

Intro to Pastoral & Theological Studies

04ST5100E/CHA | Dr. Brian H. Cosby
First Presbyterian Church, Fort Oglethorpe, GA
Fall 2021

COURSE DESCRIPTION

An introduction to biblical, theological, and practical ministry studies within the Reformed tradition.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Understand the connections between theological study and Christian spiritual growth;
- Discern their vocational identity and the way(s) in which theological study will inform its pursuit and practice;
- Read, research, and write in a manner appropriate to graduate theological education;
- Gain familiarity with the broad patterns of Reformed theology regarding its commitments and distinctives;
- Learn biblical models of pastoral ministry and analyze their potential to inform and revitalize churches today.

REQUIRED TEXTS

1. The Holy Bible (any version, but we will be using the ESV primarily)
2. Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms (any modern version with post-1788 American revisions)
3. Sinclair Ferguson, Some Pastors and Teachers: Reflecting a Biblical Vision of What Every Minister is Called to Be (Edinburgh: Banner of Truth, 2017).
4. R. Michael Allen, Reformed Theology (London: T&T Clark, 2010).
5. Kelly Kapic, A Little Book for New Theologians: Why and How to Study Theology (Downers Grove: IVP Academic, 2012).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Attendance, Participation, & Reading (20%)
 - a. Because this is a modified-intensive course with very few actual class days, your attendance, participation, and reading are very important.
 - b. Don't miss class, do the required course material, and come prepared to participate.
2. Book Review (20%)
 - a. Write a review of Michael Allen's Reformed Theology (see required reading above).

- b. The review should be between 800 and 1,000 words, Turabian or Chicago footnote style, double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12 pt. font.
 - c. It should be well written and should include (1) information about the author, (2) the purpose of the book, (3) the audience, (4) an overview of the content, and (5) your evaluation.
- 3. Philosophy of Pastoral Ministry Paper & Presentation (30%)
 - a. Paper should be between 8–10 pages—Turabian or Chicago footnote style, double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12 pt. font—making a case for a particular philosophy of pastoral ministry. The paper should be well written, well organized, and easy to follow.
 - b. Interact primarily with Sinclair Ferguson's Some Pastors and Teachers (see required reading above). You are also encouraged to reference other primary or secondary sources.
 - c. Provide biblical and theological support for your philosophy of pastoral ministry.
 - d. You will then present your philosophy of pastoral ministry to the class. Use of handouts and/or PowerPoint is encouraged.
- 4. Final Exam (30%)
 - a. A final exam will be given based on class discussions, handouts, and the reading.
 - b. This exam will be given on the final day of class.

MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes		Rubric	Mini-Justification
In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes. *As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this syllabus.
Articulation (oral & written)	Broadly understands and articulates knowledge, both oral and written, of essential biblical, theological, historical, and cultural/global information, including details, concepts, and frameworks. Also includes ability to preach and teach the meaning of Scripture to both heart and mind with clarity and enthusiasm.	Moderate	As an introductory course, IPTS will help equip students to use both written and oral communication and evaluate both.
Scripture	Significant knowledge of the original meaning of Scripture. Also, the concepts for and skill to research further into the original meaning of Scripture and to apply Scripture to a variety of modern circumstances. (Includes appropriate use of original languages and hermeneutics; and integrates theological, historical, and cultural/global perspectives.)	Moderate	This course will rely heavily on the Scriptures, especially in the development of a philosophy of pastoral ministry.
Reformed Theology	Significant knowledge of Reformed theology and practice, with emphasis on the Westminster Standards.	Strong	As a primary theological background to the course, students will utilize and analyze pastoral theology from a Reformed perspective.
Sanctification	Demonstrates a love for the Triune God that aids the student's sanctification.	Moderate	This course will help the students develop both theologically and spiritually.
Desire for Worldview	Burning desire to conform all of life to the Word of God.	Minimal	This course is specifically targeted at equipping students to develop an overview of pastoral and theological studies, not necessarily an entire worldview.
Winsomely Reformed	Embraces a winsomely Reformed ethos. (Includes an appropriate ecumenical spirit with other Christians, especially Evangelicals; a concern to present the Gospel in a God-honoring manner to non-Christians; and a truth-in-love attitude in disagreements.)	Moderate	Part of the development of a philosophy of pastoral ministry includes the winsome articulation of Reformed theology.
Pastoral Ministry	Ability to minister the Word of God to hearts and lives of both churched and unchurched, to include preaching, teaching, leading in worship, leading, and shepherding the local congregation, aiding in spiritual maturity, concern for non-Xns.	Strong	The development of the student's pastoral ministry (through biblical & theology study) is one of the primary goals of this course.
