The Church and the World
Dr. James N. Anderson
Course Description:

00HT6200 The Church and the World, 2 hours
Lecturing Professor and Professor of Record:
Dr. James N. Anderson

This is a survey course on the major cultural, theological, and historical developments of the Christian Church in the twentieth century to the present. The course will deal with the impact of Christianity on contemporary culture as well as include key figures and movements.

Course Objectives:

• To familiarize the student with the theological landscape of the 20th century - its major movements and its most influential figures.
• To introduce the student to the various ways in which Christian thinkers from different traditions have engaged with their culture - philosophy, science, politics, etc.
• To help the student understand the forces that have shaped modern evangelicalism (i.e., to understand “how we got to where we are now”).
• To give the student an appreciation of the contemporary challenges faced by the church through its call to be “in the world but not of the world.”

Lecturing Professor and Professor of Record:

Dr. James N. Anderson is an ordained minister in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. Dr. Anderson came to RTS from Edinburgh, Scotland, and specializes in philosophical theology, religious epistemology, and Christian apologetics. His doctoral thesis at the University of Edinburgh explored the paradoxical nature of certain Christian doctrines and the implications for the rationality of Christian faith. His research and writing has also focused on the presuppositionalism of Cornelius Van Til, particularly his advocacy of the transcendental argument. Dr. Anderson has a longstanding concern to bring the Reformed theological tradition into greater dialogue with contemporary analytic philosophy. Before studying philosophy, Dr. Anderson also earned a Ph.D. in Computer Simulation from the University of Edinburgh. He is a member of the Society of Christian Philosophers, the British Society for the Philosophy of Religion, and the Evangelical Philosophical Society. Prior to joining RTS Charlotte, Dr. Anderson served as an assistant pastor at the historic Charlotte Chapel in Edinburgh where he engaged in regular preaching, teaching, and pastoral ministry. He is active now in service at Ballantyne Presbyterian Church in Charlotte. He is married to Catriona and they have three children. You can follow his blog at www.proginosko.com or on Twitter @proginosko

Forum Discussions (15%):
The student is required to interact in two (2) forums:
1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
   A. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
   B. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student’s answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question, therefore, requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts =10 total posts).
   C. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to post four (4) times in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.
2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)
   A post may be either a new topic or a response to an already existing topic.

Examinations (Midterm 20%, Final 25%):
The midterm exam will cover lessons 1-6. The format of the exam will be a series of multiple-choice questions based on the material covered to date. Use the Lesson Questions and Topical Discussion Questions to assist you in your study. You have one hour to complete the exam.

The final exam will be cumulative covering all lessons, 1-15. You should review all of the class material and all of the required reading in preparation for the exam. Use the Lesson Questions and Topical Discussion Questions to assist you in your study. You will be given a series of ten (10) short essay questions and are required to choose three (3) to respond. Responses should be approximately three paragraphs (500 words) in length. You have two hours to complete the exam.

The midterm and final exams for this course are to be taken online in the Learning Management System (LMS). Please note that you will need to have a proctor for your exams. Your proctor can be anyone except a relative or current RTS Student. After clicking on the exam link you will be given detailed instructions about the exam. Please read these instructions carefully before entering the exam.

Research Paper (30%):
The student is required to write a paper (between 3500 and 4000 words, excluding footnotes) based on one of the thinkers covered in class (Machen, Barth, Bultmann, Tillich, Moltmann, Hick, McLaren, Niebuhr, etc.). You are free to choose whichever one you want, but be sure to choose one that gives you the scope to write a good paper. If you’re in any doubt, consult the professor first using the Student to Professor Forum. See section titled “Research Paper Instructions” in this syllabus.

Reading Report (5%):

The student must complete all of the required reading. Reading assignments are broken down week by week within the LMS. The Reading Report will indicate the amount of required reading that has been completed during the semester and must be filled out and submitted at the end of the course. No partial credit is given for readings that have not been completed.

Mentor Report OR Course Application Paper (5%):

If you are enrolled in an RTS Global degree or certificate program, you are required to submit a mentor report at the end of the course. Every portion of the form (goals, summaries, assessments, and signatures) should be filled out completely by both the student and the mentor to receive full credit. You can download the Mentor Report form in your Canvas classroom.

If you are receiving your degree through another RTS campus (Orlando, Jackson, Charlotte, et. al.) or special student (e.g. from another seminary), you are asked to write a 200-word summary of how you perceive what you have learned in this course will fit into the objectives you have for your ministry, your educational goals, or other objectives you wish to achieve in life. Course Application Papers (CAP) that fall well-short of 200 words will receive a grade deduction.

Assignments:

Best practice for your time management is for you to submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.

Research Paper Instructions

The student is required to write a paper (between 3500 and 4000 words, excluding footnotes) based on one of the thinkers covered in class (Machen, Barth, Bultmann, Tillich, Moltmann, Hick, McLaren, Niebuhr, etc.). You are free to choose whichever one you want, but be sure to choose one that gives you the scope to write a good paper. If you’re in any doubt, consult the professor first using the Student to Professor Forum.

The paper should be themed as follows: Imagine if your chosen thinker were to attend your local church for a year (either your home church or the church where you currently worship). Based on your understanding of the main concerns and claims of your chosen thinker, what recommendations would he (or she) give as to how your church could more faithfully or effectively engage with the world around it? (Clearly you will have to consider what would count as “faithful” or “effective” for this particular person!)

In essence, the paper requires (a) analysis of your chosen thinker, (b) analysis of your church’s current engagement with culture/society, (c) application of the former to the latter, and (d) an evaluation of this application in the light of Scripture and reason.

Your paper should include all of the following:
1. An explanation (not merely a statement) of what your chosen thinker would recommend for your church, documented from at least one primary source and any number of secondary sources.
2. An explanation of why these recommendations would be made for your church.
3. A positive appraisal of these recommendations (i.e., how your church could benefit from the insights of this person). If you can’t find anything positive to say, then you should choose another thinker!
4. A critical assessment of these recommendations in the light of your reading of Scripture.

Your paper will be graded according to the following criteria, in no particular order: responsible use of Scripture, responsible use of sources, creativity, clarity, structure and coherence, cogency of argument, practical relevance, evidence of critical thinking, and good writing style (including grammar, spelling, and punctuation).

The paper should cite at least 8 scholarly sources (not including Scripture).
1. For the purposes of this paper, a scholarly source is a book or article by a recognized expert in the field (and not aimed at a popular level for a general audience)-ideally one that has been peer-reviewed.
2. Wikipedia is clearly not a scholarly source.
3. That said, with sufficient discernment, Wikipedia can be a useful pointer to scholarly sources and is generally reliable for fact-checking on uncontroversial issues.
4. Please consult the professor (using the Student to Professor Forum) if you have any doubts about whether a source is scholarly.
The paper should be word-processed, not hand-written.
1. Use a 12-point font and double line-spacing for the main text.
2. Use section headings where applicable to improve readability.
3. Use footnotes (10-point font) rather than endnotes.
4. Use the guidelines in the current edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, by Kate L. Turabian.

The paper should be submitted with a title page containing all of the following: the name and year of the course; your name; the professor’s name; the title of the paper; and the exact word count for the paper (obtained from your word processor’s word-count feature).

You will be penalized if you do not observe the requirements and guidelines above.
