Forum Discussions (15%):

The student is required to interact in two (2) forums:

1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
 - A. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
 - B. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student's answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question, therefore, requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts = 10 total posts).
 - C. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to post four (4) times in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.
2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)
 - A post may be either a new topic or a response to an already existing topic.

Examination (Midterm 20% - Final 20%):

There are two exams, a midterm and a final. You may take each exam twice. Canvas will record your highest score. Both exams will be taken on Canvas. The midterm: Covers the lecture material through the book of Joshua. Books of the OT – English divisions and order (see below). The final: Covers the lecture material from the book of Judges through the book of Chronicles. Books of the OT – Hebrew divisions and order (see below). Preparation: Be prepared to answer questions based on the lectures. Questions will be based on lectures and relevant portions of the Historical Workbook.

The exam for this course will be taken online in the Learning Management System (LMS). Please note that you will need to have a proctor for your exams. Your proctor can be anyone except a relative or current RTS Student. After clicking on the exam link you will be given detailed instructions about the exam. Please read these instructions carefully before entering the exam. You may take each exam two times; Canvas will assign the higher of the two grades.

Final Paper (20%):

As a final paper, the student will select one of the prompts below to respond to. The response must be between 1000-1500 words (not including footnotes). It must also incorporate 4-6 sources. Please make sure you follow correct formatting (see attached paper guidelines). With precision and concision, develop a brief argument pertaining to the prompt. This paper will be submitted at the End of Course Assignments.

- Analyze one or two ANE deities and their relationship to Yahweh as displayed in the - historical books. This should incorporate exegesis of two to three passages of Scripture

- Investigate the origins of the Hebrew Canon and the change in the Christian Canon. Include analysis and conclusions of strengths of each.
 - Exegete parallel passages in Kings and Chronicles examining their similarities and differences.
 - Exegete a passage of 7-12 verses developing its context and content

Workbook (15%):

During the length of this course, you will produce a workbook on the history of Israel by answering questions on chapters 5-15 in Kingdom of Priests: A History of Old Testament Israel by Eugene Merrill. The questions are found in the study guide below. You are encouraged to start early as the exams will cover information found in the reading and study guide. You will submit the Workbook at the end of the course in a single .pdf document.

Reading Report (10%):

You will submit the total percentage of reading done for this course.

Mentor Report OR Course Application Paper (5%):

If you are enrolled in an RTS Global degree or certificate program, you are required to submit a mentor report at the end of the course. Every portion of the form (goals, summaries, assessments, and signatures) should be filled out completely by both the student and the mentor to receive full credit. You can download the Mentor Report form in your Canvas classroom.

If you are receiving your degree through another RTS campus (Orlando, Jackson, Charlotte, et. al.) or special student (e.g. from another seminary), you are asked to write a 200-word summary of how you perceive what you have learned in this course will fit into the objectives you have for your ministry, your educational goals, or other objectives you wish to achieve in life. Course Application Papers (CAP) that fall well-short of 200 words will receive a grade deduction.

Assignments:

Best practice for your time management is for you to submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.

Research Paper Instructions

As a final paper, the student will select one of the prompts below to respond to. The response must be between 1000-1500 words (not including footnotes). It must also incorporate 4-6 sources. Please make sure you follow correct formatting (see attached paper guidelines). With precision and concision, develop a brief argument pertaining to the prompt. This paper will be submitted at the End of Course Assignments.

- Analyze an ANE deity and their relationship to Yahweh as displayed in the historical books. This should incorporate exegesis of two to three passages of Scripture.
- Investigate the origins of the Hebrew Canon and the change in the Christian Canon. Include analysis and conclusions of strengths of each.
- Exegete parallel passages in Kings and Chronicles examining their similarities and differences.
- Exegete a passage of 7-12 verses developing its context and content

Note: If you use these questions as an outline or as a guide for content, be sure to use these considerations to strengthen and develop a single, coherent argument. Do not address these questions independent from the main argument of your paper.

The following are criteria that will be used to evaluate the paper:

Cogency of argument:

- Is there a thesis statement?
- How well does the argument hang together?
- How well are pertinent and fundamental points brought out?

The use of sources:

- This is a research paper so avoid study Bibles as a source
- At least one journal article must be cited.
- Use a variety of commentaries (older vs. modern, critical vs. conservative). Read as many commentaries as you can, including conservative commentaries, those from a critical perspective, and at least one older commentary, such as Calvin, Geneva series, etc.
- Research is important and can be included in footnotes. Think of at least 4 - 6 sources.
- Discussions of historical context, genre, and redemptive history (where these are appropriate but do not go overboard); just give the reader enough information to understand your paper. Some issues, like authorship, can be omitted or issues and bibliography related to authorship can be given in footnotes.

Biblical Languages:

- You are expected to use as much Hebrew as you are able.
- Make a note on your paper regarding previous coursework in Greek and Hebrew.

Format:

- Use the 8th edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, by Kate L. Turabian.
- Do not make a Scripture reference as a footnote, but put it in parenthesis in the paper.

- The paper should be 1000 - 1500 words (not including footnotes), double-spaced, numbered, and with one inch margins on all sides, except the left margin should have a 1 1/4 inch margin.
- Do not leave extra space between paragraphs

Here are sample footnote references that you need to follow or you could lose points on your paper. These footnotes follow Turabian, 8thed.. The following examples give sample first references for books, journal articles, and an article in a book, followed by second references to a work, which are shortened.

Please note: When citing various works (journals, commentary series, reference works, ancient documents, etc.), you must follow the given abbreviations found in section 8 of the SBL Handbook of Style, 2nd ed. This resource is available in a digital format at library.rts.edu
