Grades

Participation (25%):

1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
 - a. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
 - b. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student's answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question, therefore, requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts = 10 total posts).
 - c. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to contribute five (5) substantive posts in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.
2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)

The student is required to contribute five (5) substantive posts in this forum. A post may be a new topic, a response to an already existing topic, a question the student has, or a statement to another student.

Final Essay (Final 20%):

The student is required to write a final essay that answers the following questions:

1. What brought you to seminary and what do you hope to do with your degree?
2. What are some tips for taking advantage of distance education?

Your essay should be 1-2 pages in length, double-spaced with standard margins. You are required to upload your finished exam essay in MS Word or PDF format using the appropriate upload link in the Learning Management System (LMS/Canvas). You are not required to have a title page or bibliography but please be sure your name and date are on the submitted document:

Quizzes (25%):

The student is required to complete four quizzes in the course. These quizzes will cover specific course content related to the modules in which they are presented. Quizzes are not cumulative.

Reading (25%):

The student is required to complete all reading assignments. An assignment link for reporting the completed percentage of required reading is provided in Canvas.

Mentor Agreement Form (5%):

The church-based mentor is a key component of M.A. degree programs and all Global M.A. and certificate program students are required to choose a mentor. Your mentor may be a pastor, elder, or other mature Christian in the church. You must upload a completed Mentor Agreement form, signed by your mentor, to register your mentor with RTS. Your mentor will receive a welcome letter and several books to enjoy as a gift.

As you take courses during your program, you are required to meet with your mentor once every month (3 credit hour course = 3 mentor meetings) to discuss course material and the application of what you have learned to your personal, professional, and ministerial growth. A copy of the Mentor Agreement form is available for download in the LMS.

Please note you are not required to submit a Mentor Report for this course but will be required to submit one for each course you take in the future.

Assignments:

Best practice for your time management is for you to complete and submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.
