

REFORMED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY (Houston, TX)
05ST5300 Covenant Theology * Fall Semester, 2021 * Dr. Ligon Duncan
Revised 6/3/2021

Course Description

This course is a study of Covenant Theology from exegetical, theological and historical perspectives. Covenant theology is the Bible's way of explaining and deepening our understanding of (1) the atonement; (2) our assurance; (3) the sacraments; (4) the continuity of redemptive history; and (5) Dynamic of God's sovereignty and Christian responsibility/piety. The doctrine of the covenants is thus important for both Reformed systematic and biblical theology (the study of special revelation from the standpoint of redemptive history).

The course will survey the successive biblical covenants from a redemptive historical perspective as well as examine the bi-covenantal structure of creation and redemption. Consideration will be given to issues such as the relation of the Old and New Testaments, the significance of the covenants for the doctrine of the atonement, for understanding sacramental theology, the implications of Covenant Theology for Reformed hermeneutics and more. Emphasis will be placed on the role of the Biblical doctrine of the covenants for preaching and pastoral ministry.

Course Objectives

To assist the student in mastering an outline of the covenantal structure of redemptive history and to help him/her begin to grasp the manifold implications of the Biblical doctrine of the covenants (for soteriology and especially the atonement, sacraments, evangelism, family life, ecclesiology, and more). The course will also aim to equip the student with a working knowledge of the history of Covenant Theology and some of the more important objections to Covenant Theology from its theological critics.

Online Lectures (Available but not required)

Online lectures may be accessed from the following address to assist the student in the class: <https://subsplash.com/reformtheosem/lb/ms/+635a671>.

Class Attendance

Given the huge amount of material we have to cover and the relative scarcity of classroom hours, attendance will be at a premium and, of course, to the benefit of the student. My TA will take roll at every class. If you need to miss a class or to leave early or to arrive late, you should seek permission (via my TA, my EA, or myself). Failure to attend class, or to engage while in the class, will be noted. No unexplained absences.

Academic Integrity

All work submitted must be the student's own. Group-produced work is not permitted. Plagiarism and copying of old assignments are all considered cheating. Students who do not fulfill assignments with requisite academic integrity will be referred to the Academic Dean with a recommendation for discipline (the student should also consult pp. 33-34 in the Handbook for further details).

Technology Use

Laptop computers may not be used during this course. Students desiring to use a laptop for note-taking purposes only may request an application for permission to do so.

Course Evaluation

1. Reading and Course Notebook (20%) Each student will keep a course notebook to reflect his studies in the course as well as provide the basis for future study or teaching opportunities. Please see the directions below for completing this assignment.
2. Doctrinal Précis' (15%) Please see the last page for details.
3. Quizzes (15%) The student should prepare for and expect a quiz over the reading that is due on select days throughout the semester. These quizzes will be taken through the Canvas website. You may not use any assistance such as, but not limited to, notes, textbooks, books, Bible, etc.
4. Final Examination (50%) The Exam will cover reading and lecture material from the whole of the course. Further details will be given.

Late Work

Students should make every effort to turn in work on time or early. In the rare case of medical or other providential emergency, extensions and/or alternative arrangements may be granted. In most cases, late assignments will be accepted but penalized one letter grade per day. Please make these arrangements with the TA as soon as possible.

Instructions for Course Notebook

The notebook assignment is designed to reward students for their labors in engaging in the classroom and in assigned reading, and to provide them with a study guide for the final exam—as well as a permanent reference resource for studying and teaching Covenant Theology in the future. The Course Notebook will be submitted as a single PDF document on Canvas. All legibly-written handwritten classroom notes will need to be scanned and placed in the course notebook. While you may not use a computer during class lecture to take notes, you may type your notes afterward to place in the course notebook.

1. Lecture notes Assignment:

Inclusion of the student's lecture notes (typed or neatly scripted) from the classroom lectures in the course notebook will enable the instructor to gauge the quality of listening and comprehension, and notetaking (and make adjustments in delivery or content beneficial for students).

2. Reading Notes Assignment:

Please include your typed notes taken on the reading of Belcher (see pages under required texts), Berkhof (see pages under required texts), Macleod (all readings), and Waters, Reid & Muether (see pages under required texts).

3. Westminster Confession of Faith (WCF) Outline Assignment:

This project calls for the student to develop a robust, typed, outline of the assigned chapter of the WCF (chapter 7). Aim for a one-page single-spaced outline, and include references to the Scripture proofs under each section of the chapter.

4. Geerhardus Vos Biblical Theology Synopsis

The student will produce a two-page single-spaced typed synopsis of Geerhardus Vos, Biblical Theology. The synopsis should be in outline form or in abbreviated narrative, should aim to enumerate the key points in Part One and Part Two of the text, and should be as compact and lucid as possible. The goal of the synopsis is for the student to accurately reproduce the flow of the book's argument and its main thrust and points. The synopsis should begin with a paragraph-length statement of the book's thesis and conclusion. Then, an outline of the assigned contents should follow. The student may also want to create a list of the best quotes, and points of weakness or disagreement.

Due Dates Summary

Sept. 24	Précis on Covenant of Works
Oct. 15	Précis on Covenant of Grace
Oct. 22	Précis on Covenant of Redemption
Oct. 29	Précis on Covenant Theology
Nov. 19	Course Binder/Notebook due
Dec. 10	Final Exam

Collection of Assignments

All assignments are due by 11:59 PM Central Time of the assigned day. Assignments received after this time will be considered late and penalized accordingly. Assignments are not to be emailed to the TA, but rather uploaded to the corresponding Canvas module.

About the Teacher

For inquiring minds who want to know, I taught full-time at RTS from June 1990- July 1996 and then became the Minister of the historic First Presbyterian Church (1837), Jackson, Mississippi in August of 1996. In 2013, I was called to serve as the Chancellor and CEO of Reformed Theological Seminary. At the beginning of 2014, I assumed that role fully as I transitioned from full-time ministry at First Presbyterian Church over to full-time leadership at RTS.

I am a native of Greenville, South Carolina, and was born and reared in a Christian home (a ninth generation Southern Presbyterian to be precise!). I am a graduate of Furman University, Greenville, SC (BA); Covenant Theological Seminary, St. Louis (MDiv, MA); and the University of Edinburgh, Scotland (PhD). I have been here in Jackson for over 25 years now.

My wife, Anne (who is a graduate of Furman University, BA; Gordon-Conwell Seminary, MRE; and Reformed Theological Seminary, MA [MFT]) is an accomplished Christian Educator in her own right, and is the loving mother of our daughter, Sarah Kennedy, and son, Jennings.

Précis Assignments

A précis is a precise summary or abstract of a particular subject matter or topic. Each student must complete four, one-page précis' of 4 assigned topics: Covenant Theology (Definition, Description, Distinctives, and History); Covenant of Redemption; Covenant of Works; Covenant of Grace. These will aid you in understanding more about the doctrine as well as provide you with teaching material for the future. Please contact the TA if you have any questions, uncertainties, or difficulties. These must be submitted in pdf format on Canvas. Each précis must be exactly one page with the bibliography on the second page. The format will be 11 pt., Times New Roman, ½” margins, single spaced. You must use MLA parenthetical citations such as [“by means of the covenant” (Marcel 127).] Following is an example of how your paper should be titled:

Name	Précis on the Covenant of Works	9/24/21

Begin by outlining the doctrine. For example, you may break the Covenant of Works down to Contracting Parties, Abiding Significance, Sacraments, Blessings & Curses, Ordinances, Christ’s Fulfillment, and Stipulations. Then fill it in with Scripture references and supporting quotations/summaries from your research maintaining the outline format. Following are two examples of précis’: one is sparse, the other is full. One is in proper format, the other is not.

Course Objectives Related to MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes

Course: 05ST5300 Covenant Theology
 Professor: Rev. Dr. J. Ligon Duncan, III
 Campus: Houston, TX
 Date: Fall 2021

MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes		Rubric	Mini-Justification
In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes. *As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this syllabus.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Strong</li> <li>➤ Moderate</li> <li>➤ Minimal</li> <li>➤ None</li> </ul>
Articulation (oral &amp; written)	Broadly understands and articulates knowledge, both oral and written, of essential biblical, theological, historical, and cultural/global information, including details, concepts, and frameworks. Also includes ability to preach and teach the meaning of Scripture to both heart and mind with clarity and enthusiasm.	Strong	The student will have a firm grasp of the fundamentals of Covenant theology as it spans and integrates the Scripture; the student will articulate his knowledge on the cumulative, comprehensive final exam as well as on four précis assignments.
Scripture	Significant knowledge of the original meaning of Scripture. Also, the concepts for and skill to research further into the original meaning of Scripture and to apply Scripture to a variety of modern circumstances. (Includes appropriate use of original languages and hermeneutics; and integrates theological, historical, and cultural/global perspectives.)	Strong	The student will be able to understand how God has dealt with man in terms of covenants throughout all of history.
Reformed Theology	Significant knowledge of Reformed theology and practice, with emphasis on the Westminster Standards.	Strong	Covenant Theology is an important concept to Reformed Theology; without a firm foundation and introduction to the Covenants, the student will be unable to grasp the Westminster Standards.
Sanctification	Demonstrates a love for the Triune God that aids the student's sanctification.	Moderate	The student will glorify the God who freely bound Himself save dead sinners by means of the Covenant of Grace.
Desire for Worldview	Burning desire to conform all of life to the Word of God.	Moderate	The student will be able to articulate a world and life view in which the Covenant of Grace is freely offered to all men as the one means of salvation from the wrath to come.
Winsomely Reformed	Embraces a winsomely Reformed ethos. (Includes an appropriate ecumenical spirit with other Christians, especially Evangelicals; a concern to present the Gospel in a God-honoring manner to non-Christians; and a truth-in-love attitude in disagreements.)	Strong	The student will understand the distinctiveness and necessity of Covenant Theology as well as a respectful engagement of alternatives such as Dispensationalism.
Pastoral Ministry	Ability to minister the Word of God to hearts and lives of both church and unchurched, to include preaching, teaching, leading in worship, leading, and shepherding the local congregation, aiding in spiritual maturity, concern for non-Christians.	Moderate	The student will find that a Scripture united by covenants provides fertile ground for preaching and teaching, proper context and understanding for worship, needed theology to properly use his gifts, and the best of reasons to love brother and neighbor.
