

NT5125 – Greek II

Course Syllabus, Fall 2019 — RTS-Orlando

1. Course Details

- Three credit hours
- Thursdays from 2:00pm–5:00pm, August 29–December 5
- Course Description: This course continues the study of grammar, builds vocabulary, and develops techniques for the exposition of the Greek text. Prerequisite: NT5100.

2. Instructor Information

- Gregory R. Lanier, Ph.D., Associate Professor, RTS-Orlando
- Email: glanier@rts.edu
- Office: Main administrative building
- Office Hours: Email to set up appointment

3. Objectives

- Continue to grow in appreciation for the importance of the study and use of the original biblical languages in lifelong and vibrant Christian ministry
- Develop greater proficiency with vocabulary and grammar as a foundation for further study
- Understand some of the recent developments in the study of New Testament Greek

4. Texts

- Greek Textbooks (required)
 - William D. Mounce, Basics of Biblical Greek Grammar (4th ed.; Zondervan, 2019).
 - William D. Mounce, Basics of Biblical Greek Workbook (4th ed.; Zondervan, 2019).
 - You must purchase the 4th edition of both, as they have been extensively revised
 - Note: referred to as “Grammar” and “Workbook,” respectively, below.
- Critical edition of the Greek New Testament (required)
 - Two options (pick one):
 1. Novum Testamentum Graece with Dictionary (28th ed.; Stuttgart: Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft, 2012). ISBN 978-1619700468. a.k.a. NA-28 (“blue” one)
 2. UBS Greek New Testament with Dictionary (5th ed.; Stuttgart: Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft, 2012). ISBN 978-1619701397. a.k.a. UBS-5 (“red” one)
 - Notes on these two editions:
 - Students are permitted to use NA-27 or UBS-4, if they have already purchased them. Note, however, that the critical text and apparatus(es) are different (esp. in the catholic epistles) relative to NA-28/UBS-5, which could introduce some discrepancy relative to discussion in class (which will use NA-28/UBS-5). Other prior versions are not permissible.

- The critical texts of each—NA-28 and UBS-5—are identical, but paragraph divisions, punctuation, capitalization, presentation of OT citations, and so forth occasionally vary.
 - The major differences lie in the textual apparatus for each version. NA-28 offers more variants but a more compressed amount of detail for each; UBS-5 focuses on fewer variants but gives more detail.
 - NA-28 is geared more towards academic/scholarly users, while UBS-5 is geared more towards translators/students/pastors.
- Additional required reading
 - To be provided on the first day of class.
- Greek tools (optional)
 - UBS Greek New Testament: A Reader's Edition (5th Edition; Stuttgart: Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft, 2015).
 - Highly recommended
 - However, cannot be used as a substitute for a proper critical edition
 - William D. Mounce, Basics of Biblical Greek Vocabulary (Grand Rapids: Zondervan)
 - William D. Mounce, Basics of Biblical Greek Vocabulary Cards (Grand Rapids: Zondervan)
 - Various app-based flashcard tools (consult with 2nd and 3rd year students).
 - Bible software package: BibleWorks, Logos, or Accordance are all acceptable. You do not need to have software for Greek I, but it will become increasingly important as you progress through Greek and will be required for Greek Exegesis.
 - Online edition of Nestle-Aland 28th Edition: <http://www.academic-bible.com/en/online-bibles/novum-testamentum-graece-na-28/read-the-bible-text/>.

5. Course Assignments

- Weekly quizzes
 - At the beginning of each class meeting (including the first day of class) we will have a quiz covering the textbook materials, including vocabulary, covered previously. As with mathematics or any other subject, language study is cumulative, so all quizzes by definition are cumulative. However, there will be a general emphasis on more recent content.
 - Quizzes will be taken during the first 30 minutes of class time and graded in class.
 - One quiz will be dropped.
 - Quizzes will be graded according to the 90% rule: 90% correct = 100%.
 - Quizzes cannot be taken outside the allocated class time. No exceptions.
 - Any missed quiz receives a 0.
- Reading and Workbook Exercises
 - Students are responsible for reading the assigned textbook pages and completing the workbook exercises per the schedule below. You will complete the Grammar reading for a given subject in Mounce after we discuss it in class, and the associated Workbook assignments are to be completed before the next class meeting—and, thus, will be part of the quiz for that given day.

- Examinations
 - We will have two 1.5-hour midterm examinations in class covering material from the course up to that date. The exams will essentially be structured as lengthier quizzes.
 - The final exam will also be 1.5-hours and will be taken during the RTS examination week.
 - The 90% rule is not in effect for examinations.

- Writing assignment
 - Each student will prepare a 2-page paper (single spaced, with footnotes as appropriate) that does some basic textual analysis and exegesis of a passage from Scripture. Pick a passage of interest (3-5 verses) and work through it using the tools learned in class. Make observations about vocabulary, verbs, conjunctions, relative clauses, and so on as such features appear in your selected passage. Also provide your own translation based on your exegetical work.
 - You do not have to argue a specific thesis. Rather, the goal is to get you thinking about how to approach Scripture using the analytical tools you have learned in Greek I and II.
 - Submit the paper online via Canvas by the date specified therein.
 - Late papers will not be accepted.

6. Grading

• Weekly quizzes (11 with 1 drop=3.5% ea.)	35%
• Examination 1	15%
• Examination 2	20%
• Examination 3	25%
• Writing assignment	5%
	100%

Important: students must make at least an 80% overall average for the course to advance to Greek Exegesis.

7. Schedule

- Our class schedule will generally run as follows:
 - Weekly quiz (or examination)
 - Discussion of new topics from Mounce, including vocabulary
 - Application to “real world” examples in the Greek NT
 - TA-led “lab” before or after class (to be determined based on class preference)
- You are responsible for the vocabulary included in each assigned chapter of the Grammar.
- Note: Workbook exercises track precisely with the chapter numbers in the Grammar; that is, “Exercise 21” in the Workbook corresponds to “Chapter 21” in the Grammar.
- A detailed weekly schedule will be provided on the first day of class.

8. Other Details

- Students are not permitted to use laptops, tablets, or phones in class.
- Both Mounce books and the Greek NT must be brought to class every day.
- The Greek TAs will offer weekly “tutorials/labs”; schedule will be determined when the course begins.
