

GOSPELS NT 5200
Fall 2020: RTS Dallas

Note: This syllabus is the “mini-syllabus” and is not to be confused w/ the large syllabus that contains all the class-lecture notes, biblio, various articles, etc. This large syllabus will be posted later on Canvas and is needed for all the class lectures. For the first class, the student should be prepared w/ either a hard-copy of the large syllabus or have it downloaded to one’s laptop.

PROFESSOR

* Dr. Bob Cara (technically, Robert J. Cara, Ph.D.)

REQUIRED TEXTS

* Kruger, Michael, ed. A Biblical-Theological Introduction to the New Testament: The Gospel Realized. Crossway, 2016. Pages 29–135 (Matt, Mark, Luke, John); 581–91 (Synoptic Problem); 593–602 (Use of OT in NT).

* Ladd, George Eldon. A Theology of the NT. Rev. ed. Eerdmans, 1993. Pages 31–245 (Synoptic Gospels); 249–344 (Fourth Gospel).

* Cara, Robert J. Cracking the Foundation of the New Perspective on Paul: Covenantal Nomism Versus Reformed Covenantal Theology (Christian Focus / Mentor, 2017). Pages 207–72 (Overview of Judaism’s Literary Sources).

* Williams, Peter J. Can We Trust the Gospels? Crossway, 2018.

* Trinity Psalter: Words Only Edition. Crown & Covenant, 1994. (Used for devotions and singing in class.)

RECOMMENDED TEXTS

* Ferguson, Everett. Backgrounds of Early Christianity. 3rd ed. Eerdmans, 2003.

* Blomberg, Craig. The Historical Reliability of the Gospels. 2d ed. IVP Academic, 2007.

PURPOSE OF COURSE

* The over arching aim is to provide tools to the student in order that one might better interpret / apply the Gospels to one’s self, their church and their world. (See below for relationship of a variety of course objectives related to the MDiv student learning outcomes.)

* Learn narrative content of Gospels.

* Learn major biblical theological categories in the Gospels along with methodology to do further biblical theological interpretation.

* Learn best of Reformed / evangelical scholarship concerning interpretation / application of Gospels (e.g., parable theory).

* Learn enough about critical views to:

- 1) Utilize common grace insights in critical commentaries.
- 2) Provide an intelligent global critique of critical theories.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Reading

- * Kruger, ed., A Biblical Theological Introduction to the NT, 29–135, 581–602.

MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes		Rubric	Mini-Justification
In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes. *As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this syllabus.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong • Moderate • Minimal • None
Articulation (oral & written)	Broadly understands and articulates knowledge, both oral and written, of essential biblical, theological, historical, and cultural/global information, including details, concepts, and frameworks. Also includes ability to preach and teach the meaning of Scripture to both heart and mind with clarity and enthusiasm.	Strong	Theology of Gospels. Explanation and response to critical/liberal views in lectures and readings of Cara and Williams. Significant academic paper.
Scripture	Significant knowledge of the original meaning of Scripture. Also, the concepts for and skill to research further into the original meaning of Scripture and to apply Scripture to a variety of modern circumstances. (Includes appropriate use of original languages and hermeneutics; and integrates theological, historical, and cultural/global perspectives.)	Strong	Major part of class is exegeting gospels texts. Original languages used in class and encouraged in academic paper. It's a BIBLE class!
Reformed Theology	Significant knowledge of Reformed theology and practice, with emphasis on the Westminster Standards.	Moderate	Traditional Reformed categories are used, e.g., Sermon on the Mount, three uses of the law. Some references to creeds.
Sanctification	Demonstrates a love for the Triune God that aids the student's sanctification.	Moderate	Psalm singing in class. Personal application is made in class to many gospels texts.
Worldview	Burning desire to conform all of life to the Word of God. Includes ability to interact within a denominational context, within the broader worldwide church, and with significant public issues.	Minimal	Critical views are analyzed from a Reformed view.
Winsomely Reformed	Embraces a winsomely Reformed ethos. (Includes an appropriate ecumenical spirit with other Christians, especially Evangelicals; a concern to present the Gospel in a God-honoring manner to non-Christians; and a truth-in-love attitude in disagreements.)	Strong	Common grace use of critical scholars is discussed in class and required on paper. Cracking Foundation is hopefully a guide to winsome polemics.
Pastoral Ministry	Ability to minister the Word of God to hearts and lives of both church and unchurched, to include preaching, teaching, leading in worship, leading and shepherding the local congregation, aiding in spiritual maturity, concern for non-Christians.	Minimal	Course is designed to aid preaching of many texts, although other aspects of pastoral ministry are only tangentially included.
