meet the following requirements in order to graduate:

1. Recommendation by the faculty on the basis of academic attainment and evidence of Christian life and character during residence at RTS.
2. Successful completion of a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours of approved academic work, including comprehensive examinations and dissertation, with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.5, and no grade below B applicable to the degree.
3. Successful completion of all courses required for the degree and of the specified number of full-time academic terms in residency.
4. Successful completion and defense of an approved dissertation (6 credit hours toward the 60 required for the degree) that exhibits the student’s ability to do competent research, to think critically, and to communicate effectively.
5. Completion of all course work for the degree within seven years from admission or five years after certification of candidacy, whichever comes first.
6. Settlement of all financial obligations to RTS.
SPECIAL PROGRAMS

VIRTUAL CAMPUS

A variety of courses is offered through the RTS Virtual Campus. Course credits earned through the Virtual Campus program may be applied toward the M.A. in Biblical or Theological Studies degree program. A maximum of thirty-six semester hours may also be credited toward the M.Div. degree with prior approval from the Academic Dean. Students who are pursuing the M.Div. through the summer scheduling offered by the Orlando campus may exceed this limitation with prior approval from RTS-Orlando’s Academic Dean. A brochure listing available courses may be obtained by contacting the Virtual Campus (800-227-2013 or www.rts.edu).

ONE-YEAR CERTIFICATE IN BIBLE, THEOLOGY, CHRISTIAN EDUCATION, OR MISSIONS

Certificate programs are tailored to meet the needs of the candidates or the requirements of agencies with which they may be associated. Missionary candidates may meet the requirements of their sending agencies by taking a one-year program in biblical and intercultural studies. Campus ministry candidates may find courses in Bible and theology to be a helpful addition to training that may be given by their supporting agencies. Church Directors of Christian Education may find courses in Christian Education to be helpful. As with degree programs, a B.A. degree or its equivalent from an accredited school ordinarily is required.

Credits earned in the one-year certificate program may be applied toward the M.A. or M.Div. degree.

Certificate programs are available in Jackson, Orlando, Charlotte, Washington/Baltimore, Atlanta, and the Virtual Campus.

Purpose of Catalog

While every effort is made to insure the accuracy of the information in this catalog, Reformed Theological Seminary has the right to make changes at any time without prior notice. The catalog is for purposes of information and does not constitute the irrevocable terms of the contract between the Seminary and current or prospective students.

North Carolina institutional certification requirement statements

Degree programs of study offered by Reformed Theological Seminary have been found exempt from the requirement of licensure by the University of North Carolina under provisions of North Carolina General Statutes Section (G.S.) 116-15(d) for exemption from licensure with respect to religious education. Exemption from licensure is not based upon any assessment of program quality under established licensing standards.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

ADMISSIONS

The seminary has a non-discriminatory (race, sex, handicap) admissions policy. The school’s policy is to admit students to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities at the school and to make no discrimination on the basis of race, sex, or handicap in the administration of educational policies, applications for admission, scholarship or loan programs, and extracurricular programs.

Applications for admission are reviewed for, and admission is granted into, specific programs of study offered by the seminary. Admission to one program of study does not imply admission is being granted to another program of the seminary.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

Applicants to programs of the seminary are evaluated on the basis of academic preparation and potential for ministry. Application for admission should be made at least three months prior to the date of enrollment. New students may enroll in the fall, winter, spring, or summer terms. The following materials should be addressed to the Director of Admissions:

1. A completed application form.
2. References from three individuals, including the applicant’s pastor.
3. The application fee.
5. A statement of reasons for wishing to pursue a particular degree.
6. Official transcripts from all previous academic work (a B.A. degree or its equivalent from an accredited school with a 2.6 GPA is ordinarily required).
7. A recent photograph.

Admission may be granted on the basis of these credentials alone, or the seminary may require a personal interview with the applicant, an entrance exam, the Graduate Record Examination, or a psychological or aptitude test.

Any admitted student who defers enrollment more than one year beyond the initial entrance date must submit another completed application form, the application fee, and other material that may be requested by the Director of Admissions.

Upon acceptance to RTS, a non-refundable deposit of $75.00 ($200.00 for the Marriage and Family Therapy and Counseling degree programs) is required, which will be credited toward the student’s first-semester tuition.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

All international students must establish English language proficiency. RTS provides no testing to meet admission requirements in English language. All international students applying for admission to the M.A. or M.Div. programs must submit at the time of application a score of not less than 550 on the paper-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), or not less than 213 on the computer-based TOEFL. The test must include the writing section (TWE), which is included in the September, October, March, and May administrations.

1. To register for the TOEFL/TWE test, applicants may contact TOEFL/TWE SERVICES, P. O. Box 6151, Princeton, NJ 08541-6151, USA; telephone: 609-771-7100; E-mail: toefl@ets.org; Web site: http://etsweb.ets.org.
2. Applicants who score between 550 and 600 on the paper-based TOEFL, or between 213 and 250 on the computer-based TOEFL, may be required to take additional work in ESL or be limited in the number of hours they may take during any one term.
OBTAINING A STUDENTVisa

The Certificate of Eligibility (I-20) needed for obtaining a student visa for entry into the United States requires certification that the admitted student is proficient in English and has sufficient financial resources to provide for tuition and living expenses. This certification must be on the form I-20 at the time the student appears at the Embassy for a visa. The Admissions Office at the seminary will make certification of English language proficiency based on the scores reported for the TOEFL/TWE.

To be eligible for entry into the United States for seminary study, the completed “Statement of Financial Resources” form with attached documentation (the form is sent upon inquiry from the Admissions Office) must be sent to the Admissions Office. This should be done as soon as possible after the applicant has been notified that his/her application for admission has been approved. The Admissions Office will make financial certification on the I-20 based on funds on deposit in the student’s account and on pledges of support by individuals, churches, foundations, etc.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

An applicant not seeking to earn a degree from Reformed Theological Seminary but wishing to receive academic credit for courses taken may apply as a special student. Up to eighteen semester hours earned as a special student may be applied toward a degree. It is important, therefore, to consider carefully the possibility of entering a degree program before earning more than eighteen hours as a special student.

To apply as a special student, the following items should be sent to the Office of Admissions:

1. A completed application form.
2. The application fee.
3. A completed Pastoral Reference form.
5. An official transcript indicating an earned bachelor’s degree.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Students who desire to transfer from other graduate institutions should apply for admission in the usual way, submitting with their application a transcript of their seminary work. A request for transfer credit should be accompanied by a catalog containing the course descriptions from the previous institution. If courses apply to the RTS curriculum, credit may be granted for work completed in accredited schools and receiving satisfactory grades (C). No credit will be given for work that received a grade below C.

Grade point averages on RTS transcripts will be determined on the basis of work done only at Reformed Theological Seminary.

Transfer students may be required to take more than the minimum requirements for graduation because courses taken elsewhere may not be equivalent to those in the RTS curriculum. In any case, the last year of residence work must be completed at RTS for transfer students.

The grade “I” indicates that the work required for the course was not completed. It is given only when special, extenuating circumstances (such as illness) prevent the student from completing the work or taking the examination. A written request for an extension must be submitted prior to the due date of the work concerned. If the request is granted, it remains the responsibility of the student to complete all work for the course as soon as possible. In any case, an “I” grade must be removed within the extension time granted; otherwise it will be changed to “F.”

A grade of C or better is required to continue in the sequence of language courses.

Normal Course Load

A normal course load is twelve to eighteen semester hours for the fall and spring semesters and two to five semester hours for the winter session. The permission of the Academic Dean must be obtained prior to registering for nineteen or more semester hours.

Students who take fewer than twelve semester hours of academic work in a regular semester are classified as part-time students.

Th.M. and doctoral students who take nine or more semester hours of academic work in a regular semester are classified as full-time students.

English Bible and Catechism Requirements

Successful completion of a comprehensive examination in biblical content is required for M.Div. and M.A. Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, Christian Education, and Missions students prior to graduation. This examination may be repeated in a varied form until it is passed. A grade of C is considered a passing grade.

All M.Div. students are required to memorize the Westminster Shorter Catechism.
Late registration is permitted through the second week of the fall and spring semesters. A late registration fee of $40.00 is charged. Courses may be dropped without academic penalty if done so by the drop date listed in the academic calendar of the respective campus. No courses may be added after the two-week add deadline, and no courses may be dropped after the five-week drop deadline. For refunds related to courses dropped, see the refund policy.

Directed study courses

Students may request permission to take an independent, directed study course under the supervision of a professor. Such a course requires the equivalent of one thousand pages of reading per semester hour in lieu of class attendance, plus a project approved by the professor. The character of the work and the way of reporting it will be left to the professor, but all directed study courses must be approved by the Academic Dean. These courses must be completed within the semester in which they are started. The normal tuition rate is charged for all directed study courses.

Directed study courses usually are offered to cover subjects that are not included in the published curriculum. Regularly scheduled elective and required courses may be taken by directed study upon the discretion of the professor and Academic Dean only when a course is required for graduation and cannot be worked into a student’s schedule.

Class attendance

Classroom attendance is for the glory of God and preparation for the gospel ministry. Students therefore are expected to attend class sessions. No student should absent himself from classes in order to fulfill requirements or responsibilities of other classes. Those with absences may be penalized at the discretion of the professor.

If students miss class persistently throughout the regular semester, they may be dismissed for academic reasons. In certain exceptional cases, such as extended illness or family crisis, in which it is impossible for students to complete a semester’s work, they may present a written request for permission to withdraw from all courses.

Conduct

Student conduct is under the supervision of the Dean of Students. The seminary reserves the right to dismiss any student who engages in inappropriate behavior or whose conduct is found to be unsatisfactory on the basis of the moral, spiritual, and ethical principles found in Scripture and the Westminster Standards after a proper hearing and due process according to the procedures described in the Student Handbook.

Additional rules, procedures, and regulations governing life at the seminary are contained in the Student Handbook.
ACADEMIC POLICIES

TERM PAPERS AND EXAMINATIONS

Unless required earlier by the professor, all course assignments, term papers, and reports must be submitted by the deadline listed in the academic calendar for each campus. Upon approval of the Academic Dean, exceptions to this rule may be made by the professor. Extensions will be granted only for causes deemed adequate, and a written request is required.

All examinations must be taken when scheduled. Exceptions to this rule may be made only upon prior request showing adequate cause to the professor concerned, but the rescheduled examination should be taken during the examination period.

DEGREE TIME LIMITS

Students enrolled in the M.Div. and Th.M. degree programs have five years to complete degree requirements. D.Min. students have six years to complete degree requirements; Ph.D. students have seven years to complete degree requirements. Students enrolled in the M.A. degree program have four years (seven years for the MAR via the Virtual Campus) to complete their program requirements. After the maximum time limit has been reached for a degree program, the student may apply for an extension. Students who request an extension in a Master’s degree program will be charged $100.00 each year after the time limit has been reached. Doctoral students must register for at least two semester hours each academic year until the completion of their program. Program requirements will be updated to meet the requirements of the current catalog for those given extensions.

WITHDRAWAL/DISMISSAL/READMISSION

A student planning to withdraw from the seminary at any time should report that fact in writing to the Registrar so that his/her academic records may be finalized and transcripts released. Unless the proper withdrawal forms are completed, transcripts will not be released. If a student returns after being out for more than one year, he/she must reapply, pay the application fee, and submit any other information that may be requested by the Director of Admissions.

A student whose GPA falls below C (2.0) after completing 18 hours of coursework is permitted to continue studies for one semester. If the average remains below 2.0, the student is dismissed. After a period of one year, those dismissed for academic reasons may apply for readmission.

The Marriage and Family Therapy curriculum includes clinical and ethical requirements. If the program directors judge that personal or ethical issues impair a student’s ability to function as a therapist, the student may be required to participate in psychological assessment or remedial therapy and/or may be dismissed from the program.

TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts are released only upon written request of the student. Upon graduation, the student receives a copy of his/her final transcript free of charge provided all accounts at the seminary and in the community have been settled. Additional copies are available at the rate of $10.00 each. Copies of transcripts require three to five working days to process.
M.Div. and M.A. Degree Programs
See Attached Tuition and Fee Schedule

Doctoral and Th.M. Programs
See Attached Tuition and Fee Schedule

Doctoral students must register for at least two semester hours each academic year until the completion of their program.

Payment Schedule
A non-refundable advance payment of $75.00 ($200.00 for the Marriage and Family Therapy and Counseling degree programs) is due upon acceptance into a program. This payment will be applied toward the tuition fee for the first semester.

All additional tuition and fees are due at registration. Those who are depending on financial support from churches, organizations, individuals, etc. should be prepared to meet financial obligations when due, whether or not such funds have been received.

Students taking eight hours or more and who are financially unable to pay all tuition and fees at registration may be allowed to make payments in one-third increments, subject to the late payment fee as follows:

Fall and spring semesters only:
1/3 tuition and fees at registration
1/3 tuition and fees on the first day of each of the two following months

A late payment fee of 1% per month (12% annual) will be charged to students whose accounts are past due and/or are not paid in full at registration. Students will not be permitted to register for a new semester, graduate, or receive transcripts unless all financial obligations to the seminary have been settled, including library debts.

Tuition Refund Policy and Drop/Add Fee
Students who drop a course before the drop deadline will receive a full refund of tuition. Those who withdraw after the deadline will not receive any refund of tuition.

A charge of $10.00 will be assessed for dropping a course, adding a course, or replacing one course with another unless the change originates with a faculty member or administrative official. A charge of $25.00 will be assessed for dropping a Virtual class course.

Auditors/Tuition for Spouses of Students
Regularly enrolled full-time students (twelve hours or more), their spouses, and members of the seminary staff may audit classes without charge provided there is room in the class and they have registered with the Registrar. Others who have permission from the Academic Dean may audit courses after paying the required auditing fee.
The Lord’s people subsidize every student’s education substantially. Tuition pays approximately one third of the actual cost of a student’s education, with the remainder covered by donations to the seminary. In addition, RTS has always maintained a generous financial aid program that may further subsidize a student’s education through scholarships and grants.

Students are requested to initiate the process of receiving financial aid by submitting a financial aid application. Contact the Student Life Office or the Admissions Office on the campus you wish to attend for information about deadlines and forms.

The seminary considers the student to have the primary responsibility for financing his education and expects him to do whatever is possible to meet financial needs. This includes arranging support from church, family, and friends in addition to maintaining employment either off or on campus.

Understanding that these sources do not always provide the necessary funding for the student, the seminary, in conjunction with the Lord’s people, has established the scholarship and aid programs listed below.

WORK SCHOLARSHIPS

Students may apply for work scholarships. Scholarships normally are granted for ten hours of work per week. Jobs include secretarial, clerical, computer services, library assistant, faculty assistant, bookstore, student services, maintenance and grounds, audio-visual, and facilities care.

BASIC TUITION ASSISTANCE

Students having financial need may apply for tuition grant by submitting a financial aid application with their application for enrollment.

DEACON’S FUND GRANTS

Those who need financial assistance beyond work-study and basic tuition assistance may apply for a Deacon’s Fund Grant. These limited grants are awarded based on need. Awards are made in May for the following year.

PRESIDENTIAL GRANTS

A limited number of awards are made each year by recommendation of the Scholarship Committee.

A student’s gifts for ministry and vocational goals are taken into consideration for these grants, in addition to financial need. These awards normally are given in May for the following year.

MINISTER’S FAMILY TUITION GRANTS

Family members of ordained ministers may receive annual scholarship assistance for tuition.

CAMPUS MINISTRY GRANTS

Applicants who have served on the staff of a campus ministry for a minimum of one year may receive a campus ministry grant. Written recommendation from the campus minister’s supervisor is required.
FINANCIAL INFORMATION

FINANCIAL AID

CHURCH AND FOUNDATION GRANTS

Several churches and foundations provide scholarship funds for those needing assistance. Some of these are given by recommendation of the seminary, and others must be applied for directly with the church or foundation. More information concerning these grants is available through the Dean of Students, Director of Student Relations or the Director of Admissions.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Many employment opportunities in the community are readily available to students and their spouses. Job openings frequently are publicized, and assistance may be received from the Student Life Office.

PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENTS

The seminary has entered into partnership agreements with several organizations, such as Reformed University Ministries, Campus Crusade for Christ, Young Life, and InterVarsity Christian Fellowship. Students involved in a particular ministry may ascertain from the Admissions Office whether the seminary has a partnership agreement with the organization providing special tuition assistance.

CHURCH PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

The Church Partnership Program fosters significant involvement of the student’s home church with the student and with the seminary. Though the student is always responsible for his financial commitments to the seminary, this innovative program provides tuition assistance to students through an agreement with a student’s home church to share in the student’s financial support. For details of this program, contact a campus admissions office.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

International students should have financial support provided in large part by the indigenous church or missionary society, with the seminary participating to a lesser degree. This arrangement allows for maximum accountability to the sending church or organization and efficient stewardship of the sending church’s resources and those of the seminary.

Therefore, applicants who show evidence of substantial support from their sending churches/organizations will be more likely to receive financial aid from the seminary. Due to the number of international students receiving financial aid from the seminary, it is unlikely that any student will be awarded financial aid beyond tuition costs alone.

To be considered for financial aid from the seminary, an Application for Financial Aid must be sent to the Office of Admissions along with an application for admission. The Admissions Office must receive international student scholarship applications no later than November 1. The Scholarship Committee will make scholarship award decisions by February 1 for those international students beginning their program the following fall semester. Those who are admitted to a degree program will be notified by letter whether or not financial assistance will be provided.

An international student who is awarded financial aid in his/her first year of study at the seminary may anticipate a similar award each subsequent year until the student’s academic program has been completed. However, every international student will be required each year to submit through the Dean of Students an application for financial aid by May 1.

Twentieth-Century Reformed Theologians. 2 hours
A study of the contributions to Christian understanding by men who died in the twentieth century, such as James Orr, A. Kuyper, B. B. Warfield, E. Doumercq, H. Bavinck, G. Vos, A. Lecerf, L. Berkhof, J. G. Machen, John Murray, Gordon Clark, Cornelius van Til, Martyn Lloyd-Jones, J. Gerstner, and Carl F. H. Henry. Living contemporaries such as J. I. Packer, and R. C. Sproul are also included.

1ST623 • 3ST623
Theology and History of Southern Presbyterianism. 2 hours
This doctrinal and historical survey of major theologians and themes in Southern Presbyterianism includes reading varied selections from such major theologians as Thornwell, Dabney, Palmer, and Girardeau.

1ST624
Theology of the Westminster Standards. 2 hours
In this historical and theological survey of the Westminster Assembly and its work, the major documents produced by the Assembly are studied in detail, with attention also given to the historical, political, and theological context of the Assembly. Such issues as the Westminster doctrine of Scripture, the Confession’s relation to the theology of Calvin, and the debate over church government are discussed.

1ST625
Cultural Apologetics. 2 hours
Students are shown how to use the insights from cultural analysis, including the modern novel, film, and theater, in the work of apologetics.

1ST626
Topics in Philosophical Theology. 2 hours
This course is a detailed examination of a philosophical issue or an issue relevant to Christian theology. The Christian view of knowledge and its implication, philosophical foundations and biblical interpretation, and key philosophical views that have influenced theological expression since Kant are the types of topics covered in this course at different times.

3ST631
Westminster Standards and Reformation Creeds. 2 hours
A Study of Reformation creeds, emphasizing their theology and usefulness for today, especially in public worship and pastoral care. Approximately half of the course will concern the Westminster Standards.
3ST666
Radical Reformers and Pietism. 2 hours
This course surveys the Radical Reformation, including the Anabaptist and Pietistic movements in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Both the strengths and weaknesses of each group will be applied to the modern world.

1ST698
Science and Theology. 3 hours
In this course, students analyze the history of the interactions and conflicts between the church and changing scientific views. Particular emphasis is placed on the works of Reformed theologians and the development of a Reformed view of the relationship between science and theology.

2ST710 3 hours
6ST710 2 hours
Eastern Religions and Philosophies.
A study of the predominant Eastern religions and philosophies and their influence in the world today.

2ST711 3 hours
6ST711 2 hours
Twentieth-Century Theologians.
This course includes a study of theologians such as Barth, Brunner, Bultmann, Bonhoeffer, Tillich, Cobb, Moltmann, Pannenberg, Rahner, Kung, and others, analyzing their theologies from a biblical perspective.

2ST716
Modern Views of God. 2 hours
Critical analysis of some significant views of God in recent literature, including process thought, open theism, and feminism. Comparisons and contracts with Biblical and Reformed teaching.

4ST777 • 6ST777
Integrative Paper. 5 hours
Independent interdisciplinary study culminating in a paper synthesizing research and degree program curriculum content.
