Lecturing Professor and Professor of Record:

Dr. Mike Allen joined the faculty of RTS-Orlando in 2015 and serves as John Dyer Trimble Professor of Systematic Theology and Academic Dean of the Orlando campus. He teaches core courses related to systematic theology and historical theology.

Dr. Allen’s research interests range widely over the various topics of Christian doctrine and eras of church history. He is eager to guide students to grow in their ability to retrieve theological riches from the past for the sake of renewing contemporary reflection, worship, and witness. In this vein, he is committed to Reformed catholicity as a confession and a posture for doing theology and approaching ministry today. He is presently writing a theological commentary on Ephesians. With Dr. Scott Swain, he serves as general editor of the T & T Clark International Theological Commentary series and the New Studies in Dogmatics series for Zondervan Academic.

He grew up in both the South and then in South Florida. He previously taught at Knox Theological Seminary for five years, where he held the D. James Kennedy Chair of Systematic Theology and also served as Dean of the Faculty. He is a teaching elder in the Presbyterian Church in America and regularly preaches throughout central Florida.

Dr. Allen and his wife, Emily, have two sons, Jackson and Will. He enjoys playing and watching basketball, running, and reading.

Publications by Dr. Allen:

- Reformed Theology (Doing Theology; London: T & T Clark, 2010).
Forum Discussion (15%):

The student is required to interact in two (2) forums:

1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
   A. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
   B. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student’s answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question, therefore, requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts =10 total posts).
   C. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to post four (4) times in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.

2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)
   A post may be either a new topic or a response to an already existing topic.

Examination (Final 20%):

There is one exam in this course, and it is worth 20% of your final grade. It consists of ten questions covering the lectures and the readings from “You Are What You Love.”

The exam for this course is to be taken online in the Learning Management System (LMS). Please note that you will need to have a proctor for your exam. Your proctor can be anyone except a relative or current RTS Student. After clicking on the exam link you, will be given detailed instructions about the exam. Please read these instructions carefully before entering the exam.

Spiritual Discipline Exercise (20%):

You are to pick a spiritual discipline that you have not practiced and to attend to it intentionally for six weeks. You are then to report on your commitment to this exercise and to post on its effect upon your life (and, as applicable, to that of your family, friends, and church community). Your report will be a single page post on Canvas that describes what you did, why you did it, how it fit into your daily or weekly rhythm, and to what effect it contributed to your spiritual growth these six weeks.

Examples: praying the hours, practicing Sabbath, attending Sunday evening worship, leading family worship, practicing Christian hospitality, etc.
Reflective Paper (20%):
You will write a concluding paper that offers personal reflections prompted by the reading of Augustine’s Confessions and Thomas Watson’s The Lord’s Prayer. Two questions must be addressed: (1) learning from Augustine, what false hope or love do you need to specifically name and repent of and how has his book given you categories for describing it; and (2) learning from Watson, what particular prayer do you need to make your own and how has this study of the Lord’s Prayer helped you understand it? In making this reflective account autobiographically, root it in biblical and theological analysis. Your report can be between 1000 and 2000 words total.

Reading Report (20%):
Read all assigned textbooks. These readings constitute 20% of the course grade. You will input the percentage completed of your reading in the “Reading Report” in the End of Course Module.

Mentor Report OR Course Application Paper (5%):
If you are enrolled in an RTS Global degree program, you are required to submit a mentor report at the end of the course. Every portion of the form (goals, summaries, assessments, and signatures) should be filled out completely by both the student and the mentor to receive full credit. You can download the Mentor Report form in your Canvas classroom.

If you are receiving your degree through another RTS campus (Orlando, Jackson, Charlotte, et. al.), or are a certificate student, or special student (e.g. from another seminary), you are asked to write a 200-word summary of how you perceive what you have learned in this course will fit into the objectives you have for your ministry, your educational goals, or other objectives you wish to achieve in life. Course Application Papers (CAP) that fall well-short of 200 words will receive a grade deduction.

Assignments:
Best practice for your time management is for you to submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.
