American Presbyterianism
Dr. S. Donald Fortson, III
Course Overview

Course Description:

0HT607 American Presbyterianism, 2 hours
Lecturing Professor and Professor of Record:
Dr. S. Donald Fortson, III

This class is an introduction to the faith and practice of Presbyterianism in America. The course will trace the historical path of the American Presbyterian family as it has unfolded from the colonial period up to the present day. Emphasis will be placed on major events, movements, controversies, institutions and personalities that have helped shape the contemporary church’s faith. In telling the uniquely American story of Presbyterianism, the course will address the changing culture of the United States and its impact on Presbyterians.

Course Objectives:

• Provide an overview of the American Presbyterian story
• Introduce the key personalities and events that influenced each era
• Identify the major turning points which continue to define Presbyterianism
• Consider how the changing culture of the U.S. has shaped the church
• Reflect on how Presbyterian history has an impact on faith and practice today

Co-editor of the Westminster Larger Catechism in Modern English (Summertown Co., 2004)
Forum Discussion (15%):
The student is required to interact in two (2) forums:
   1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
      A. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
      B. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student’s answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question, therefore, requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts =10 total posts).
      C. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to post four (4) times in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.
   2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)
      A post may be either a new topic or a response to an already existing topic.

Quizzes (15%):
There will be three quizzes for this course each worth 5%. The first quiz will cover Lessons 1-3. The second quiz will cover Lessons 4-5. The third quiz will cover Lessons 6-7. The format of each quiz will be one essay question that the student will answer in 3-5 paragraphs. The student should use the Lesson Questions and Topical Discussion Questions in preparation and study for the exam. The student will have two hours to complete each quiz.

The quizzes for this course are to be taken online in the Learning Management System (LMS). Please note that you will need to have a proctor for your exams. Your proctor can be anyone except a relative or current RTS Student. After clicking on the exam link you will be given detailed instructions about the exam. Please read these instructions carefully before entering the exam.

Research Paper (50%):
The student will write a 15-18 page research paper on an event, movement, controversy, or person in American Presbyterian history. The paper should include research into primary sources as well as secondary sources. Lectures and text books will assist students to identify a paper topic as well as guidance from the instructor. Approval of the research topic is required. The paper must be formatted according to Turabian style with 12-point font, double-spaced, with single spaced footnotes and a bibliography. See section titled “Research Paper Instructions” in this syllabus.
Reading Report (10%):
The student must complete all of the required reading. Reading assignments are broken down week by week within the LMS. As an assignment, the student will be asked to report the percentage of reading they have completed by submitting a reading report with their Name, Course Name, End date, and percentage of reading completed.

Paper Outline and Bibliography (5%):
The student will write and submit (in week 4) a two-page proposal that describes their topic, outline, and preliminary bibliography for their research paper. The first page should include a one-paragraph description of your topic and a beginning outline for your paper. The second page should be a preliminary bibliography for your research paper. The bibliography should contain a minimum of ten books, essays or articles; give full bibliographic information for each source (author, publisher, date, etc.) This is to be submitted in the LMS in week 4 of the course.

Mentor Report OR Course Application Paper (5%):
If you are enrolled in an RTS Global degree program, you are required to submit a mentor report at the end of the course. Every portion of the form (goals, summaries, assessments, and signatures) should be filled out completely by both the student and the mentor to receive full credit. You can download the Mentor Report form in your Canvas classroom.

If you are receiving your degree through another RTS campus (Orlando, Jackson, Charlotte, et. al.), or are a certificate student, or special student (e.g. from another seminary), you are asked to write a 200-word summary of how you perceive what you have learned in this course will fit into the objectives you have for your ministry, your educational goals, or other objectives you wish to achieve in life. Course Application Papers (CAP) that fall well-short of 200 words will receive a grade deduction.

Assignments:
Best practice for your time management is for you to submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.
