Course Description:

0NT5200 Gospels, 3 hours
Lecturing Professor and Professor of Record:
Dr. Michael J. Kruger

Attention is given to each writer’s literary art, theological teaching, pastoral purpose, and message for today’s church and world.

Course Objectives:

• To gain familiarity with the contents of the four Gospels.
• To gain acquaintance with the main theories of authorship, origin, and compositional relationship of the Gospels.
• To understand and evaluate, discerningly, the main lines of historical criticism of the Gospels in the modern period.
• To understand the main elements of the message of Jesus, revealed in word and deed, as reflected in the unified witness of the Gospels.
• To recognize the distinctive emphases of each of the four Gospels, and the implications of their diversity for interpretation and proclamation.
• To grow in personal responsiveness to the Gospel’s message of faith, repentance, humility, obedience, joy, etc.

Meet the Professor

Lecturing Professor:

Dr. Michael J. Kruger (Ph.D., University of Edinburgh) is President and the Samuel C. Patterson Professor of New Testament and Early Christianity at Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte, NC. He is one of the leading scholars today in the study of the origins of the New Testament, particularly the development of the New Testament canon and the transmission of the New Testament text. He is the author of numerous books including The Gospel of the Savior (Brill, 2005), The Heresy of Orthodoxy (Crossway, 2010, with Andreas Köstenberger), Canon Revisited (Crossway, 2012), and The Question of Canon (IVP, 2013). He is also the co-editor of The Early Text of the New Testament (Oxford, 2012), and Gospel Fragments (Oxford, 2009). Dr. Kruger is ordained in the Presbyterian Church in America and also serves (part-time) as Pastor of Teaching at Uptown PCA in downtown Charlotte. You can follow his blog at www.michaeljkruger.com or on Twitter @michaeljkruger.

Publications by Dr. Kruger:

Various articles published in...
The Journal of Theological Studies
The Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society
The Expository Times
The Master’s Seminary Journal
Forum Discussion (15%):
The student is required to interact in two (2) forums:

1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
   A. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
   B. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student’s answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question, therefore, requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts =10 total posts).
   C. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to post four (4) times in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.

2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)
   • A post may be either a new topic or a response to an already existing topic.

Examinations (Midterm 20%, Final 20%):
There will be two examinations in this course: a midterm exam covering both lectures and readings for lessons 1-6 and a final exam covering lessons 7-12 lectures and readings. Students should use the Lesson Review Questions and Topical Discussion Questions to guide them in their study for the exam.

The midterm and final exams for this course are to be taken online in the Learning Management System (LMS). Please note that you will need to have a proctor for your exams. Your proctor can be anyone except a relative or current RTS Student. After clicking on the exam link you will be given detailed instructions about the exam. Please read these instructions carefully before entering the exam.

Research Paper (30%):
Serious research paper approximately 15 typed pages (double spaced) in length (20 pages max) with page numbers. Students must use the guidelines in the current edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, by Kate L. Turabian. The paper should have single-spaced footnotes (not endnotes) and resemble the articles found in the standard journals; e.g., JBL, JTS, JETS, NTS, etc. See section titled “Research Paper Instructions” in this syllabus for more instructions.
Reading Report (10%):
Read the four Gospels through twice in English and read all of the assigned reading from the required textbooks.

Mentor Report OR Course Application Paper (5%):
If you are enrolled in an RTS Global degree program, you are required to submit a mentor report at the end of the course. Every portion of the form (goals, summaries, assessments, and signatures) should be filled out completely by both the student and the mentor to receive full credit. You can download the Mentor Report form in your Canvas classroom.

If you are receiving your degree through another RTS campus (Orlando, Jackson, Charlotte, et. al.), or are a certificate student, or special student (e.g. from another seminary), you are asked to write a 200-word summary of how you perceive what you have learned in this course will fit into the objectives you have for your ministry, your educational goals, or other objectives you wish to achieve in life. Course Application Papers (CAP) that fall well-short of 200 words will receive a grade deduction.

Assignments:
Best practice for your time management is for you to submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.

Serious research paper approximately 15 typed pages (double spaced) in length (20 pages max) with page numbers. Students must use the guidelines in the current edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, by Kate L. Turabian. The paper should have single-spaced footnotes (not endnotes) and resemble the articles found in the standard journals; e.g., JBL, JTS, JETS, NTS, etc.

This paper should use numerous sources (at least 10 is recommended), and included in those sources needs to be at least two (2) academic journal articles. The requirement for journal articles is designed to encourage students to use sources beyond just commentaries and books.

Paper Options

1. Exegesis of a Gospels text/pericope, highlighting its distinctive contribution to the Gospel’s message, taking into account both its immediate and larger historical context.
2. A biblical-theological study of any major or minor theme in the four gospels.
3. A historical study of an aspect of the origins of one or all of the four gospels; e.g., the date of John, the authorship of Matthew, etc.
4. A resolution of an apparent contradiction (or other problem) in the four Gospels.
